MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 18, 1983

FOR: FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS OK

SUBJECT: Request for Constitutional Opinion

Paul M. Walters of Cleburne, Texas asks: "Is Article 1 Section 10 of the Constitution still binding in the states?" He notes that he needs our opinion to determine the validity of a judgment expressed in "paper dollars," from which I deduce that he is referring to that clause in article 1, section 10 which provides "No State shall... make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts..." Walters addressed identical queries to Secretary Dole and Dave Gergen, both of whom referred the letters to us.

The short answer to Mr. Walters' question is yes, of course article 1, section 10 of the Constitution is still binding on the states. With respect to his underlying concern, however, it should be noted that Congress -- not any state -- has made "paper dollars" legal tender, so there is no violation of the "legal tender" clause when a judgment -- even a state judgment -- is expressed in such dollars. By its terms article 1, section 10 does not apply to the federal government.

In the famous Legal Tender Case, 110 U.S. 446 (1884), the Supreme Court ruled that although states are denied the power to make anything but gold and silver coin legal tender, it could not be inferred that the Framers also intended to prohibit Congress from doing so. It is not unusual for amateur attorneys to attempt to escape liability or obtain a windfall by citing the legal tender clause, and refusing to be bound to a debt or judgment expressed in dollars. Such efforts have been rebuffed on the ground relied upon in the Legal Tender Case. See, e.g., Rush v. Casco Bank & Trust Co., 348 A. 2d 237 (Maine 1975); Chermack v. Bjornson, 302 Minn. 213, 223 NW. 2d 659, cert. denied, 421 U.S. 914 (1974).

I recommend advising Walters, first and foremost, that we are not in the business of giving legal advice to private parties. We can, however, suggest that while article 1, section 10 is binding on the states, that does not mean a judgment expressed in paper dollars is invalid.

Dear Mr. Walters:

Thank you for your letter of August 7, 1983. In that letter you asked whether article 1, section 10 of the United States Constitution was still binding on the states. You indicated that you needed an answer in order to determine the validity of a judgment expressed in "paper dollars."

As an initial matter I must advise you that our office cannot provide legal advice to private parties with respect to particular personal claims or concerns. As a general matter, however, I can advise that article 1, section 10 is binding on the states, although as with any constitutional or statutory provision it must be interpreted in light of judicial precedent. With respect to your concern about the validity of a judgment expressed in "paper dollars," it is significant that Congress, as opposed to any state, has made federal currency legal tender. Courts have ruled that the "legal tender clause" of article 1, section 10 does not bar Congress from taking such action.

Sincerely,

Orig. signed by FFF

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Letter to the President from Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission --
Reese Taylor

Richard Darman has asked for our views on a letter to the President from ICC Chairman, Reese Taylor. On July 29, Taylor wrote the President, advocating additional deregulation of the surface transportation industry. The Administration has three such proposals pending, covering freight carrier, water carrier, and freight forwarder aspects, respectively. Action on the proposals has stalled, however, and Taylor's letter urges a renewed commitment to the package.

Our office is not qualified to comment on the merits of the deregulation proposals. I suspect the letter was routed to us because of the ICC's independent status. Nothing about that status, however, precludes full consideration of the views of the ICC Chairman concerning pending legislation. The attached memorandum to Darman declines to take a view on the merits, but notes that there are no bars to consideration of Taylor's letter.

Counsel's Office has reviewed the letter to the President from Reese Taylor, Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Although the ICC is an independent regulatory agency, nothing about that status precludes its Chairman from expressing his views on legislative proposals to the President, nor is the President at all constrained in considering those views. Our office has no view on whether the Administration should or should not proceed with deregulation of the surface transportation industries.

Washington, D.C. 20423

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

July 29, 1983

The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

Further deregulation of America's surface transportation industries continues to be a subject of considerable debate and editorial comment. Much of the concern relates to the Administration's legislative proposals, now under study, which would eliminate economic regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission of the freight carrier, water carrier, and freight forwarder segments. As your designated Chairman of the I.C.C., I trust you will not deem it presumptuous of me to offer the following brief comments on the three proposals under consideration.

In a serious effort to enhance competition and make the trucking industry more reliant upon the forces of the marketplace, the Motor Carrier Act of 1980 mandated greater rate freedom and eased entry. The Act also encouraged the I.C.C. to effectuate further reform by administrative action wherever appropriate. We have nearly exhausted our available administrative opportunities, and any significant advancement of the reform process is now largely dependent upon the passage of additional deregulatory legislation.

To illustrate the fact that our remaining regulatory activities relative to freight carriers have become a classic example of form superseding substance, I need only point out that the Commission now grants approximately 97% of all permanent applications for trucking authority. Unfortunately, the cumbersome regulatory structure still in place constitutes, for the most part, a monumental paper shuffling operation, and as a result, current trucking regulation by the I.C.C. is merely an exercise in regulation for regulation's sake, with little or no redeeming public benefit.

The economic devastation and deterioration of service, which some predicted would be the by-products of regulatory reform, have not materialized. Studies by GAO, and others, indicate that lessened regulation cannot be made the chief culprit for whatever economic woes the trucking industry has recently experienced. The fact of the matter is freight carrier service to small communities has not been impaired, nor have rates increased appreciably in those areas. Moreover, with the strong economic upturn that is presently underway, substantial benefits for carriers, shippers, and consumers are within reach, once the now pointless vestiges of regulation are removed. The only surviving remnant should be a concerted effort by the Department of Transportation to implement meaningful safety standards.

Mr. President

Improving economic conditions and the elimination of regulatory restraints should also produce substantial benefits for the water carrier and freight forwarder segments. Since 92% of water carrier traffic is already exempt from I.C.C. jurisdiction, there is no sound basis for delaying the complete deregulation of this mode. Furthermore, because of the importance of advancing freight forwarder deregulation in lock step with trucking deregulation, the reform proposals for both should move together.

Mr. President, I genuinely appreciate this opportunity to share with you my thoughts about a subject that is of considerable importance to the Nation, to our surface transportation industries, and to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and I humbly but strongly urge your endorsement of the three legislative proposals which would eliminate the I.C.C.'s economic regulation of freight carriers, water carriers, and freight forwarders. In addition, to ensure consideration of these proposals during the current session of Congress, expeditious action is essential.

If the foregoing gives rise to any questions, or if I can provide any additional information, please let me know.

With best and warmest regards,

Most sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Reese H. Taylor, Jr.", with a large, sweeping flourish extending from the end of the signature.

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Election Improprieties Surrounding
Robert G. Spencer, in Youngstown, Ohio

Mrs. Margaret Spencer has written you concerning alleged vote fraud that cost her son, Robert, the Democratic Party nomination for mayor of Youngstown. Robert Spencer lost the bitterly-fought primary by 94 votes. Mrs. Spencer, enclosing newspaper clippings to substantiate her charges, contends that the Democratic "machine", with ties to organized crime, resorted to illegal tactics to defeat Robert.

I have prepared a memorandum transmitting this correspondence to the Justice Department. I do not recommend any reply from you to Mrs. Spencer advising her of this referral, since such a reply could easily be misinterpreted by an over-zealous mother, and announced to the media, as the commencement of a Justice Department investigation.

Mr. Fielding,

Phone - 216-788-1787

I talked to a very nice lady on the White House phone today. After listening to my troubles, she suggested I write to you. Neither she nor I know whether our problem would come under civil rights, human rights, organized crime or something else. If I will be difficult for me to listen to story, but, I will enclose some clippings from our newspaper & an article printed in the Cleveland Plain Dealer which will explain some of it & why we are desperate for outside help.

Dear Sam, Robert & I, hence as a community councilman in Jamestown, which we was a councilman, he tried to clean up his ward by closing bars which sold drugs, stopping prostitution etc. He a real & good police, who in connects to sitting in (social) had Bob's car impounded (see enclosed Jamestown indicators 9216). After this incident, Bob received a phone call threatening to hurt his home next. In argument about "Crim in Jamestown" on 10/23, on 10/30, an interview with Bob including the playing of the tape on which the threat was made.

Since that time, Bob decided to run in the June primary for mayor - against the Mayor of (machine) Charles J. McInerney. We Don Hanni is Democrat Chairman, also.

Mr. Hanni is head of the election board.
Since the mayor of Youngstown appoints the police chief, it's very important for who is elected mayor.

We have had no arrests of any violence
once in Youngstown for years - of known racketeers.

We did have what we call the "William"
case - (see enclosed clipping 7-16-82), money missing, parking meters missing etc. It was quickly disposed of by Mr. Hanni & Mr.
Gilmartin. Nobody was put in jail, no money returned & the policeman was uncovered it made to look like a fool. That's Youngstown!

Bob lost the election by 97 votes (4 since the recount) He won total votes at the polls but lost on the absentee ballots. And there's hangs the tale. Bob, with help, checked into the absentee ballots. They found votes from vacant lots, whiting out of signatures, ballots hand delivered (illegal) by Mr. Joe Carter & Mark Hanni (Don Hanni's son). For also had phone calls from some Republicans who were not allowed to vote.

Some of these goings - one was actually shown by Miss Linda Wren on the ABC Station, WYTV last evening & on the news cast! Mr. Carter was interviewed - I'd like to have now hear what, I can not possibly quote him.

Mr. State for people calling over head talk show, demanding to hear what went on in the primary election and despite Miss Andrea W. Fox's attempt to show how votes were controlled, judge Ellwyn Jenkins ruled in court last week that "Spencer said to include the Masoning County Board in elections and/or the Ohio Sec. of State as parties" — Bob ~~etc~~ called the Sec. of State twice (see paper clipping). Also, judge Jenkins ruled that "Spencer did not exhaust all administrative remedies set out by law for challenging absentee ballots prior to the election." How could Bob have known before the lopsided vote (Ungaro 733, Spencer 306) that these ballots had been tampered with?

And, would the machine have looked into it? Never.

Bob's attorney says he did enter the case according to the law. Bob had witnesses ready to testify & a box of evidence.

Now, Mr. Ungaro has requested the Sec. of State, Mr. Richard Brown, to investigate the irregularities. He quite says now Jim Swine, "Since today's newspaper states Mr. Schaath from the Sec. of State office: "It is highly doubtful we would initiate any investigation unless we get, under oath, specific allegations involving substantial violations of election laws."

If specific allegations include people being interviewed on T.V. who voted absentee ballots, who didn't even know the candidate names, couldn't remember who they voted for, had ballots handed delivered to them (illegal), people not allowed to vote, two different signatures etc., wouldn't you say this case should be heard?

Mr. Hanni also will not reveal where the party's funds came from. Bob spent $14,000, the party spent over 70,000. Why would they spend this much on a primary election?

Please, would it be possible for you or someone from Washington, to look at the evidence that Bob has? Otherwise I'm sure it will never see the light of day, not in Ohio!

Please, for the rights of the elect who voted against the "machine", is there anything that can be done?

Thank you,

Mrs. Margaret L. Spencer
Mr. Robert E. Spencer

Please don't suggest that we go to the F.B.I. here in Youngstown. They were at our home after the car bombing and we were told that this is considered "Drum & Poff" crimes.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR
SUBJECT: Your Inquiry Concerning Letter
From Larry Smith to Jack Sparks

Central Files reveals that Larry Smith is a pest who has been writing everyone in an unsuccessful effort to obtain a "photo opportunity." Interestingly, the last document in the file, a memorandum addressed to Mr. Deaver, Senator Laxalt, and yourself, from Pen James, suggests that the question of Smith's use of the Laxalt letter came up before, but there is no record in the files of any action having been taken.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Letter from Larry Smith to Jack Sparks

Jack Sparks, Chairman of the Board of Whirlpool, called John Stiner of Virginia Knauer's office to complain about a letter he had received from one Larry Smith. Sparks suggested that the letter be reviewed by our office, and Stiner forwarded it to me.

Smith's letter is extremely offensive and suggests Smith has exploitable "contacts" within the Administration, which he is willing to put to work for clients for $1,000 per day, plus expenses. As evidence of his clout, Smith appends a May 8, 1981, letter from Senator Laxalt to Mr. Deaver, advising that Justin Dart asked for a "photo opportunity" for Smith.

I do not know who Smith is, nor do I think it matters. I have prepared an appropriately stern letter to Smith, and one to Sparks advising him of our action.

Dear Mr. Smith:

We have been provided a copy of a letter in which you offer to corporate clients your services in the area of government relations. In that letter, you refer to a brief note from Senator Laxalt to Michael Deaver, requesting on your behalf what you describe as "a prestigious photo opportunity with President Reagan." You refer to this note as your "calling card."

I must advise you that it is extremely inappropriate for you to use a copy of such a note as a means of soliciting clients for your services. Your use of the note suggests that you have special access to officials in the Administration that can be exploited to the advantage of corporate clients. That is not true in your case nor, for that matter, in anyone else's. Please cease immediately such improper use of the letter from Senator Laxalt.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sparks:

The Office of Consumer Affairs forwarded to us a copy of the letter you received from Mr. Larry R. Smith of Harrisburg, Illinois, and advised us of your concern about the implications in Mr. Smith's letter. In his letter, Mr. Smith offered his services in the area of government relations, and enclosed a copy of a letter from Senator Laxalt to Assistant to the President, Michael K. Deaver, requesting a "photo opportunity" with the President for Mr. Smith.

We share your concern about Mr. Smith's letter, and appreciate your bringing it to our attention. I would hope it is not necessary to assure you that Mr. Smith was acting wholly on his own without the knowledge of anyone in the Administration. I have enclosed, for your information, a copy of a letter I wrote to Mr. Smith advising him to cease immediately his improper use of the letter from Senator Laxalt.

Thank you again for alerting us to this unfortunate episode.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR JOHN ROBERTS

FROM:

JOHN STINER John Stiner

SUBJECT:

Letter to Jack Sparks, Chairman of the Board, Whirlpool Corporation

John, please find the attached letter to Jack Sparks written by Larry Smith and the letter to Mike Deaver from Senator Laxalt regarding the proposed "photo opportunity."

As I mentioned, Mr. Sparks was very angry after reading Smith's letter and wanted to know if there was anything illegal about the claims made by Smith. Although there is nothing illegal that I can see, I think attention by your Office would be appropriate.

Please let me know what you decide to do with it.
Thanks very much.

Dear Mr. Sparks:

This is to apprise you that I serve strictly "FORTUNE 500" clients, like yourself, on matters relating exclusively to a liaison role with the Federal Establishment.

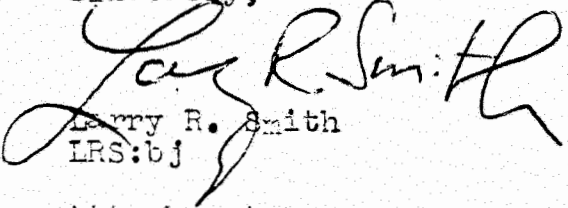

No doubt I could regale you with an impressive listing of clientele. Correspondingly, I could list a prestigious series of specific noteworthy accomplishments. But, regretfully, I am not at liberty to divulge such particulars. Given the sensitivity of my role, total confidentiality must be assured.

Suffice it then to present you, as my "calling card," if you will, a copy of a personal letter written during the current Reagan Administration by one of its chief architects. Such communication formally requests for myself a prestigious "photo opportunity" with President Reagan.

Should you have in-place at WHIRLPOOL a full-fledged Federal Relations Department and/or a branch office in Washington, D.C., you will probably not perceive an overwhelming need to avail yourself of my specialized services. However, if that not be the case and yet the complexities of WHIRLPOOL corporate life require a discrete, absolutely confidential, liaison role by an outside specialist of my expertise, I am most assuredly at your service.

Be advised my retainer is $1,000-per-day-plus-expenses. Should you have pressing Federal Relations concerns, I would encourage you to forward me post-haste your "letter of intent," indicating your request, desired timing, and immediate financial commitment. Upon receipt of same, I should be delighted to be in touch via phone as to final confirmation arrangements. Thank you, Mr. Sparks.

Sincerely,

Larry R. Smith

Dear Mike:

Jus Dart sometime ago asked if time could be provided for a "photo opportunity" for Larry Smith sometime this summer.

If it can be worked out, I would greatly appreciate it.
