Memorandum

TO : GOVERNOR

Date : July 10, 1974

Subject: Breakfast appearance
with "The Friday Group"
in Los Angeles,
August 2, 1974

From : Pat McKelvey PMK

We have firmed up with Dan Blackburn of CBS Radio a Friday, August 2, appearance for breakfast with "The Friday Group," which Blackburn describes as the West Coast counterpart to Godfrey Sperling's Washington breakfast club.

The group is made up of reporters from the New York Times, Los Angeles Times, Chicago Daily News, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, Christian Science Monitor, Time, Newsweek, Baltimore Sun, CBS, NBC, Metromedia and even Joe Scott of "The Political Animal." ABC is not included because they don't have a political reporter based in Los Angeles.

It is understood that this is a backgrounder session on a not-for-attribution basis. The group even gives the news magazines a break by embargoing any stories that result for Sunday A.M. release.

The time is 9 A.M. The place is the Viscount Room of the Sheraton-West Hotel, near MacArthur Park at 2961 Wilshire Boulevard.

You are scheduled to tape a 30-minute "News Conference" public affairs show at KNBC-TV in Burbank for airing the following evening. Interrogators will include political commentator Robert Abernethy, 5 p.m. anchor man Jess Marlow and another KNBC reporter.

This is a show you have done several times and it follows the same general format as KNXT's "Newsmaker," which you did in June. However, KNBC seeks a more timely approach than KNXT, airing its show the following evening at 6:30.

Helen Johnson is the producer.

Subject: "Sam Yorty Show"
in-studio guest
appearance 8-5-74
9 to 10 a.m.

From : Pat McKelvey PKM

You will be making your second appearance in recent months on the Sam Yorty Show, this time as his in-studio guest. The KGBS morning talk show is broadcast from the Universal City Tour Center.

July 15 to August 15 is a "rating period" for Los Angeles radio, so you will be giving the show a real shot in the arm. They will be promoting your appearance steadily right up to that moment.

Sam will chat with you for a few moments, while the calls from listeners build up and are screened to filter out the screwballs. Then he'll turn you over to the whims of the callers.

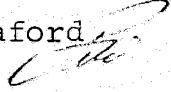

It is the last hour of the show, which runs from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Memorandum

On Monday, August 5, you will be visiting the Bureau's testing lab on the way in from SEX to the office. This will be a brief tour (about 15 minutes) of the facilities where mattresses, pillows, waterbeds and other home furnishings articles are tested against established safety and quality standards. The press corps is being invited (it is essentially a camera event). Howard Winslow, Chief of the Bureau, will be your escort on the tour. Pat Gayman will also attend.

For your information, the new president of the Home Furnishings Advisory Board is Irene Hannaford (my wife), the first woman to serve in that capacity. She is a second-term appointee of yours.

Memorandum

To : Governor Reagan

Date : August 21, 1974

Subject: Round Valley visit

From : Pete Hannaford

It has been a little more than five years since you called for alternatives to the Dos Rios Dam which would have flooded Round Valley, dislocating ranchers and Indians in that area.

As you approach the Valley, the airplane will circle the area which would have become the lake impounded by the dam.

On the bus tour of the Valley, you will see an experimental organic farm, the Indian farmlands and an Indian clinic, converted from a former school with funds from an HEW grant. Recently, vandals destroyed the clinic by fire. You may wish to consider telling the Indians when you meet them that you will discuss with Cap Weinberger possible ways and means to find replacement funds to rebuild the clinic.

Among those attending the Indian Tribal Council meeting will be Norman Whipple and Mrs. Ida Soares, who were leaders of the group at the time of the dam controversy.
