We are now beginning to gather our friends for the Inaugural Gala Weekend, February 17, 18 and 19, 1984 described fully in the minutes of the June 23rd meeting.

It will be a magnificent event chaired by Mrs. Lynn Wyatt from our Board. President and Mrs. Reagan will be Honorary Chairmen. Mrs. Thomas Kempner and Countess Aline de Romanones will be two of the co-chairmen. And the committee grows each day.

The White House reception Friday, February 17th, will be limited to 60 persons (30 couples). The Royal Family and Mrs. Reagan will attend and also the President, if his schedule permits. We want you and your friends there as Founding Patrons.

In addition we are planning for our Benefactors, a special brunch at the State Department on the elegant antiques furnished 8th floor Sunday, February 19th. We are again limited. Only 200 people (100 couples) can attend.

Enclosed are:

1. suggested letters for your Patron and Benefactor lists;
2. return cards and envelopes;
3. Princess Grace Stationery

Please feel free to modify these to your special needs.

Because we understand we will be substantially over subscribed for the White House event, we urge you and your guests to respond as quickly as possible. In addition, please send the names and addresses (of those you will be inviting) to the Foundation's office as we will want to coordinate the invitation lists.

If you have additional questions or if there is anything I can do to assist you, I am just a call away.

With kind regards,

Constance

Dear :

At the request of Their Serene Highnesses of Monaco, I have recently been asked to join the Princess Grace Foundation's Board of Trustees. This is an exciting and new endeavor and I am delighted to be part of it.

Princess Grace, as you know, was deeply committed to the arts and encouraged emerging young talent in creative and cultural fields. Our goal is to continue that mission.

We are now in our initial stages of developing an international program that would respond to our aims with sensitivity and impact. This task requires a funding commitment.

We are approaching a small number of individuals, such as yourself, whom we feel have an interest in our general objectives, to become a Benefactor. We hope you will join us.

Benefactors are requested to donate $1500 per person and will be invited February 18th to a lunch at L'Enfant Hotel and to our Inaugural Gala that evening at 1400 Constitution Avenue attended by The Royal Family. President and Mrs. Reagan will be Honorary Chairmen. On Sunday, a brunch will be held at the elegantly furnished Eighth Floor of the State Department to which you are cordially invited.

I know that I speak for all of the Board of Trustees and Their Serene Highnesses in saying how deeply appreciative we are for your support in this most worthwhile endeavor.

Because the Inaugural festivities are limited to 200 people, I would appreciate your R.S.V.P. by September 1, 1983

Sincerely,

Princess Grace Foundation

Dear

I am honored to have been asked to chair the Princess Grace Foundation Inaugural Gala to be held in Washington, D.C. Saturday, February 18, 1984.

Ordinarily I would have difficulty in writing this kind of letter, yet in this case I am eager and excited to share with you what is taking place that will continue to support the special interest that Princess Grace had in encouraging emerging young talent in the creative arts.

His Serene Highness Prince Rainier activated the Foundation, and many of those who were Princess Grace's friends and admirers are serving on the board of trustees. The Foundation's objective is to raise funds to assist young people who are attempting to achieve the success, integrity and character which surrounded Princess Grace in her lifetime. Efforts will center on those in the field of the performing arts with emphasis on drama and dance.

The activities of the weekend of February 17-19, 1984, will officially launch the Foundation. The weekend will begin on Friday evening with a reception at the White House. ^{where} H.S.H Prince Rainier, ~~who with his children will be guests of President and Mrs. Reagan,~~ will announce the purposes and aims of the Foundation.

For Founding Patrons and Benefactors of the Foundation there will be a luncheon on Saturday at the L'Enfant Plaza Hotel and a brunch on the Eighth Floor at the State Department on Sunday.

Saturday evening at the Departmental Auditorium on Constitution Avenue the Gala will begin with cocktails and dinner attended by the Royal Family. President and Mrs. Reagan have kindly consented to be the Honorary Chairmen ^{Sponsors} of the Gala. We will also have the delight of a performance by Julio Iglesias during the evening of the Gala.

I would be honored for you to join my international (national) committee. Founding Patrons are contributing $5,000 and Benefactors are contributing $1,500. Those who attend the Gala only are making a $500 contribution.

The Inaugural Gala will be a gathering of those who loved Princess Grace and is an important event to launch the Foundation's activities. Your contribution and attendance would be a wonderful asset to this important occasion.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Oscar Wyatt, Jr.

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 23, 1983

TO: DIANNA G. HOLLAND

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Draft $1,500 Benefactor Letter for the Princess
Grace Foundation

This item was handled orally by Richard Hauser and myself. Mr. Hauser advised Joe Canzeri by telephone on August 23 that our office would interpose no objection to the letters, provided that the first sentence of the last paragraph of the Founding Patron letter was deleted. Canzeri agreed to delete the offending sentence.

The Honorable
Fred Fielding
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Fielding,

President and Mrs. Reagan have kindly agreed to serve as Chairpersons for a fundraiser which the Princess Grace Foundation will hold in Washington, D.C. on February 17 - 19 of 1984. Since they have agreed to participate with the Foundation, I am sending these draft letters to you for your office to review and hopefully approve. The letters will be used to solicit funds from individuals for the Princess Grace Foundation and will be signed by various Board Members.

Mr. Goldfield has already approved a previous version of this letter, however, we did make several changes in the copy and would appreciate having it reviewed one more time.

Thank you so much for your help and please call me at 737-5858 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Brenda Zimmerman

$1,500 Benefactor Letter for the Princess Grace Foundation

Dear _____,

At the request of their Serene Highnesses of Monaco, I have recently been asked to join the Board of Trustees of the Princess Grace Foundation. This is a new and exciting endeavor, and I am delighted to be part of it.

Princess Grace, as you know, was deeply committed to the arts and encouraged emerging young creative talent, particularly in the fields of dance and theater. The purpose of the Princess Grace Foundation will be to continue her efforts in those areas; we are now in the initial stages of developing an international program that would foster such talents. Needless to say, this task requires a funding commitment.

The activities of the Princess Grace Foundation will be officially launched in Washington, D.C. with an exciting series of events over the weekend of February 18th and 19th. President and Mrs. Reagan will serve as Honorary Chairpersons of this Gala Weekend, and the entire Royal Family will be in attendance. The weekend will include a Gala Dinner for 600 persons, and a performance by the internationally renowned Julio Iglesias at a magnificent building in the Capital, the Departmental Auditorium; Luncheon at L'Enfant Plaza Hotel; and a brunch in the Eighth Floor Reception Rooms of the State Department.

We are approaching a small number of individuals such as yourself, who we feel have an interest in our general objectives, to become Benefactors of the Princess Grace Foundation.

Benefactors are requested to donate $1,500 per person and will be included in all festivities over the weekend of February 18-19.

I know I speak for all of the Board of Trustees and their Serene Highnesses in saying how deeply appreciative we are for your support in this most worthwhile endeavor.

Because a limited number of persons can be accommodated for these events, we would appreciate your positive response in becoming a Benefactor of the Princess Grace Foundation no later than September 15. We hope you will join us.

Sincerely,

Board Member

$5,000 Founding Patron Letter for Princess Grace Foundation
