Dear Bito:

Thank you for your recent letter. I, too, enjoyed our visit at the club.

I appreciate your sending me the two booklets of Fred Fox's sermons. I will look forward to reading this as soon as my schedule settles down a bit.

It was good to hear from you. Hurriedly, but with best wishes from Susan and the family.

Sincerely,

James A. Baker, III
Chief of Staff and
Assistant to the President

Dear William:

Thank you for your recent letter.

I appreciate your taking the time to send me that article from the Milwaukee Journal. I have added your clipping to my scrapbook.

Thank you once again for taking the time to write. It was good to hear from you and I send every best wish for a happy and a prosperous new year.

Sincerely,

James A. Baker, III
Chief of Staff and
Assistant to the President

Dear Mr. Nojay:

Thank you for your recent letter which Richard Darman has forwarded to our office for response.

Mr. Baker appreciates your interest in working at the White House. Unfortunately, there are no positions available on either his or Mr. Darman's staff at this time. Please be assured that your resume will be kept on file and that you will be notified should an appropriate position open.

If you are interested in working in a department or an agency, you might contact John Herrington, Assistant to the President for Presidential Personnel, directly.

Thank you once again for your interest in assisting the Reagan Administration.

Sincerely,

Katherine Camalier
Staff Assistant to
James A. Baker, III

Dear Mr. Minister:

Thank you for the three books and the bottle of whisky that you gave me on my recent trip to the Republic of Korea with President Reagan. I was pleased to have an opportunity to read about your country.

With best wishes for a happy new year,

Sincerely,

James A. Baker, III
Chief of Staff and
Assistant to the President

His Excellency
Won-Kyung Lee
Minister of Foreign Affairs

Dear Ms. Temple and the White House Florists:

Thank you for your assistance in providing the brass bowls for my staff to use on Friday, January 20. Our afternoon with the students from Congress Heights Elementary School was a great success. We owe our thanks and appreciation to the cooperation and kindness of staffs such as yours.

Thank you once again for your support.

Sincerely,

James A. Baker, III

Dear Mr. Colosimo:

Thank you for your recent letter.

Mr. Baker appreciates your interest in working on the 1984 campaign, should the President decide to seek reelection. He has asked me to forward your correspondence to Edward Rollins who would be involved in any possible reelection effort. Until an official announcement is made, there are no plans to hire staff for a national reelection campaign. I can assure you that Mr. Rollins' office will send you a follow-up response should it be appropriate at a later date.

Mr. Baker thanks you once again for your interest and your support.

Sincerely,

Katherine Camalier
