collective bargaining

Governor Ronald Reagan today issued the following statement:

"There is an obvious need for a comprehensive overhaul of the state law governing local public service employee relations. Strikes and strike threats by public employees, continuing disputes between public employees and public agencies, and the fact that the public interest can be shunted to the side underscore the need for a new law.

"Today, I am happy to announce that Senator Collier will introduce legislation that will provide a reasonable and fair process for solving disputes between local public employees and their public employers. And I emphasize the word 'fair' because it not only protects the rights of public employees and their employers, but the general public as well.

"The bill will create the Public Employee Relations Board which will have the responsibility of protecting the rights of all under the law.

"At the present time there is no agency in California to insure the rights of public employee organizations and public agencies concerning the terms and conditions of employment. The board will have this function.

"The bill prohibits strikes by public employees. But it will put an end to unreasonable actions taken by local public agencies in denying public servants the right to organize and to be recognized in employee relations.

"I think the time has come when it is necessary for everyone to recognize the inherent difference between public and private employment. The status of public employees is not comparable to private employees, either in fact or in law. Basic differences between the two groups arise from the fact that the public employer was established for the benefit of all the people. Its authority derives not from the profit motive in private enterprise, but from the people themselves.

"The Collier bill makes these distinctions and, at the same time, will bring stability to employee-employer relations in our cities and counties."

The California Taxpayers' Association has joined the League of California Cities and the County Supervisors Association of California in support of legislation which will provide guidelines, procedures and supervising authority for resolving disputes between public agencies and their employees.

"In most cases public employees must decide whether they want civil service with all of its protections or whether they want to enter into collective bargaining with employers for contracts," Robert C. Brown, executive vice president of Cal-Tax said. "There are differences between civil service and the private industrial system, not only in how public holidays are determined and wages and benefits paid, but in job protection.

"For the most part local government agencies are not capable of conducting the same bargaining with employees that business and industry can. When a dispute arises in public employment, the elected officials go to the bargaining table subject to political pressures very different from those of private industry negotiators."

The measure which carries the proposal is SB 2133, by Senator Randolph Collier, as it will be amended.

The measure will establish a statewide five-member Public Employment Relations Board to hear disputes, supervise employee elections and conduct negotiations. The law would permit formation of a local commission or board to perform the duties of the state board.

The measure establishes state policy that the concepts of public employment are different from those in private employment. Public employees are working for the good of all of the public where the authority arises out of the concept of public good and not out of the motives of profit of the free enterprise system.

The County Supervisors Association of California is pleased to join in the sponsorship of the "Local Public Service Employee Relations Act," authored by Senator Collier.

The need for this legislation has been readily apparent. The strike threats by public employees, the unfair practices charges against both employee organizations and local public agencies, the confusion of the public when their vital services are interrupted by employee actions -- all these are testimony to the very real need for a rational and comprehensive overhaul of the state laws governing relationships between local public employees and public employers.

Counties have recognized this need in our past sponsorship of employee relations legislation and in our policies. We believe this new measure balances the rights and needs of local public employees with those of the taxpaying public. Further, it acknowledges the inherent differences between private sector employment and public employment: that the public employer is established by and run for the benefit of all the people and its authority derives not from the profit motive but from the constitution, statutes, municipal charters, and civil service rules and regulations.

Therefore, we are proud today to join the Governor and the League of California Cities in announcing our endorsement of this major new legislation.

LEGISLATION TO END STRIKES AND RESOLVE CONFLICTS IN PUBLIC
EMPLOYMENT IS PROPOSED

New public sector labor relations legislation which is strongly endorsed by Governor Reagan and authored by Randolph Collier, Dean of the State Senate, will be unveiled this week.

The proposal, jointly sponsored by the League of California Cities and the County Supervisors' Association of California and supported by the California Taxpayers Association, is the product of two years of effort by a special joint labor relations task force formed by the two local government organizations.

The Reagan-Collier proposal would replace the Meyers-Miliias-Brown Act (current legislation in this field) with a comprehensive new structure to govern the employment relationships of city, county and special district employees. The bill recognizes the inherent distinctions between public and private employers and builds a structure which protects the interests of the general public while also assuring public employees of a fair and equitable wage and benefit package.

The bill proposes formal collective negotiations, a ban on strikes, a state board, and a process for resolving disputes while also protecting the local taxpayer by requiring the elected local official to make the final determination on these matters which so seriously affect the local government budget.

The new legislation calls for a state Public Employment Relations Board composed of five full-time members who are required to possess qualifications and background in both labor relations and governmental operations. The PERB would be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, and the members would serve overlapping terms of five years duration.

The proposal would also give local areas or regions the right to form local or area boards to serve in place of the State PERB if the need exists and if the local board operates in a manner consistent with the activities of the state board.

A process for resolving disputes during negotiations is spelled out in the legislation. The process includes mediation, and fact-finding at the request of either party, and would also require public disclosure of the fact-finder's recommendations if either side refuses to accept such recommendations. This procedure is designed to bring substantial public criticism to bear upon either the elected representatives or the employee representatives should either party act unreasonably in their labor relations relationship.

As a further step in this effort to solve problems which can arise in connection with the representation of public employees, the proposal spells out in clear language the rights of both the public employee and the general public through their local government.

It also provides that in cases of dispute over these rights, the PERB, will make binding determinations relative to their application.

Unfair practices for both the public agency and the employee organization are identified and prohibited under the new law. It gives the PERB the duty of enforcing these prohibited practices and would allow the PERB to issue cease and desist orders to either public employers or public employees where they are engaging in an unfair practice.

The legislation being proposed will do much to stabilize labor relations in California local government. It is a positive program to clarify the issues and solve many of the problems in local government labor relations.

While the legislation does provide an alternative to the strike in the public sector, it would not take responsibility or authority away from the elected officials who are selected by the citizens of local government to represent them. The proposed legislation specifically prohibits public employees from striking or recognizing the picket lines of employee organizations while in the performance of their duties as public employees of local government.

In summary, the legislation recognizes the fundamental distinctions between public and private employment, and proposes a framework within which fair, equitable and stable local government labor relations will take place. It prohibits strikes by local government employees, it provides a mechanism to assure a fair wage, and it retains authority and responsibility for control of public expenditures in the hands of locally elected public officials chosen by the citizens to set public policy in the interests of the community.

The bill also prohibits the release of a minor under 16 from a health facility unless authorized by a parent or person having legal custody.

SB 371 - Alquist Chapter 194	This bill requires the Public Utilities Commission to disallow, for ratesetting purposes, advertising expenses by any electrical, gas, or heat corporation, every utility owned by a municipal corporation, municipal utility district, and public utility district furnishing light, heat, or power when such advertising encourages increased consumption of the services or commodities furnished by such corporation. SB 371 revises the provisions requiring designated public utilities to furnish notice of pending rate increases to provide that the notice may, rather than shall, be included with the regular bill for charges, and that the customer be informed where he may request notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing, rather than requiring the notice to so state.
SB 1566 - Grunsky Chapter 195	Would permit individual contracting agencies under the Public Employees' Retirement System to elect the highest single year of compensation rather than the highest three year average as the basis for payment of retirement benefits for local safety and local miscellaneous members.

Governor Ronald Reagan today announced that John C. Vukasin, Jr., has requested that his name be withdrawn from consideration for appointment to the First Court of Appeal in San Francisco. The governor said he is abiding by Vukasin's request and, with a great deal of reluctance, is withdrawing the nomination.

In his letter to Governor Reagan, Vukasin pointed out that in the nine weeks since his nomination the Commission on Judicial Appointments had taken no confirming action. "I sincerely believe," he said, that additional delay would be damaging to the orderly administration of justice. In order not to subject you to criticism for even further delay in filling this important position, I respectfully request that my name be withdrawn from consideration."

Governor Reagan stated:

"Unfortunately certain people, for their own purposes, have generated unwarranted controversy over the nomination of John Vukasin to the First Court of Appeal. It is extremely regrettable that such a fine and able man has been subjected to this unjustified treatment.

"He was nominated because of his reputation for unimpeachable integrity, professional ability, his outstanding record of public service, and my belief that he would make an important contribution to California's system of justice.

"I can understand his feelings in this matter and feel obligated to honor his request by reluctantly withdrawing his name from consideration."

Governor Reagan said he will place another name in nomination in the next several weeks.

Vukasin was nominated March 1, 1974.

A member of the Public Utilities Commission since 1969, Vukasin, 45, was the president of the Commission in 1970-72. He is a native of Oakland a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley and received his law degree in 1956 from the University's Boalt Hall.

Dr. Eckert was educated at UCLA, the rival institution across Los Angeles from where he is now employed. He was a research economist for General Electric for three years prior to becoming a USC professor teaching graduate and upper division courses in Price Theory and Industrial Organization.

He also was a consultant to the U.S. Secretary of Transportation on formulating policies for federally funded transportation research.

Reiter is a native of Los Angeles who has been with the architectural firm since 1952, including nine years in its San Francisco office. He is experienced in water supply and conservation, land development methods and economics, environmental engineering, construction managements, contracts and legal relationships and municipal finance. He was the project manager for many large projects---including the development of Century City, redevelopment of Bunker Hill in downtown Los Angeles, Redwood Shores, a submarine pipeline in Venezuela, Tehachapi Pump Station for the California Aqueduct and California Water Basin planning in Los Angeles and Ventura counties and the San Joaquin Valley.

Governor Ronald Reagan announced today that bills implementing his campaign reform proposals have been introduced in the legislature, including a Senate Constitutional Amendment (SCA 50) by Senator John Stull (Republican-Encinitas) that would make the office of Secretary of State nonpartisan.

Assemblyman Newton R. Russell (Republican-Tujunga) has introduced AB 4291 that would require the legislative counsel, in preparing an impartial analysis of a ballot measure, to confer with reading experts appointed by the state Superintendent of Public Instruction. A similar measure was introduced in the other house by Senator Stull (SB 2181).

A bill (SB 2415) by Senator Dennis E. Carpenter (Republican-Newport Beach) would:

--Repeal present provisions on the regulation of legislative representation before the state legislature and add comprehensive new provisions on the subject, define terms and declare legislative intent.

--Require registration with the Secretary of State by persons employed or retained as legislative advocates before doing anything to influence administrative or legislative action, respectively, within 30 days after the beginning of each regular session.

--Require publication by the Secretary of State each year of a directory of registered legislative advocates.

--Require filing of monthly statements by certain persons in reporting specified contribution and payment information.

--Require keeping of complete, detailed and accurate records for a four-year period by persons required to report.

--Authorize the Secretary of State to conduct audits and investigations and the Auditor General to make investigations and audits concerning materials required to be filed under this act.

--Provide misdemeanor and felony penalties for violations. Authorize the Attorney General or a district attorney to bring civil action to enforce compliance with the act.

--Provide that neither an appropriation is made nor an obligation created for reimbursement to any local agency for any costs incurred pursuant to the act.

Carpenter's bill also provides that it would become operative only in the event of voter passage of Senate Constitutional Amendment 50.

AB 3962, authored by Assemblyman Dixon Arnett (Republican-Redwood City), would change the date of the direct primary and Presidential primary elections in California from the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June to the first Tuesday in September.

Another provision of Assemblyman Arnett's bill makes various changes in the deadlines for duties to be performed by candidates, county clerks and the Secretary of State due to the changes in date of direct primary and Presidential primary elections.

Assemblyman Mike D. Antonovich (Republican-Glendale) has introduced AB 4258, which makes it a misdemeanor for any judge to make directly or indirectly, or arrange, a contribution for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of any candidate. Such prohibition also would apply to a judge's contribution to help qualify, pass or defeat any measure, unless used for the purposes of his own candidacy.

AB 4262, by Assemblyman Bob McLennan (Republican-Downey) would:

--Prohibit corporations, labor organizations, public employee organizations, associations, or committees established or maintained thereby, from directly or indirectly receiving or making any contribution or any expenditure for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence voter action for or against candidates or measures.

--Define the terms "labor organization" and "public employee organization" for the purposes of this act.

--Make a related change in the definition of "person" for the purposes of the Waxman-Dymally Campaign Disclosures Act.

--Exclude specified activities of corporations, labor organizations or public employee organizations from the prohibition.

Assemblyman McLennan's bill will be amended shortly to restrict to individuals the right to make campaign contributions.

Assemblyman Paul Priolo (Republican-Los Angeles) has introduced AB 4266 to establish an Advisory Commission on Fair Campaign Practices and provide for its duties and membership.

Assemblyman Robert E. Badham (Republican-Newport Beach) has introduced AB 4301, which would provide that non-elected officers and employees of the state, the legislature, local agencies and school districts will not participate in political activities of any kind during working hours. The bill also would prohibit public officers and employees from utilizing, or making available for others to use, in support of specified political activities any equipment, supplies or resources owned or maintained by any public agency.

Governor Ronald Reagan today appointed Richard Ray, a native of Sacramento, as chief deputy director of the Department of Consumer Affairs.

Ray, 45, succeeds Frank Reynolds of Sacramento in the $30,276 post. Since last July he has been the department's deputy director.

A veteran of 17 years in state government, Ray spent 16 years in the Department of Finance, rising to the position of principal program budget analyst.

He is a graduate of McClatchy High School and California State University at Sacramento, having earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the university in 1951.

Nationally recognized for his camellia-growing activities, Ray now has 250 of the plants at his Sacramento home. He has been on the Camellia Festival Board and is a past president of the Camellia Society.

A winter recreation enthusiast, Ray supports the U.S. Ski Association and the Olympic ski team.

A Republican, he is married, has three children and will serve at the pleasure of the department director, Patricia Gayman.

Miss Gayman has appointed Tim Comstock as the department's new deputy director, replacing Ray.

Governor Ronald Reagan today signed the following bill:

AB 475 - Brown Chapter 238 Disallows certain personal income tax or bank and corporation tax deductions to owners of substandard rental housing. The bill requires local regulatory agencies to notify the taxpayers, provide for appeal, and notify the Franchise Tax Board of the taxpayer's noncompliance. It is operative for income and taxable years 1975 through 1978. The bill also appropriates $53,200 for local mandated costs.

Governor Reagan also vetoed the following bill today:

AB 819 - Kapiloff Provides that cities and counties shall not require or request a safety employee to work overtime, other than emergency overtime, at a rate of pay less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ the normal pay scale or paid time off at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours for every hour of overtime unless there exists an overtime policy negotiated between and agreed upon by the local agency and the employees through their official employees' association.

REASON FOR VETO: "I am sponsoring SB 2133 by Senator Collier which will strengthen present local government employer-employee relations. It would be improper to statutorily impose additional employee benefits at this time. Employee organizations now have the opportunity to meet and confer with their public employers, and this process will be strengthened under the Collier bill.

"AB 819 would mandate a substantial additional financial burden on local government which they could not recover from the State because of the SB 90 disclaimer contained in the bill. As such, many local agencies would be required to seek higher local taxes or they would have to reduce the level of services which their safety employees now provide. Neither of these alternatives is in the taxpayers' best interests.

"Accordingly, I am returning this bill unsigned."

- AB 570 - Alatorre Prohibits a notary public from publicizing himself as a "notario publico" or any other term which might suggest to a person speaking a foreign language that the notary is an attorney.

REASON FOR VETO: "AB 570 is in direct conflict with AB 286, which is also before me. AB 286 requires that a notary public when advertising in Spanish that he is a notario publico post a notice in both English and Spanish that a notary public who is not an active member of the State Bar of California cannot give legal advice, and the fees set by statute which a notary may charge.

"I have no objections to AB 570. However, I believe that AB 286 may provide a more effective means of eliminating the deceptive and fraudulent practices of some notaries who serve the Spanish-speaking residents of this state.

"Accordingly, I am returning the bill unsigned."

Governor Ronald Reagan today announced that California has the potential to increase its hydroelectric energy output by nearly 30 percent within the next 15 years if prompt action is taken by private and public utilities and governmental agencies.

The governor cited an inventory of existing and potential water-driver power projects throughout the state which was released today by the California Department of Water Resources. (Report attached)

The report concludes that if potential projects identified are built, they could produce over nine billion kilowatthours of smog-free electricity. This would result in an annual equivalent saving of 15 million barrels of oil.

He emphasized the increase is possible without including any projects in areas where development is restricted by existing statutes providing protection to state and federal wild and scenic rivers and national parks.

The governor pointed out that any specific proposal for development would require further detailed study by the utilities or governmental agencies involved, including a full evaluation of environmental factors, cost, and financing.

"As part of the 30-point program outlined in my State-of-the-State Address last January, I discussed many ways to meet the energy problems facing us today, including hydroelectric power," the governor said.

"At that time, I indicated that the Department of Water Resources was exploring ways to expand this source of smog-free electricity. This report is a result of DWR's investigation. Water Resources Director John R. Teerink and his staff are to be congratulated for this fine effort.

"It represents a physical inventory of proposals for hydroelectric development which have been studied before, at varying levels of intensity, by federal, state or local government agencies, or by private and public utilities.

"While the projects identified are not proposals for immediate development, they do appear to have potential that warrants reevaluation because of the energy shortage.

"One of the chief values of this report is the potential for early benefits," the governor concluded.

Governor Reagan will visit a section of the coast near Newport Beach Monday, May 20, on behalf of the Committee for Proposition 1, the Recreational Lands Bond Act. The governor will arrive at the site at 9:30 a.m. The site is located on the coastal bluffs approximately one mile southeast of the intersection of Jamboree Road and Pacific Coast Highway. Section of the coast to be visited is included in the 1,600 acres that will be purchased by the state if Proposition 1 is approved by the voters at the June 4 primary election. Press coverage, of course, is invited.

Following his visit to the beach, the governor will tour the San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station from 11 a.m. to 12 noon. Newsmen wishing to accompany the governor on the tour of San Onofre must have security clearance under regulations of the Atomic Energy Commission. Security clearances can be obtained by calling Ron Ketchum (213-572-1984) or Stan Cann (213-572-2241) no later than Thursday, May 16. Ketchum and Cann are plant officials. Press coverage is invited, but security clearances are required before newsmen--or anyone else--may enter the plant.

Governor Ronald Reagan today sent the following message to President Nixon pertaining to federal legislation, HR 7824, authored by Rep. Albert Quie, R-Minn., the legal services corporation bill:

"Dear Mr. President:

"I know that you are pledged to veto any legal services bill that goes beyond the original house proposal. I strongly believe the bill now out of conference and about to be voted on should be vetoed. This bill would perpetuate and extend drastic changes in the manner by which legal services have traditionally been provided in this country, providing federal aid to selected special interest groups which favor such things as unrestricted abortion, forced busing and increased welfare demands.

"America is not well served by authorizing government-paid lawyers to insert themselves between parents and children, school administrators and students, and prison officials and inmates. Providing hard-earned and scarce tax dollars to lawyers so that, despite apparent safeguards, they can lobby the Congress and state legislatures basically without limitation and with the prestigious indicia of your formal approval is impossible to understand; that goes against all current attempts at political reform.

"Signing this bill will mean that states will be subject to virtually unlimited harassment by tax-subsidized groups allied with or controlled by groups such as the ACLU, the National Lawyers Guild and the National Welfare Rights Organization. This corporation, despite being subject to review of authorizations and appropriations, would nonetheless be established as a permanent object for subsidy by the American people, yet essentially unaccountable to them.

"I would hope that the house would refuse passage of HR 7824; if the bill gets to your desk, I would hope that you will veto it. I and many others are prepared to pledge our support for a realistic plan which has the necessary safeguards written into it. The current Legal Services Authority does not expire until June 30, 1975, which leaves plenty of time for the development of an acceptable alternative.

"Sincerely, Ronald Reagan, Governor of California."

Copies of the telegram were also sent to California's congressional delegation and a number of key congressmen.

Governor Ronald Reagan today issued the following statement in support of Proposition 1, the $250 million Parks and Recreation
Bond Issue, during an appearance in Orange County near Newport Beach.

The governor toured beach and coastal property that would be purchased by the state for park and recreational development if the June 4 ballot issue is approved by the voters:

"The quality of life in California is the envy of people the world over, and one of the prime reasons for this is the state's great system of parks and beaches.

"We are here today to lend our support to Proposition One, the $250 million Beaches and Parks bond issue to be decided by the voters June 4. The bond issue deserves the support of every Californian and some of the reasons are right here before us.

"Proposition One, if it is approved by the voters, will permit the State of California to acquire new park sites and beaches for the enjoyment of everyone. Two of the park sites and 3½ miles of the beautiful beaches that would be purchased are right here. They are Los Trancos and Moro Canyons and this magnificent beach.

"The two park sites are natural canyons containing a great variety of flora and fauna. They will be valuable additions to the state park system and will provide a wonderful playground for the people of California. Moro Canyon opens directly onto the beach which I think will become one of the state's prime swimming areas.

"The beach stretches from Corona del Mar to Laguna Beach, and includes 43 acres of sand and two acres of rock and tide pools.

"The canyons and beaches are part of the 10,000 acre undeveloped coastal zone owned by the Irvine Company here in Orange County. If Proposition One is approved, the state proposes to purchase the two park sites and the beach for one-half of the appraised value. At last appraisal, the cost to the state would be $7.6 million. That, my friends, would be a great bargain for the people of California now and for future generations to come.

"I urge all Californians to support Proposition One. The reasons are obvious."

Fifteen years ago he and Joseph Linesch and Arnold Dutton formed a landscape architectural firm, but he closed his office in 1967 to join the Disney staff and devote full time to landscape development of Walt Disney World in Florida. He served as a landscape consultant to the California Division of Highways and was on the board of governors of the State Arboretum in Los Angeles. Governor Ronald Reagan today announced he has accepted with regret the resignation of Herbert R. Temple, Jr., director of the state Office of Emergency Services, effective June 15.

"Herb is recognized as an aggressive and innovative leader in emergency preparedness not only in California, but throughout the nation," the governor said. "He has distinguished himself as a trend setter in his field and will be missed in California."

Holder of the rank of colonel in the California National Guard and commander of the 3rd Brigade, 40th Infantry Division, headquartered in San Jose, Temple is leaving state government to attend the U.S. Army War College at Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania. He was selected by the Secretary of the Army and the Chief of the National Guard Bureau for attendance at the prestigious institution.

He is on leave as vice president and part owner of the V.B. Morgan Trucking Company of Long Beach.

As director of OES, he has been responsible for emergency planning and coordination of state and federal resources to assist California during emergency and disaster situations.

A statewide, toll-free, around-the-clock telephone alert system has been placed in operation to speed notification of state agencies in event of oil spills, Governor Ronald Reagan announced today.

Using the toll-free number--(800) 852-7550--anyone observing an oil spill anywhere in California can notify the State Office of Emergency Services in Sacramento.

Announcement of the new emergency notification system was coupled with the governor's approval of a revised State Oil Spill Contingency Plan which assigns responsibilities and outlines measures state agencies will take to protect public health, wildlife and the environment in event of an oil spill.

The plan also dictates state response to environmental contamination from substances other than oil.

"The new telephone alert system will enable the state to respond promptly to oil spills, and spills of other hazardous materials," the governor said. "The contingency plan will coordinate the response of state agencies to ensure the most efficient use of their capabilities."

After receiving notice of a spill, the Office of Emergency Services will notify the Department of Fish and Game, which has the principal responsibility under the contingency plan for initial response and evaluation of oil spill situations.

Other state agencies on the state's Interagency Oil Spill Committee which will be notified include the Attorney General's Office, Division of Forestry, Highway Patrol, Department of Public Health, Department of Transportation, Department of Parks and Recreation, Department of Water Resources, Division of Oil and Gas, Regional Water Quality Control Boards and the State Lands Commission.

The toll-free oil spill notification number should not be used to report other kinds of emergencies. Other emergencies should be reported directly to appropriate state agencies or local authorities.

Governor Ronald Reagan today made the following statement at the signing of AB 1575:

"In signing the Warren-Alquist State Energy Conservation and Development Act we are accomplishing several objectives. We are finally providing the publicly and privately owned utilities the long needed certainty in planning, by assuring the availability of feasible and environmentally acceptable sites for power plants. At the same time, the immediate future of power plant siting is assured by the 'grandfathering' of those facilities for which planning has gone substantially forward.

"Additionally, the new organization will coordinate and encourage research and development in the energy field, so that new and more bountiful sources can be explored to benefit California. I expect this new endeavor will proceed under the watchful eye of both the legislative and executive branches of government.

"Many who have initiated some of the legislative activity in this area have felt a unique funding source was necessary and have provided one in the bill. I personally feel the price tag on this bill is too high. The utility surcharge is a tax increase pure and simple, and is not necessary for our primary objectives with the bill. However, others differ at this point, and we have reached a compromise on this and the other points of difference in the bill.

"All things considered, the legislature has finally provided the power plant siting mechanism I have sought for several years. The process on such major issues is not perfect, and we have in this bill a product of compromise which meets objectives of both the legislature and my own administration."

Governor Ronald Reagan today announced that he has signed the following bills:

- AB 892 - Seeley
Chapter 267 Generally requires recordation of discharge of mortgage by a mortgagee upon his execution of a certificate of discharge. The bill makes similar provision for recordation of full conveyance by a trustee with respect to deed of trust upon his execution of full reconveyance. The bill provides for a $300 penalty for the mortgagee's or trustee's failure to comply with such requirements. The changes made by the bill become effective on January 1, 1975.
- AB 900 - Duffy
Chapter 268 Authorizes the Department of Parks and Recreation to accept a gift of title to the Chinese Taoist Temple in Hanford, Kings County, for the state park system in the event such gift of title is offered to the department. The bill requires the department, before such title is offered and accepted, to enter into an agreement with either a local governmental entity or with a nonprofit organization for the operation of the temple. The agreement is to provide that all operating and maintenance costs associated with the temple shall be at no cost to the state. The bill also appropriates $75,000 from the Bagley Conservation Fund for the reconstruction of the Old Eagle Theater in Old Sacramento State Historic Park.
- AB 1575 - Warren
Chapter 276 Enacts the Warren-Alquist State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Act.
- AB 2038 - Knox
Chapter 261 Provides that any person who obliterates or alters any identification mark on any firearm is subject to imprisonment from one to five years. Current law makes it a crime for any person to alter identifying marks on pistols and revolvers, and makes such activity a misdemeanor.
- AB 2534 - Ralph
Chapter 270 Delineates circumstances in which a licensee authorized to sell beer to a retailer may accept return of the beer from the retailer. The changes made by the bill are effective on January 1, 1975.
- AB 2715 - MacGillivray
Chapter 271 Includes towing service operators in the Vehicle Code provisions relating to reports of stored vehicles. The bill requires a written record of every vehicle stored for more than 12 hours. It requires that such records be kept for one year from the commencement of storage. The changes made by the bill become effective on January 1, 1975.
- AB 2720 - Lancaster
Chapter 272 Revises the amount which school districts operating a joint powers regional occupational center or program must contribute per unit of average daily attendance. The changes made by the bill take effect immediately.
- AB 2909 - Z'berg
Chapter 273 Allows a court in its discretion to award attorneys fees to an attorney who interpleads in an action on his own behalf and performs his own legal services.
- AB 2943-MacGillivray
Chapter 274 Includes, as additional grounds for automatic cancellation of a vehicle dealer's license and special plates, his failure to maintain an adequate bond and the suspension or cancellation of his corporate charter. The changes made by the bill become effective on January 1, 1975.
- AB 2974 - Foran
Chapter 275 Permits a vehicle to be driven in a designated two-way left-turn lane when preparing for or making a U-turn when otherwise permitted by law. The changes made by the bill become effective on January 1, 1975.

SB 420 - Collier
Chapter 265

Authorizes the Department of Parks and Recreation to provide hostel facilities in state park system units, and to acquire lands for, develop, and maintain recreational trails to and between units. The bill requires the department to prepare and submit to the legislature not later than February 1, 1975, a preliminary plan for the development of hostel facilities and the establishment of recreational trails. The bill also appropriates $2,150,000 from the Abandoned Vehicle Trust Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation for such purposes. It requires that an amount equal to that expended for hostel facilities be repaid to the Abandoned Vehicle Trust Fund from hostel facilities use fees.

SB 1683 - Deukmejian
Chapter 266

Augments the Budget Act of 1973 by appropriating $4,884,507 for support of the Department of Corrections and $2,910,520 for support of the Department of Youth Authority.

Governor Reagan also vetoed the following bill:

AB 2558 - Bee

Permits school districts to set aside two days of the school year for parent-teacher conferences. These days are counted for purposes of average daily attendance if a student was in attendance on the day before and the day after his conference. The bill further requires school districts to schedule conferences on evenings or weekends for parents who cannot attend conferences during regular school hours. The act becomes inoperative after July 1, 1978.

REASON FOR VETO:

"I am vetoing this bill upon the recommendation of the Department of Education. While I agree that parent-teacher conferences are an important part of the educational process, I share the department's concern that the loss of up to two days from the school year authorized by this bill may not be in the best interest of the needs of the affected students. I do not believe that the school year should be reduced except for the most compelling reasons.

"The legislature should explore feasible alternatives to AB 2558 that would equitably serve the interests of both parents and students without reducing the school year.

"Accordingly, I am returning the bill unsigned."

Governor Ronald Reagan today issued the following statement in support of Proposition 1, the $250 million Beaches and Parks Bond issue on the June 4 ballot, during a visit to Angel Island in San Francisco Bay:

"California's great system of parks and beaches is one of the prime reasons people the world over envy the quality of life we can offer in this state.

"William Penn Mott, Bill Lane and I are here today to lend our support to Proposition One on the June 4 ballot, the $250 million Beaches and Parks bond issue to be decided by the voters. The bond issue deserves the support of every Californian and some of the reasons are right here before us.

"Proposition One will permit the state of California to acquire new park sites and beaches for the enjoyment of everyone.

Included would be funding for 37 major State Park System projects in nine Bay area counties. Acquisition of land by the state here on Angel Island began in the 1950s and has continued. In December of 1962 the entire island was turned over to the state for park purposes, except for a seven-acre Coast Guard Station on Point Blunt.

"The West Garrison we are going to visit today is an important part of this nation's military history. The West Garrison dates back to the Civil War and was the first area of this island developed for military purposes. Other military facilities were built around this island until the 1960s.

"More recreational development is needed on Angel Island. The area called Alcatraz Gardens is the site proposed for a picnic area. Included would be tables, utilities and possibly improving some of the trails. The local citizens group would work closely with the state in planning these facilities. There is $1 million of 1974 Park Bonds funds earmarked for Angel Island State Park improvements.

"I urge all Californians to support Proposition One on the June 4 ballot to preserve 1 percent of California's land for these important uses."

Governor Ronald Reagan today announced the appointments of John B. Weiss of Los Gatos and Harry K. Grafe of Sacramento to the State Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board.

The positions, requiring Senate confirmation, are effective July 1 and pay $31,128 annually.

Weiss, 53, has served on the board since December 1, 1967. His current term expires July 1. His appointment is to the unexpired term of Robert W. Sigg of Carmichael ending July 1, 1975. Sigg was appointed by Governor Reagan to the State Workmen's Compensation Appeals Board last March 18, but has yet to receive Senate confirmation.

Weiss was educated in his native Pennsylvania and received a bachelor's degree from New York University in 1943. He received a law degree from Santa Clara University in 1967. Before joining the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board he was labor relations manager of Lenkurt Electric Company in San Carlos.

Grafe, 46, has been assistant secretary for legal matters for the State Health and Welfare Agency since July 1, 1972. He has acted as liaison with the legal staffs of the various departments included in the agency and with the Attorney General. He was a field referee for the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board for two months prior to joining Health and Welfare and was for nearly three years legal advisor to the director of the then Department of Health Care Services.

Oroville-born, Grafe attended Yuba College and received his law degree from McGeorge School of Law, Sacramento. His appointment is for four years beginning July 1 and is for the slot now occupied by Weiss.

Both appointees are Republicans.

Governor Ronald Reagan today made the following statement in support of Proposition 1, the $250 million bond issue on the June 4, 1974 ballot, during a visit to the Stanford mansion in Sacramento:

"The approval of Proposition 1, the $250 million parks and recreation bond issue to be voted on next Tuesday, will make it possible for California to purchase this historical mansion -- the home of Governor Leland Stanford -- and open it to the public. This is just another reason why Proposition 1 deserves the support of all Californians.

"The mansion was built back in 1857. It is an excellent example of Victorian architecture and it served as the official governor's residence for both Leland Stanford and Governor Frederick Low. A lot of California history was made within these walls, in fact, right here in this room which was Governor Stanford's office.

"Last year the California legislature approved the purchase and restoration of the Stanford home and its grounds. The money would be provided by Proposition 1, and the site would become a state park open to the public. I am sure it will become a major attraction along with the magnificent old Capitol, Sutter's Fort, the State Indian Museum, Old Sacramento, and the Governor's Mansion at 16th and H Streets here in Sacramento.

"The voters can make this all possible by voting YES on Proposition 1."

Governor Ronald Reagan today commended the California Hospital Commission for reducing the special hospital assessment rate, which provides operating revenues for the commission.

Hospitals throughout the state will be assessed at a reduced rate to support activities of the commission for the 1974-75 fiscal year, Phyllis R. Smith, of Encino, commission chairman, has announced.

By law, the commission is funded by an assessment of not more than .02 of one percent of a hospital's gross operating cost for the previous fiscal year. The assessment rate is being reduced to .01 of one percent for the coming year because expenditure controls have resulted in a surplus in the commission's special fund.

"This is an outstanding example of how an agency of government can exist well within its means without becoming a burden on the taxpayers," the governor said. "The commission's ability to meet its obligations under the law and still reduce its special fund assessment rate is a worthy accomplishment and a true measure of responsible government. I congratulate members of the commission and its staff."

The commission is mandated by the Hospital Disclosure Act of 1971 to implement a uniform accounting and reporting system for more than 600 California hospitals -- (federal facilities are excepted). The approved system of accounting and data reporting to establish the basis for public disclosure by hospitals goes into effect on July 1.

Becomes effective on January 1, 1975.

Governor Reagan also vetoed the following bill::

AB 2645 - Gonzales Reclassifies Red Rock Canyon State Recreation Area as a state park with designated routes of travel.

REASON FOR VETO: "I seriously question the approach taken by this bill. The State Park and Recreation Commission is charged with the responsibility of classifying units of the State Park System into one of several categories. AB 2645 would place into law recommendations prepared by a nonstatutory advisory committee and thus unnecessarily supersede the authority placed in the State Park and Land Commission.

"The Commission, after an all day hearing last year, established Red Rock Canyon as a State Recreation Area and instructed the Department of Parks and Recreation to prepare a report recommending natural preserves for the purpose of protecting the ecological, geological, and scenic values contained in Red Rock Canyon.

"The natural preserve report will be presented to the Commission at its July meeting in Los Angeles. I am confident that the Commission will act promptly to insure that the natural beauty of Red Rock Canyon will be preserved for all time.

"Accordingly, I am returning the bill unsigned."

Governor Ronald Reagan today appointed Mrs. Ollie M. Marie-Victorie of San Francisco to the municipal court bench in the City and County of San Francisco.

She replaces Judge Claude Perasso, who was elevated to the superior court bench. Mrs. Marie-Victorie will be paid $34,605 annually.

A former research attorney for California Supreme Court Justice Marshall McComb for eight years, she entered into an association with other attorneys in 1963 and specialized in probate, domestic relations, criminal and personal injury trial work in addition to general business law.

Mrs. Marie-Victorie attended Loretto Heights College in Denver, was graduated from the University of Denver and obtained her law degree from Hastings College of Law in 1956. She is vice president of the Queen's Bench, an organization of women attorneys and is a member of the state and San Francisco bar associations, California Trial Lawyers, Criminal Trial Lawyers of San Francisco, St. Thomas More Society and the National Association of Women Lawyers. Her other involvements include being vice president of the National Organization for Women, legal branch, in San Francisco, and the Business and Professional Women.

Her husband owns an import firm. She is a Republican.
