MEMORANDUM FOR RICHARD A. HAUSER

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Arthur Green vs. Joseph Green and Mary Stein

Arthur Green is a disappointed litigant in a New Jersey probate proceeding. In an effort to redress his grievances, he has filed a pro se petition for certiorari with the U.S. Supreme Court (No. 82-2000), claiming violations of due process and equal protection. Green has also written Mr. Fielding and the President, providing them with a copy of his petition. In his letter to the President, Green notes that he recognizes the separation of powers and only enclosed the petition for the President's information.

We obviously cannot comment on Green's frivolous petition, which is pending before the Court. I do not think we should respond to Green at all. Like the case of Jarndyce v. Jarndyce described in Charles Dickens' Bleak House, probate disputes begin with a death but have a way of never dying themselves, and it would be unfortunate for the White House to become involved in this one.

June 15, 1983

Fred F. Fielding, Esq.
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Fielding:

I am submitting the enclosed letter and its enclosure to the President through your good offices. The matter is transmitted strictly for the President's information since the brief has been filed within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Due Process of Law and Equal Protection under the Law are concepts of our society which are not normally exclusive. These concepts are also not exclusive of all the declarations on Human Rights of the individual which our Presidents have expounded since the end of World War II.

Several of our Presidents have placed their signature on numerous treaties, compacts, covenants, agreements and conventions at international conclaves, which have underlined the inherent dignity of human rights and fundamental freedoms of the individual.

We need not look exclusively to other participating nations to such agreements, nations which may be accused of gross violations. From time to time we have to be introspective to recognize violations of human rights of our own citizens where such recognition may be required.

As pro se defendant within the courts of the State of New Jersey, in a civil case, I have been denied my human rights by flagrant violations by the courts which my Petition demonstrates. I pray that the Supreme Court of the United States will grant my Petition with an issuance of an Order of Remand which I respectfully requested so that these denials may be rectified.

Respectfully,

Arthur Green

June 15, 1983

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

The enclosed copy is a Petition I filed with the Supreme Court of the United States.

It represents a case which experienced extraordinary denials of Due Process of Law to me during the course of the proceedings in the State of New Jersey.

During appellate process of this case I have represented myself as pro se and the denials of Equality under the Law and New Jersey Rules of Court are not only manifest of violations of the several guarantees under the State and Federal Constitutions and Federal Statutes but are equally repugnant to provisions which declare the Human Rights of the individual by the numerous international covenants and agreements to which our Country has adhered.

Rule 52 of the Supreme Court of the United States declares that all process of the High Court shall be in the name of the President of the United States.

Mr. President, it is for this reason that I am sending you copy of my Petition for Writ of Certiorari in which I have respectfully requested of the High Court that an Order of Remand to the appropriate court below issue, so that all these abuses of my human rights may be rectified.

I fully understand the separation and independence of powers of the Executive and Judicial Branches in our democratic society. I submit copy of my Petition solely for your information since my case can be representative of what a pro se can be subjected by the various court levels of our States in infringement of Human Rights guarantees promulgated by our Presidents in open declaration, by pronouncements and by treaties which have become the Law of the Land.

Respectfully submitted,

Arthur Green

MEMORANDUM FOR RICHARD A. HAUSER

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JSR
SUBJECT: Contract for Travel Services

Kathleen E. Martin, President of Executive Travel Advisors, has written Mr. Fielding to complain that her company was not awarded the GSA contract to supply travel services to U.S. Government Agencies in the San Francisco area. Mrs. Martin apparently thinks she is entitled to the contract because hers is a small, woman-owned business. She also suggests that the contract be divided so that more than one company could benefit.

I have prepared a reply advising Mrs. Martin that the White House does not become involved in particular government procurement matters.

Thank you for your letter of June 10 to Fred Fielding. In that letter you objected to the award by the General Services Administration of a travel services contract to a company other than your own. You also suggested that the contract be divided so that more than one company might benefit.

As a general matter, the White House adheres to a policy of not becoming involved in or commenting upon particular procurement matters. The policy preserves the independence and integrity of the procurement process, administered by GSA. I trust you will appreciate the need for us to adhere to this policy.

Dear Mr Fielding:

Our company, Executive Travel Advisors, was one of the finalists for GSA proposal No. YTEV-YTE-031-N-2-2-83 to supply travel services for United States Government agencies located in the San Francisco Bay Area.

As a minority owned small business we were informed that we were in an excellent position to be awarded the contract as it was intended that a small business would be favored for this type contract.

Instead this contract was awarded to the Cardillo Travel Service. Cardillo is, to the best of my knowledge, the ONLY solely retail oriented travel service to be listed on the American Stock exchange.

If this is the Reagan Administration's idea of helping small business and/or American women business owners, then, perhaps some education in identifying small business criteria would be in order. This is not my idea of assistance.

I wonder that the contract cannot be divided so that more than one company could benefit from the contract.

Very truly,

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR
SUBJECT: Ward L. Quaal Request for Meeting with the President

Ward L. Quaal, apparently a personal friend of Mr. Deaver's, met with the President on March 16 but, as he advised Deaver in a letter two months later, did not have an opportunity to discuss with the President the importance of the study of American history. Quaal had hoped to brief the President on a twelve-part television series on American history developed by Walter Schwimmer. Quaal asks to bring Schwimmer in for a meeting with the President to discuss the project.

The series seems to be simply a commercial television production, and accordingly the President should not become involved in it. The President could of course meet with Schwimmer and Quaal to hear about their project, but frankly I see little reason for such a meeting. The only reason would be for Schwimmer and Quaal to obtain a Presidential endorsement which would be inappropriate.

Our response to Deaver concerning this matter does not exhibit the promptness for which our office is justly renown because the item as it arrived from Deaver's office was attached to other incoming material and, like the sister city of Machu Picchu, has only recently been unearthed.

What happens to the other one?

SUBJECT: Letter to Mike Deaver Regarding Meeting With the President and Walter Schwimmer to Discuss a Series on History of the United States

Your office has asked for our views on the request from Ward L. Quaal for a meeting with the President. The purpose of the meeting would be for Mr. Quaal and Walter Schwimmer to discuss with the President Schwimmer's proposed twelve-part television series on the history of the United States. Since Mr. Schwimmer's project is a commercial television production, it would not, as a general matter, be appropriate for the President to endorse the project or become involved with it in any way. This being the case, I see little purpose to be served by the meeting proposed by Mr. Quaal.

The Honorable Michael Deaver
Deputy Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mike:

Because of your thoughtful arrangements, I had the pleasure of a fine meeting with the President on March 16th.

There were several key matters to discuss and one was urgent; namely, Radio Marti. Our meeting was cut a bit "short" because a group of Congressmen, visiting with the President on the budget, overstayed their timeframe. Even though I had waited more than half an hour beyond my appointed time with our great mutual friend, I did not want to add to the difficulty of his demanding schedule, so I greatly shortened the time allotted to me.

When I was with the President on March 16th, Mike, we had not received the report on the mediocrity of education in our beloved nation. However, I knew of the report that was coming forth and I felt that the presentation that was going to be made to the President by the bipartisan Federal commission would underscore, in many ways, the tragedy of the inadequate educational effort in our land.

As one truly proud to be an American and so mighty grateful that Ronald Reagan is our President in these critical times, I wanted to talk with him when at The White House about the manner in which the educational process ignores, almost totally, the history of our blessed land. Mike, it is a tragedy that the young folks of today do not learn more in school about how we got here, what we have become and what we mean to the world. We have here the greatest nation on the face of the globe and each and every day even those who are our "enemies" or who at least speak ill of us, view with envy our achievements and above all else, the true freedom of those who have the good fortune to be citizens of our nation.

The Honorable Michael Deaver
May 18, 1983

When with the President, I had hoped to have the time to address myself to an historical project conceived by the great Walter Schwimmer, the man, in my opinion, who has the finest record of radio and television production of any man in the history of our profession. Mike, Walter has come forth with a twelve-part series on the "History of the United States". The plans are truly tremendous, truly outstanding and offer us a way to present this twelve-part series on television and then make tapes, as well as a written record, available to every school in the United States.

The series, as proposed, takes the people of America through the difficult early days to the present. The air presentation of this series will do more, by far, than anything done to date to truly tell the people of America what this nation is all about and why we stand as the beacon of freedom for all the world to see. Mike, this series would help so very much to fill the void that exists today in this important area of educating our young people. Concurrently, it will be a reminder to those of us who are older how fortunate we are to be Americans and to have a little role in this very special land of ours.

Walter and I are not seeking one dollar of taxpayer support. This series, when aired, will be presented by American advertisers for the people of America!

Mike, I am so excited about the potential for this great presentation, in twelve showings, that I would like just a little bit of time, even ten minutes, for Walter Schwimmer and me to meet with our great President and discuss this briefly with him. As our great President, and, indeed, the finest Chief Executive that this nation has had in modern history and as one who truly loves this country, we would like to tell him, briefly, about what we have in mind.

By the way, Mike, he knows that I wanted to discuss this on March 16th but there just was not the time.

Please be assured, Mike, that Walter and I will come to Washington at any time, even on short notice, so that we can tell President Reagan the plans to date and how we intend to implement them.

Warmest personal regards and thank you so much, Mike, for this and many other courtesies and considerations.

Very sincerely,

Ward L. Quaal

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR
SUBJECT: Check for $3.3 Billion

Alan Rose of Chicago has written the President to express his disappointment that the proposed defense budget was turned down, "coming up some $3.3 billion short." Rose opined that America needed a strong defense to keep from becoming vulnerable, and enclosed a check -- made out to the United States -- as his way of saying "keep up the good spirits."

It is unclear if Mr. Rose considered the check to be a symbolic gesture of support, was being sarcastic, or is simply a loon. I think we should send the check back with a note thanking him for his expressions of support.

Dear Mr. Rose:

Thank you for your letter to the President expressing your disappointment at Congressional reductions in the President's proposed defense budget. Along with that letter you enclosed a personal check dated April 20, 1983 (#742), for $3.3 billion, payable to the United States of America.

We appreciate your support for the President's program, and assume that the check was intended as a symbolic gesture of that support rather than a negotiable financial instrument. We could not, in any event, cash the check and use the proceeds in the defense effort, consistent with the requirements of the appropriations process. Accordingly, we are returning the check to you.

Sir:

I was recently appalled and, yes, embarrassed when the proposed defense budget was turned down, coming up some $3.3 billion short.

Many Americans just don't realize the sense of a justifiably astronomical defense buildup. Just like a buildup of holsum food strengthens the body to keep it at peace, America needs a strong cupboard of "preventative medicine" to keep her from becoming vulnerable. I just hope we don't find out the hard way.

The enclosed check is my little way of saying, "Keep up the good spirit".
Don't worry about it sir. Let's keep America strong and proud.

Let's hear from you.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

July 19, 1983

FOR: FRED F. FIELDING
FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR
SUBJECT: Law Enforcement Olympics

Joseph G. Gentile of the Metropolitan Police Department has written you to invite the President to light the torch for the opening day ceremonies of the Washington Metropolitan Area Law Enforcement Olympics. The ceremonies are scheduled to start at 11:00 a.m., on September 17. Law enforcement olympics involve federal, state, and local law enforcement officers. After local events like this one across the country, there will be regional competition and then national finals.

I expect that the President will not be able to accept this invitation, but I am unwilling to dismiss it out of hand, since it would be a visible gesture of support for law enforcement. Accordingly, I recommend simply routing Gentile's letter to Fred Ryan for whatever consideration he deems appropriate. I have drafted and attached a memorandum to Ryan and reply to Gentile.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 19, 1983

Dear Mr. Gentile:

Thank you for your letter inviting the President to light the torch for the opening day ceremonies of the Washington Metropolitan Area Law Enforcement Olympics. Your invitation is particularly gratifying in light of the President's strong support of law enforcement and the esteem with which he regards those who devote their lives to making all of us safe and secure.

I am certain you recognize that it is extremely difficult to find time on the President's demanding schedule for such events, even when they are as praiseworthy as the law enforcement olympics. I have, however, forwarded your invitation to Frederick J. Ryan, Special Assistant to the President and Director of Scheduling. Mr. Ryan will give your request every appropriate consideration.

Thank you for your gracious invitation, and best of luck with the olympics.

Sincerely,

Fred F. Fielding
