Dear Sir;

I have just been told that an attempt is being made to have you disapprove the budget for the CRLA.

I wish to add my voice to this effort, and urge you to do all you can to bring this organization to face the reality that they are being supported with money taken from not only the rich and big corporations as they would have us believe, but from the working man who is penalized for his attempt to be self supporting.

The purpose of the organization was to have been to provide legal services to those too poor to pay for them, but I ask who are the poor? Is it the man who works with his hands in all kinds of weather and conditions to pay state and federal income tax as well as local property tax on property that he paid for inch by inch from his earnings? Who pays his own health insurance as well as dental and optometric expenses and doctor visits, who pays for all types of insurance to help in case he is so unfortunate as to have some kind of actionable casualty as well as his lawyers fees for items not covered? and then buys all his food and other needs as far as he is able with what he has left?

Or is it as many would have us believe the person on welfare and various other forms of public aid with free medical care of all kinds, legal aid, and food stamps to add the frills to his diet while he stays in bed on cold wet days, or in a bar or some other form of recreation that the worker has neither time nor finances for.

The CRLA uses the taxpayer financed courts to sue the taxpayer for various reasons using money provided from taxes paid by the same taxpayer. A new look at this program is certainly indicated. I support any means you can use to help correct the condition.

Dear Gov. Reagan:

Thank you for your courage in vetoing the Federal funds of OEO. We have friends in the Compton area where the need for these funds was great, but instead of the money going to responsible people who had been struggling with their problems, it was given to some of the less responsible people in the community where it was used politically instead of being used as it was intended for those funds to be used. The responsible Negro people who have been involved in community affairs, are blaming Pres. Nixon for this dilemma. We feel that the blame should be placed directly at the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Most sincerely,

Mrs. Crawford.

Re: California Rural Legal Assistance

Dear Mr. Trigger:

When I met with you recently here in Santa Rosa, I advised you that I was planning to send a letter to the Governor's office with a few comments about C.R.L.A. At your suggestion, I am writing to you instead and sending a copy of this letter to the Governor.

I am firmly opposed to organizations such as C.R.L.A., both in principle and practice. I am opposed to the concept of such a large organization operating ten or twelve different offices in widely separated communities, with all branches and their policies subject to a centralized control. I feel that an organization operated and controlled locally can do a much better job serving the needs of the disadvantaged, and can do it at a much reduced cost.

I strenuously object to C.R.L.A.'s policy of emphasis on class actions and "target" cases. I happen to be one of the members of the local Bar Association who were appointed to survey C.R.L.A. when it first opened an office in our community. We were repeatedly assured that C.R.L.A. would conduct its operations like any other law office with due regard for the economic factors which impose such a salutary restraint upon litigation. Recent experience of our office in two unlawful detainer matters (copies of pleading from these have been furnished to you) indicate that, in at least some cases, C.R.L.A. is not conducting its practice with due regard to those assurances.

C.R.L.A. early adopted a policy of handling no domestic litigation. It is my impression that, since the advent of the new Family Law Act, they have gone 180° on that policy. I view this with some alarm.

I hope these comments are of some help to you.

Very truly yours,

ear Governor Reagan:

Tis the season when people are supposed to feel particular farmth toward their fellow men, but I, like many of my ountrymen, am beginning to be more Scrooge like as I hote with anger the proliferation of more and more programs for the poor which seem geared to promoting discord and revolution against the "establishment."

I am aware that you share my disenchantment with the CRLA and have tried to disrupt their functioning because you have seen their prime purpose is not to provide legal aid to the poor but to over turn State statutes and disrupt traditional procedures. I also note that the Federal office of the OEO has increased their budget here in California.

The prime reason for my letter is an article appearing in our local paper, The Press Democrat, which discloses that the local CRLA is now opening an office in Healdsburg which is to be in addition to their office in Santa Rosa, and it further states that their prime function will be to secure housing for the poor. Their move to Healdsburg is because ninety-five percent of their business is in that area, they state, so, why, I say, keep an office in Santa Rosa. I believe their move to this area is because there is a large Spanish-American or Mexican-American population and they can foment a little more disruption up there. Further, I cannot understand why or how it is they can become involved in the housing situation when we are being overwhelmed with any sorts of subsidized programs for housing. Our Supervisors, in fact, have just taken steps to initiate a Housing Authority, after the CRLA initiated a suit to prevent the citizens from having their votes counted on that subject.

Is there anything at all that can be done regarding the CRLA or is it just one more area where the citizen who is self-supporting and believes that other's rights to his earnings should be extremely limited, has to suffer in silence?

Sincerely,

Mrs. Charles T. Marshall

Dear Governor -

I'd like to add my voice to the other farmers urging you to oppose the budget for CRLA for the coming year. I suppose the CRLA does some good for the needy but I'm sure it benefits the lawyers most, and it certainly has contributed to the farmers problems.

I don't mind helping my fellow man to the necessities of life but surely a free lawyer shouldn't be a necessity. This CRLA is certainly one of the most abused of our welfare leagues.
