Dianna,

Our legal people have sent you the 278 and a copy of the SFRC forms on Gerald P. Carmen. You normally do not get a copy of the Political Contribution form which goes to the Senate when nominated. This one is out of the norm and I thought you should take a look at it.

GSA chief denies alleged lunch ploy

By Gene Goltz
WASHINGTON TIMES STAFF

General Services Administrator Gerald Carmen denied yesterday that he had instructed one of his top aides to take a GSA whistleblower, Bert Berube, out to lunch on May 19, 1983, and not to bring him back for three hours.

The aide testified to the contrary last week.

Mr. Berube, who was fired by Mr. Carmen at the end of last year, claims the aide was instructed to take him to lunch for the purpose of getting him drunk. The scheme, according to Mr. Berube, was that he would either come back to a scheduled news conference and be discredited, or that he would be unprepared for the news conference.

The purpose of the news conference apparently was for Mr. Carmen to assure the public that GSA was doing the best it could on maintenance of federal buildings, and that Mr. Berube's report — which had been leaked to the press a few days earlier and which stated that because of budget cuts and lack of trained personnel hundreds of federal buildings were badly in need of repair — was an exaggeration.

Mr. Carmen, who was on the witness stand all day yesterday at a hearing of the Merit Systems Protection Board, said he had never instructed his aide, Steven Hammer, to take Mr. Berube to lunch.

Mr. Hammer testified last week that he had been directed by Mr. Carmen to take Mr. Berube to lunch and not to return for three hours.

Mr. Carmen says Mr. Berube's lawyer, Jerry Shaw, tried to blackmail him by proposing to Mr. Carmen that if Mr. Berube were restored to his former position as head of GSA's National Capital Region, Mr. Berube would not continue to say publicly that federal buildings were in a state of perennial disrepair.

Mr. Berube and Mr. Shaw deny the accusation of blackmail.
