DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
NAVAL MEDICAL COMMAND
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20372

IN REPLY REFER TO

NAVMEDCOM-02:RFM:ems
5041
20 JAN 1983

To Whom It May Concern:

From October 14 to November 10, 1982, the Inspector General Medical made a routine inspection of the Naval Regional Medical Center, Portsmouth, Virginia. This inspection was performed by the team of the Inspector General, Medical and a large number of augmentees who lent their expertise to the inspections.

The final brief was held 10 November and the overall impression was stated to the staff that the hospital and its region was being managed well and the personnel performing extremely well. Recommendations were made in a number of areas to improve efficiency but it was noted that the administration was most effective and serving the military community in an outstanding manner.

During the I.G. Medical inspection, the Joint Commission of Accreditation of Hospital inspection was also carried out and this report awarded the command a three year accreditation. The JCAH inspection was a positive cross-check on the Naval Regional Medical Center quality assurance program which we rated as satisfactory.

Sincerely,

ROGER F. MILNES
Rear Admiral, Medical Corps
United States Navy
Deputy Commander for Fleet Readiness and Support
