File No.:

From : MILITARY DEPARTMENT

Subject: Appointment Time for Governor to Present California Medallions, 3:00 p.m.
2 January 1974

To confirm our conversation, the process for selection for the Governor's nominees for the 1973 Young American Medal for Bravery and Service has been completed. A letter from the Governor was sent to the Attorney General in Washington nominating five outstanding young Californians for the coveted awards.

As in the past, a Young Californians Medallion for Bravery and Service will be presented to the same five to insure that they receive recognition for their outstanding acts. Enclosed is a description of their accomplishments and of the Young American Bravery and Service Award program.

For your approval a sequence of events for the ceremony is also enclosed.
