Potential Testimony Subject Areas

Major General John K. Singlaub is expected to follow Adolfo Calero as the next witness at the Iran/Contra hearings. Calero's testimony begins today.

Attached is a classified memorandum prepared under Bill Lytton's direction which summarizes the anticipated lines of inquiry which may be explored during General Singlaub's testimony at the Iran/Contra hearings. This analysis is based upon the documents available to The White House, prior testimony and publicly available information. We expect that there are additional relevant documents (from other agencies and/or from private individuals) and other relevant information which are unavailable to us.

Note that the "Diary" referred to in the attached summary is the official record of the President's schedule and is not the President's personal diary. Bill Lytton and I are the only White House representatives with access to the relevant typed diary excerpts.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: ARTHUR B. CULVAHOUSE, JR.
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Summary of Iran/Contra Hearings
for May 20, 1987

Counsel's office has prepared the attached summary of the testimony by Adolfo Calero and Major General John Singlaub during yesterday's hearings. Three contributors to the Carl "Spitz" Channel organization, Joseph Coors, Ellen Garwood and William O'Boyle, are expected to testify when the hearings resume this morning. General Singlaub is scheduled to continue his testimony this afternoon.

White House records reflect that Mrs. Garwood met with you on January 30, 1986 for a photo-opportunity arranged by David Fischer. This meeting was in connection with a White House briefing of several contributors to Channel's group for the purpose of purchasing TV advertisements supporting the Contras. Five months prior to your meeting with her, it was publicly reported that Mrs. Garwood had purchased a helicopter for the Contras for medical evacuation purposes at General Singlaub's request.
