Dear Jim:

By the time you receive this letter the decision on the Supreme Court may have already been made. I would like to add my very strong and enthusiastic support for the consideration of Otto Skopil, Circuit Court Judge for the 9th Circuit (West Coast).

Otto Skopil has a long and distinguished career in the law practice in Oregon, served with great distinction in Oregon as a Federal District Court Judge, and more recently on the United States Court of Appeals. He is 62 years of age.

Judge Skopil has gone through the senate confirmation proceedings (democrat controlled) twice in recent years and he personally has proved to be squeaky clean. He would have the unanimous support of lawyers in the Northwest and everywhere of those who have had contact with him.

He not only is exceptionally able but he is a judge in the true sense of the word. He is not a judicial activist and fills the bill precisely according to the President's description.

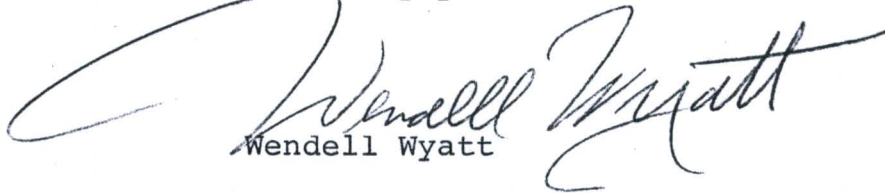

I am certain that our two senators are offering very strong support for Judge Skopil. In the event the President feels committed to the appointment of a woman or if he should make another choice, I would urge that Judge Skopil be placed very high on the list of potentials since he could be confirmed quickly and without controversy.

The Hon. James Baker
June 19, 1981

I am confident my judgment of Judge Skopil would be viewed in years to come historically as one of the President's great appointments.

My best regards to you, Jim.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Judge Solito:

Thank you for your letter of June 23, 1981 to the President recommending the Honorable Ruby Kless Sondock to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court of the United States created by the announcement of the retirement of Associate Justice Potter Stewart.

As you are probably aware, the President has announced his intention to nominate the Honorable Sandra D. O'Connor for the position. The President was presented with a most difficult decision, as there were many extremely well qualified individuals to consider.

We very much appreciate your time and concern in writing to the President regarding this important appointment and bringing the outstanding attributes of Ruby Sondock to his attention.

Honorable Sir:

I gathered from your campaign speeches that you intended to consider a female for a position on the Supreme Court.

I recommend to you one of my colleagues, Honorable Ruby Kless Sondock, now Judge of the 234th District Court of Harris County, Texas. I recommend Judge Sondock to you, not because she is a female, but because I feel she is highly qualified for the position. When the Governor of our State nominated her, he stated that her nomination was because of her outstanding qualifications and not because she is a female.

Judge Sondock has the respect of her colleagues, the Bar and the citizens of our County. I urge you to consider Judge Sondock for nomination as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Very truly yours,

Dear President Reagan:

The afternoon editions of the Oklahoma newspapers carried the news of Justice Potter Stewart's announced intention of stepping down as a member of the Supreme Court of the United States. These same stories recalled that you had said you would appoint the best qualified woman in the country to such an opening should one occur.

In the change-over interim when you were first taking office, I wrote to the office of those who were looking for superior people and suggested that by all means your administration should examine the from birth almost to the present of native Oklahoman Judge Juanita Kidd Stout who is now serving in her third 10-year term as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Juanita Kidd grew up in Wewoka, Oklahoma, daughter of a father seeking adventure from Missouri, and of a mother fleeing oppression in Mississippi. They met in what was then Indian Territory of Oklahoma. Juanita was an only child. Her parents were country school teachers. You have only to meet her to see that something wonderful came from their kind but stern upbringing.

She has earned degrees from the University of Iowa and Indiana University. From the first she learned music so she could teach it in high school. From the second she earned the doctor of jurisprudence and master of laws. Many other institutions have since granted her honorary doctorates. Also, Iowa University honored her with its Distinguished Service Award and Oklahoma State University with its Henry G. Bennett Distinguished Service Award.

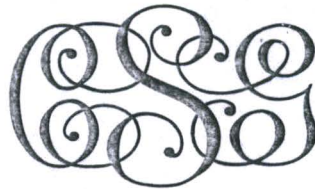

These are but the tip of the iceberg in her achievements and honors and special citations. They are due to her special talents and hard work and brilliant legal mind. She is honest, sincere, just, merciful, firm and courageous. She is an excellent public speaker and is at home anywhere in this country or abroad.

It would take at least six pages to tell about her adequately. I beg of you that you have someone who is honest and unbiased look into her complete background, interview her, ask to read some of her speeches, and do the whole bit to see if she isn't in fact the person you are looking for to fill the Supreme Court slot.

Sincerely yours,

John W. Hamilton

Dear President Reagan:

From reading the newspapers, it would appear that a search is being undertaken to find a suitable person to fill the vacancy which will be created by Justice Stewart's retirement from the United States Supreme Court.

I wish to recommend the name of Howard Swafford of South Pittsburg/Jasper, Tennessee. He is a person with adequate legal knowledge, good moral sense and uprightness of character.

It is good to know that you have recovered from your recent illness. A grateful nation is thankful that you have been spared and wish you well as you continue to provide courageous leadership.

Dear Mr. President,

With the retirement of Justice Stewart, you have the unique opportunity of placing a woman on the Supreme Court.

Mrs. Gloria Toot is a Black person who worked extremely hard for your candidacy and election last Fall. More importantly, I am convinced that she is capable and dedicated, and would serve our nation well as its first female Justice of the Supreme Court. Last year, Mrs. Toot was interviewed, and fielded questions from his radio audience, on The Larry King Show in Washington. Her knowledge, honesty, and loyalty were very impressive. There is no doubt that she was a definite asset to your election.

Mr. President, I respectfully urge you to seriously consider naming Mrs. Toot (whose name I may be mis-spelling) to the Supreme Court.

Dear Ed,

This is a follow-up to my letter in January enclosing a copy of Bill Rood's new book Kingdoms of the Blind. I noticed recently that you were in our fair city for a speech to a law enforcement group. Bill spends all of the summer and three days a week in the fall in Menlo Park doing research for articles that he is writing on foreign policy and defense matters. If you happen to be out on the West Coast again in the near future, and would like to see Bill, I would be glad to arrange for a luncheon, etc., or you can call Bill yourself at (415) 325-2532.

I am also writing you on behalf of Cliff Wallace whom I understand was under serious consideration for the Supreme Court vacancy now being filled by Justice O'Connor. Our family has known Cliff for the past 20 years, predating his service on the Ninth Circuit, when he was active in Republican politics. With the expectation that there will be other vacancies on the Supreme Court in the years ahead, we wanted to convey our strong belief in his qualifications.

Best regards,

JAMES A. ROBERTS

Dear Mr. Weston:

Thank you for your letter of July 6, 1981 to the President recommending the Honorable Cliff Wallace to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court of the United States created by the announcement of the retirement of Associate Justice Potter Stewart.

As you are probably aware, the President has announced his intention to nominate the Honorable Sandra D. O'Connor for the position. The President was presented with a most difficult decision, as there were many extremely well qualified individuals to consider.

We very much appreciate your time and concern in writing to the President regarding this important appointment and bringing the outstanding attributes of Cliff Wallace to his attention.

Sincerely,

Fred F. Fielding

Dear Mr. President:

I was a member of J. Clifford Wallace's law school class at the University of California School of Law (Boalt Hall), have been actively practicing law in the State of California since 1955, have the highest rating in Martindale-Hubbell, consider myself a good judge of good judges, feel that I got to know J. Clifford Wallace well in law school, and, based upon the foregoing, among other criteria, I strongly urge the selection of Judge Wallace for the United States Supreme Court.

Very truly yours,

Herbert P. Moore, Jr.

Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you for your letter of recommendation and endorsement.

I have forwarded your message to the appropriate director in the Reagan Administration. Please be assured that your comments will be given every consideration and will be further noted in our personnel files.

I sincerely appreciate your interest in bringing to our attention qualified men and women such as Mr. William Webster.

Sincerely,

Mr. James A. Baker, III
Chief of Staff

Dear Mr. Baker:

I, of course, have never met you, but I do know that you are the Chief of Staff for Mr. Reagan's administration and as an attorney of thirty years practice in state and federal courts, I know the importance of the nominee to fill the vacancy of Judge Stewart.

I am just a practicing lawyer in Missouri and have absolutely no political impact anywhere other than the fact that I am a member of the Bonhomme Township Republican Club and have always been a supporter of President Reagan and always will be.

I do wish that you would consider Mr. William Webster, who, as you know, now is the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and who, at one time, was the U. S. Attorney in St. Louis; he was a United States Circuit Judge here and he sat as a judge on the Eighth District of the United States Court of Appeals before his appointment as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

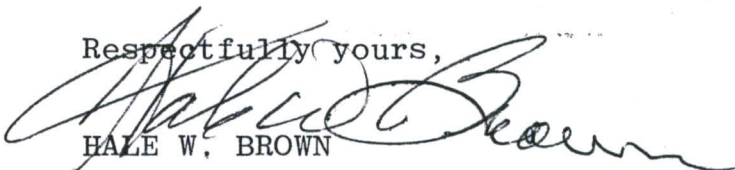

I have known Judge Webster since we were in law school and it goes without saying that a man is not without honor except in his own home town. I am afraid that Judge Webster is an exception to this old statement for this man is one of the most respected men to ever come from St. Louis.

There is no doubt in my mind that he ideally fits the position which I believe President Reagan has mind and by position I mean that Judge Webster is a life long Republican; he is strong on law enforcement, as you know, but he has always been considerate of the individual rights and I believe he is ideally suited to sit on the Supreme Court of the United States of America, which in my opinion is second in importance only to the presidency itself.

I know that President Reagan would like to appoint a woman to the Supreme Court, but I also know that the best qualified person is going to get appointed because that is just the way he does things and I cannot believe that there is a more qualified person in the United States to be placed on the Supreme Court than Judge William Webster and the only problem we would have then would be in finding someone who could replace him as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I would appreciate anything that you can do and that you give this man consideration when nominations are made to the Judiciary Committee.

Respectfully yours,

HALE W. BROWN

Dear Attorney General Smith:

It was with great interest that I read of the resignation of Justice Potter Stewart from the United States Supreme Court. According to news media accounts, President Reagan has asked that you lead the search for a successor.

I am sure that you are being inundated with names for that appointment, but I would be derelict in my duties as a citizen if I did not proffer the name of the attorney whom I believe would be not only the ideal choice, but the most qualified.

Brooke Wunnicke has been in the active practice of law for nearly thirty-six years. Aside from significant collegiate honors from Stanford University, she graduated Order of the Coif from the University of Colorado School of Law when that award was given to only the top one percent law graduates, and at a time when Harvard and Yale law schools did not provide enrollment opportunities for women. Subsequent to graduation she was in the private practice of law in Cheyenne, Wyoming for nearly thirty years prior to moving to Denver, Colorado.

In both Colorado and Wyoming, Brooke Wunnicke is highly revered by the legal communities. Her chances for appellate judgeship in Colorado -- for which she applied and was indeed recommended to the Governor for appointment under our state's 'Missouri Plan' -- were restricted by her political affiliation and conservative philosophies.

Brooke Wunnicke is a Republican and a supporter of President Reagan. She has never been active politically, however, for the sole reason that the practice of law has been both her vocation and avocation. There has never been a stauncher, more articulate representative for strict constitutional constructionism.

In 1973, the Denver District Attorney's office changed hands to a Democrat. Upon taking office, it was the District Attorney's intent to assemble the best legal staff in the state. Seeking advice from all quarters of the legal community as to who would be the best appellate advocate, he selected Brooke Wunnicke and suggested that she acquire a leave of absence from the firm where she was of counsel. She remains Chief Appellate Deputy in that office and is, in effect, the cornerstone of its efficiency. She is an adjunct professor at the University of Denver School of Law where she teaches Constitutional Law. She is an active member of both the Colorado and Denver Bar Associations as well as the American Bar Association.

Although I have barely touched upon this attorney's eminent qualifications, I hope that I have aroused your interest sufficiently to inquire further. A copy of her resume is attached for your convenience.

The law is and always will be Mrs. Wunnicke's life. If there is to be a judicial appointment of historical and legal significance, it is Brooke Wunnicke.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathryn Meyer
