Dear Mr. President,

I want to thank you for the beautiful leather desk calendar you gave me for Christmas.
I will use it throughout, not only this year, but the years to come. It will be a constant reminder of the honor you bestowed upon me
by asking me to be a part of this "New Beginning".
It will also remind me of your friendship over the years. With appreciation and best wishes

Dear Gillis:

This is to thank you for your October 23 note on behalf of your constituent who has requested a writing pen with the President's signature.

Because of the great number of requests the President receives for mementoes, it is not possible to oblige them all. He believes it is unfair to select a few for preferential treatment while excluding others. However, your interest in contacting us on behalf of your constituent is appreciated, and we hope you will understand.

Dear Mr. President:

I am delighted to have your very thoughtful gift of a desk book. As I mentioned to you after the NSC today, it is an extraordinarily handsome addition for the top of General Pershing's old desk, and I am most grateful to you.

As goes without saying, I have thoroughly enjoyed this great opportunity to work with you during the past year and to be associated with the major changes you have wrought in all of the old unfortunate ways we did business for so long.

Jane joins me in sending our very best wishes to you and Nancy for a most Merry Christmas and a particularly Happy New Year.

Dear Mr. President;

We wish to thank you for the Jelly Bean Jar which you sent to us with Carrie Redebaugh. It is on display at the Reagan Home and all of our volunteers want to take it home with them.

We also want to express our thanks for your support and offer of pictures. But as we told Carrie, the greatest picture we could have is one of you standing on the front porch of the Ronald Reagan Home in Dixon. We look forward to the day that one is taken there.

BE003-01

Dear Friends:

It was a real pleasure to meet and present each of you with a gold medal in honor of your trans-Atlantic crossing in the "Double Eagle II." Like the Montgolfiers, you captured the spirit of man's daring to reach new plateaus in his quest for adventure and discovery. As Americans, you proved once again that nothing is impossible within the realm of freedom which our great nation still offers to those who take up the challenge.

I want to thank you again for the impressive color pictures of the "Double Eagle II" and for the handsome platter from New Mexico which you kindly brought for Nancy and me. Your thoughtful remembrances are indeed appreciated, and we shall keep them as special reminders of three particularly "daring young men" who won the hearts of freedom-loving people everywhere.

With our very best wishes for the success of your future ventures,

Sincerely,

ROBERT REAGAN A

AN ATTRACTIVE COLLECTION OF SERVING PIECES

NAMBE

Designers and Manufacturers
NAMBE MILLS, INC.
Santa Fe, New Mexico

NAMBE—Unique serving pieces and decorative accessories—individually sandcast in a new and remarkable alloy of eight different metals. NAMBE designs—both contemporary and traditional—a handcrafted New Mexico art—combine the beauty of antique silver—the look of polished pewter—the durability of cast iron. Since NAMBE is a solid metal without surface plating or coloring, it will not chip, break or be damaged by open flame. It also will not cause food to taste. It may be used under the broiler, in the oven, over an open flame and brought directly to the table. NAMBE heat retention properties keep foods piping hot—prechilled in the freezer or refrigerator keeps salads crunchy-crisp—or frozen desserts icy cold.

THE CARE OF NAMBE: When used as an occasional or decorative piece, very little care is required. Pieces used for baking or cooking will naturally need more attention.

Wash with mild soap and dry immediately after use. We do not recommend putting NAMBE in the dishwasher or using coarse abrasives. We also do not recommend using NAMBE for flower arrangements. A little butter or cooking oil rubbed on the interior surface prior to cooking will help retain the original lustre.

Acid foods may cause some discoloration. If staining does occur, the use of NAMBE Polish, an all-purpose metal polish, will be helpful in renewing the lustre.

Dear Mr. President:

Thank you so much for the handsome desk set with the motto about getting the job done without worrying about who gets the credit. I'm going to stick that in a prominent spot in my office, as we have a few people in the Department who could stand a gentle reminder on this score from time to time, including the undersigned.

The happiest of New Year's to you and Mrs. Reagan -- it will be a happy one, too, from where I sit!

Dear Mr. President:

What a thoughtful Christmas present the Executive's Weekly Minder is. It's a handsome and useful tool, and I'm proud to have it on my desk.

I did notice that there are six lines for every day devoted to "List of Important Things to Do." One good thing is that with fifteen Assistant Secretaries over here who all have their own lists for me it's going to make me keep my priorities straight.

Thank you very much.

Yours faithfully,
