

Ronald Reagan Presidential Library Digital Library Collections

This is a PDF of a folder from our textual collections.

WHORM Subject File Code: SO004

(Social Affairs: Receptions, White House)

Case file Number(s): 202754

(2 of 2)

To see more digitized collections visit:

<https://www.reaganlibrary.gov/archives/digitized-textual-material>

To see all Ronald Reagan Presidential Library inventories visit:

<https://www.reaganlibrary.gov/archives/white-house-inventories>

Contact a reference archivist at: reagan.library@nara.gov

Citation Guidelines: <https://reaganlibrary.gov/archives/research-support/citation-guide>

National Archives Catalogue: <https://catalog.archives.gov/>

Last Updated: 11/15/2024

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Lindsey:

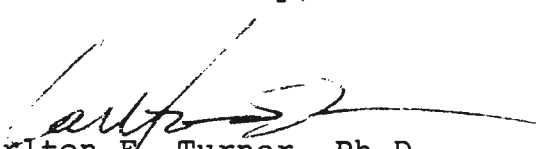

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Thomas Lindsey
427 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Loeffler:

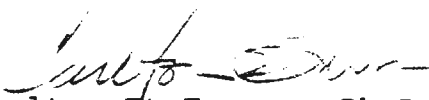

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Tom Loeffler
1212 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Lott:

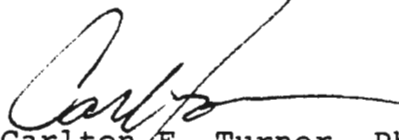

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Trent Lott
2400 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Lujan:

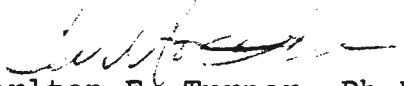

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Manuel Lujan, Jr.
1323 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Martin:

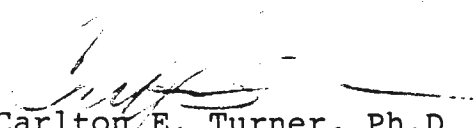

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. James G. Martin
2186 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman Matsui:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman Robert T. Matsui
231 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Matsunaga:

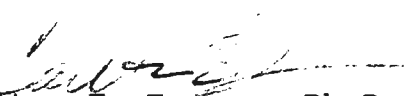

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Spark M. Matsunaga
109 Senate Hart Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Mattingly:

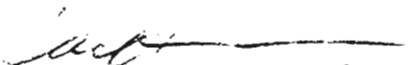

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Mack Mattingly
320 Senate Hart Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. McCandless:

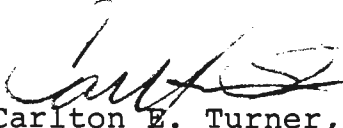

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Alfred A. McCandless
510 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. McDade:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Carlton E. Turner', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Joseph McDade
2370 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. McClure:

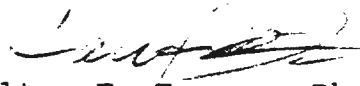

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. James A. McClure
361 Senate Dirksen Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. McEwen:

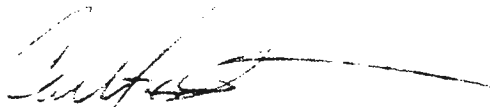

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Bob McEwen
329 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. McNulty:

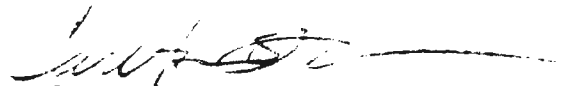

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. James F. McNulty
1338 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Moore:

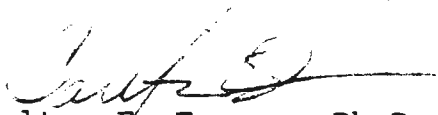

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. W. Henson Moore
2404 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Moorhead:

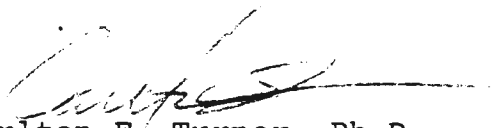

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Carlos J. Moorhead
2346 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Murkowski:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday.. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Frank H. Murkowski
317 Senate Hart Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Myers:

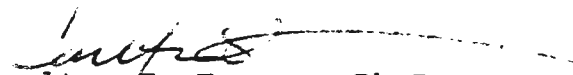

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. John T. Myers
2372 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Nelson:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Bill Nelson
307 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman Ortiz:

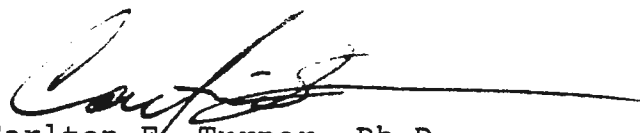

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman Solomon P. Ortiz
1524 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman Oxley:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman Michael G. Oxley
1108 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman Parris:

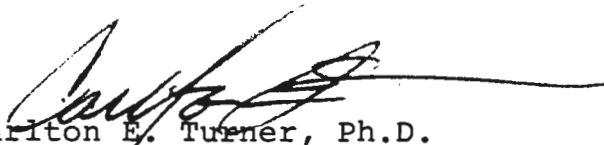

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman Stan Parris
230 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Patterson:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Jerry M. Patterson
2238 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman Pritchard:

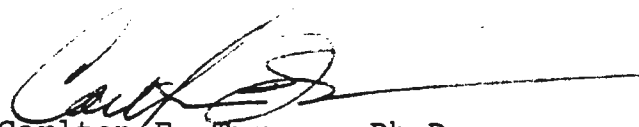

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman Joel Pritchard
2268 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Rangel:

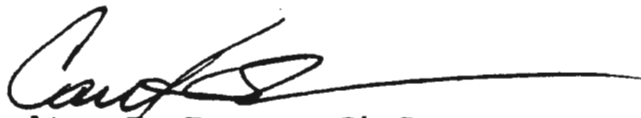

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Charles B. Rangel
2330 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Rodino:

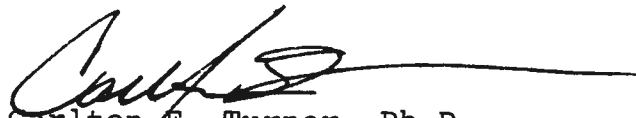

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Peter W. Rodino, Jr.
2462 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Rudd:

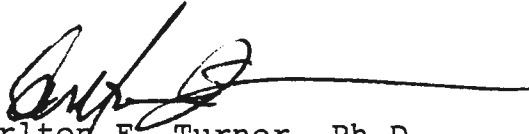

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Eldon Rudd
2244 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman Scheuer:

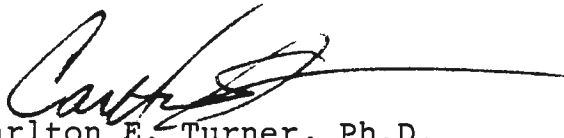

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman James H. Scheuer
2402 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Schultze:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Richard T. Schultze
2421 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Shaw:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. E. Clay Shaw, Jr.
322 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Shumway:

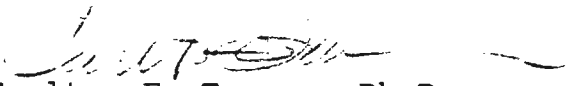

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Norman P. Shumway
1203 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Shuser:

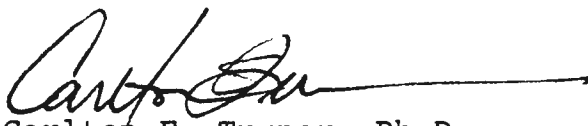

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Carlton E. Turner", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Bud Shuser
2455 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Simpson:

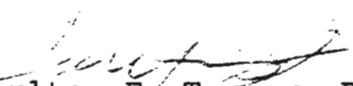

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Alan K. Simpson
709 Senate Hart Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Smith:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Lawrence J. Smith
113 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Smith:

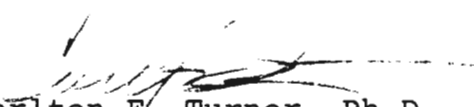

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Neal Smith
2373 Rayburn House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Solomon:

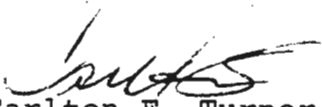

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Gerald B.H. Solomon
227 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Spratt:

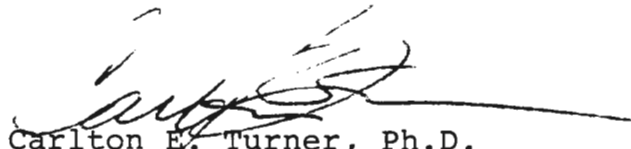

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. John M. Spratt, Jr.
1118 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Stark:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Fortney H. Stark
1034 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Stevens:

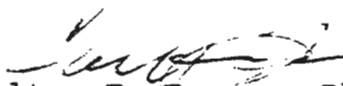

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Ted Stevens
147 Senate Russell Office Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Sundquist:

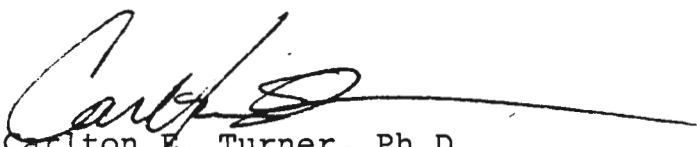

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Carlton E. Turner', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Don Sundquist
515 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Symms:

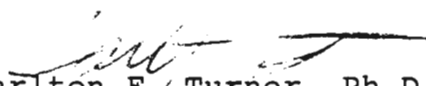

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Steven D. Symms
509 Senate Hart Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Thomas:

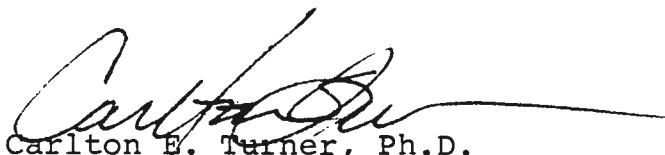

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. William M. Thomas
324 Cannon House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman Towns:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman Edolphus Towns
1009 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Tribble:

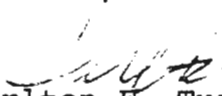

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Paul S. Tribble, Jr.
517 Senate Hart Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Wilson:

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Pete Wilson
720 Senate Hart Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Wright:

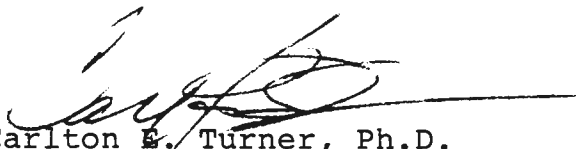

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Congressman and Mrs. Jim Wright
1236 Longworth House Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 6, 1984

Dear Senator and Mrs. Zorinsky:

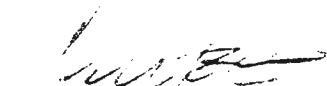

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday. Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Special Assistant to the President
for Drug Abuse Policy

Senator and Mrs. Edward Zorinsky
443 Senate Russell Office Building
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510