SCHEDULE FOR GOVERNOR RONALD REAGAN

Thursday, February 6, 1969, San Diego

COMMISSION OF THE CALIFORNIA'S

- 5 PM Governor Reagan depart Sacramento for LA
- 6:30 Governor Reagan arrive San Diego Airport, met by limousine belonging to Mr. Victor Lundy (driver's name is "Doc") Zan Thompson will accompany.
- 6:45 Governor Reagan arrive at Norman C. Roberts residence, 530 Silver Gate, San Diego, California (Point Loma) (714/222-0571)
- Governor Reagan greeted informally by Mrs. Roberts (Governor's Co-Chairman San Diego)
- He will then meet members of the Commission of the California's informally.
- 7 PM Ignacio Lozano, Director of Commission of the California's will ask for attention of members and guests and present Governor Reagan who will present, in turn, Lt. Governor Ed Reinecke, as the new Chairman of the California Delegation, and as the new SECRETARY-GENERAL of the Commission (it is California's turn to succeed to the top job.) It would be superb if Governor Reagan would say something with the magnificent flavor of the remarks he made at the Fiesta at the Republican Governor's Conference.
- 7:07 Ignacio Lazano will present Ricardo Garcia Soto, present Secretary-General of the Commission who will offer the new Constitution to Governor Reagan and Governor Raul Sanchez Diaz. Ricardo Garcia Soto, will present Ignacio Garcia Batista who will offer a duplicate of the original pact of friendship between California and Baja California. The two Governors will sign the pact and be joined by Mr. Garcia Soto, standing in for Governor Hugo Cervantes del Rio, Governor of the territory (the territory was not an official entity of the Commission of the California's when the Commission was formed, it became such by Constitutional action in 1968)
- 7:20 Birthday Greetings
- 7:45 Governor Reagan departs in Lundy car for San Diego Airport.

Zan Thompson may be reached at Country Club Hotel, Tijuana (903/386-2301) after noon on Tuesday, February 4, 1969.
