On May 17, 1972, the Adult Authority advised me of applicant's involvement in prison training programs; that he has satisfactorily progressed financially, and has maintained an excellent family relationship. JIMMIE WENDLE THEUS, Prison No. A-93228, was convicted of the crimes of kidnapping, rape with force, sex perversion and robbery in the second degree in the County of Los Angeles, on or about September 28, 1965. He was sentenced to state prison to serve life without possibility of parole for kidnapping, and to 3 years to life for the crime of rape with force, and to 3 years to life for the crime of sex perversion, such terms to run concurrently. Sentence was withheld as to the count of robbery. On appeal, the District Court of Appeal for the Second Appellate District, held that the kidnapping, rape, sex perversion and robbery were all part of a single continuous act of criminal conduct, and, therefore, the judgment was reversed insofar as imposition of sentence on the rape and sex perversion counts. In all other respects the court affirmed the judgment. He has served 6 years, 6 months, 18 days in prison. On May 11, 1972, the Adult Authority recommended that applicant be granted a Commutation of Sentence from life imprisonment without possibility of parole to life imprisonment with possibility of parole, basing its recommendation on the belief it would facilitate further treatment and rehabilitation of the applicant. Commutation granted June 1, 1972.
