Memorandum

: Governor Reagan

Date : May 20, 1971

Michael K. Deaver

From : Governor's Office

Subject: Meeting with Japanese
Correspondents - May 21

You will be meeting with the following correspondents representing the Japanese press prior to the Regents' Meeting in San Francisco on May 21.

Representing the NICHI BEI TIMES - Mr. Ike Zoe
Mr. Name Kaua
Mr. Abiko

Representing the HOKEE BEI MAINICHI - Mr. Konno

Representing the GIGI PRESS - Mr. Ohata

Your host will be Consul General Hara, whom you have met twice in your office. I have told Consul General Hara that you will not answer questions related to Japanese-American relations, but rather the questions should be limited to questions regarding your family and your role as Governor of California. I think you should be free to tell these correspondents that you will be representing the President of United States in an official capacity but you will have to reserve comment on international questions until briefing by the State Department.

Attached are some statistics regarding the Japanese-American population in California.
