

Reagan Library Topic Guide – Enso V. Bighinatti

Reagan Library topic guides are created by the Library staff from textual material currently available for research use. Material cited in the topic guides come from these collections:

White House Staff and Office Collections

White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject Files

White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Alphabetical Files.

The folders and case files listed on these topic guides may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) restrictions. Most frequently withdrawn material includes national security classified material, personal privacy issues, protection of the President, etc.

BIGHINATTI, ENSO V.

Mr. Bighinatti spent his entire working career with the American Red Cross and was an expert in disaster relief. He is most well-known for negotiating the release of the “Bay of Pigs” invaders stranded in Cuba and for attempts to bring food and attention to U.S. Prisoners of War during the Vietnam War. This finding aid also includes material re: the National Board of the U.S. Emergency Food and Shelter Program (FEMA) and the U.S. Aid Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid.
