BALTIC FREEDOM DAY

- - - - -

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

It has been over 40 years since invading Soviet armies, in collusion with the Nazi regime, overran the ~~the~~ independent Baltic Republics of Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and forceably incorporated them into Moscow's expanding empire. The new ~~communist masters~~ ^{regime} then ordered the illegal deportation, murder, and imprisonment of tens of thousands of Baltic peoples whose only "crime" was to resist foreign tyranny and to defend their liberties and freedoms.

Oppression and persecution continue to this day, but despite this long dark night of injustice, the brave men and women of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania ^{have} ~~has~~ never abandoned the battle for their national independence and ~~God~~ ^{God}-given rights. Although the full measure of their struggle and sacrifices is screened by the oppression and censorship under which they live, the friends and families of the Baltic peoples all over the world are aware of their heroic endeavors and aspirations.

Their peaceful demands for their rights and self-respect command the admiration of everyone who loves and honors freedom. All the people of the United State of America share the just aspirations of the Baltic nations for national independence, and we uphold their right to determine their own national destiny, free of foreign domination. The United States has never recognized the forceable incorporation of the Baltic States into the Soviet Union, and it will not do so in the future.

296, has authorized and requested the President to issue a proclamation for the observance of June 14, 1984 as "Baltic Freedom Day."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim June 14, 1984 as Baltic Freedom Day. I call upon the people of the United States to observe this day with appropriate remembrances and ceremonies and to reaffirm their commitment to ^{the} principles of liberty and freedom for all oppressed people.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this day of June, in the year of our Lord
nineteen hundred and eighty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and eighth.

Discussion

S.J.Res. 296 designates June 14, 1984, as "Baltic Freedom Day" and authorizes and requests the President to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

June 14, 1984, marks the forty-fourth anniversary of the occupation by the Soviet Union of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. S.J.Res. 296, which gives formal recognition to June 14, 1984, pays tribute to the continuing struggle of the Baltic people to regain the freedom they once enjoyed.

The enrolled resolution passed the House and Senate by voice vote. We understand that the Department of State is preparing a proclamation which will be forwarded for your consideration as soon as possible.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of October 7, 1984, through October 13, 1984, is designated as "National Birds of Prey Conservation Week", and the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon individuals to observe such a week by considering the importance of birds of prey in wildlife communities.

FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE LIBERATION OF ROME

The joint resolution (S.J. Res. 240) relating to the 40th anniversary of the liberation of Rome, was considered, ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.

The preamble was agreed to.

The joint resolution and preamble are as follows:

S.J. RES. 240

Whereas, on June 4, 1944, in the city of Rome, Italy, Allied armies comprising military units of sixteen sovereign nations, together with Italian resistance forces, drove out the Axis occupier and liberated the Eternal City;

Whereas the combined United States-Canadian First Special Service Force and attached armor and artillery units were in the forefront of attacking forces seizing eight bridges over the Tiber River in Rome, thus assuring immediate advance to the north by Allied units;

Whereas, on the fortieth anniversary of this successful assault, United States and Canadian veterans of the First Special Service Force will commemorate that liberation of Rome by unveiling a memorial plaque at Saint Paul's Gate in that city, under the sponsorship of the Premier of Italy and the mayor of Rome: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States Senate and the United States House of Representatives ask the American people to take cognizance of this commemoration in Rome on June 2 through June 3, 1984.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the joint resolution was agreed to.

Mr. BYRD. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

YEAR OF THE OCEAN

The joint resolution (S.J. Res. 257) to designate the period of July 1, 1984, through July 1, 1985, as the "Year of the Ocean," was considered, ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.

The preamble was agreed to.

The joint resolution and preamble are as follows:

S.J. RES. 257

Whereas the oceans are the major source of the waters on planet Earth providing an essential link in the chain of human existence;

Whereas the ocean environment provides us with a wealth of products and services but is increasingly subject to stress caused by population growth, economic development, placement of energy-related facilities, extraction of mineral resources and fossil fuels, transportation and navigation, waste disposal, and harvesting of living marine resources;

Whereas America is the steward of the resources of the ocean and coastal regions that border our Nation and this stewardship entails a responsibility to match our increased uses of marine resources with an increased vigilance of the well-being of the marine environment;

Whereas it is important to educate Americans as the users of ocean products and the beneficiaries of our ocean heritage, to the role the world ocean plays in our lives;

Whereas a "Year of the Ocean" will be used to expand public awareness and knowledge of the importance of the ocean and its resources; and

Whereas it is fitting and proper that "Ocean Day" be the first day of celebration during the "Year of the Ocean": Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That July 1, 1984, to July 1, 1985, be designated "Year of the Ocean", and the President is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such celebration with appropriate activities.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the joint resolution was agreed to.

Mr. BYRD. I move to lay that motion on the table.

BALTIC FREEDOM DAY

The joint resolution (S.J. Res. 296) to designate June 14, 1984, as "Baltic Freedom Day," was considered, ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.

The preamble was agreed to.

The joint resolution and preamble are as follows:

S.J. RES. 296

Whereas the people of the Baltic Republics of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia have cherished the principles of religious and political freedom and independence; and

Whereas the Baltic Republics have existed as independent, sovereign nations belonging to and fully recognized by the League of Nations; and

Whereas the people of the Baltic Republics have individual and separate cultures, national traditions, and languages distinctively foreign to those of Russia; and

Whereas the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.) in 1940 did illegally seize and occupy the Baltic Republics and by force incorporate them against their national will and contrary to their desire for independence and sovereignty into the U.S.S.R.; and

Whereas the U.S.S.R. since 1940 has systematically removed native Baltic peoples from their homelands by deporting them to Siberia and caused great masses of Russians to relocate in the Republics, thus threatening the Baltic cultures with extinction; and

Whereas the U.S.S.R. has imposed upon the captive people of the Baltic Republics an oppressive political system which has destroyed every vestige of democracy, civil liberties, and religious freedom; and

Whereas the people of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia find themselves today subjugated by the U.S.S.R., locked into a union they deplore, denied basic human rights, and persecuted for daring to protest; and

Whereas the United States stands as a champion of liberty, dedicated to the principles of national self-determination, human rights, and religious freedom, and opposed to oppression and imperialism; and

Whereas the United States, as a member of the United Nations, has repeatedly voted with a majority of that international body to uphold the right of other countries of the world, including those in Africa and Asia, to determine their fates and be free of foreign domination; and

Whereas the U.S.S.R. has steadfastly refused to return to the people of the Baltic States the right to exist as independent republics separate and apart from the U.S.S.R. or permit a return of personal, political, and religious freedoms: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress of the United States recognizes the continuing desire and the right of the people of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia for freedom and independence from the domination of the U.S.S.R. and deplores the refusal of the U.S.S.R. to recognize the sovereignty of the Baltic Republics and to yield to their rightful demands for independence from foreign domination and oppression and that the fourteenth day of June 1984, the anniversary of the mass deportation of Baltic peoples from their homelands in 1941, be designated "Baltic Freedom Day" as a symbol of the solidarity of the American people with the aspirations of the enslaved Baltic people and that the President of the United States be authorized and requested to issue a proclamation for the observance of Baltic Freedom Day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the joint resolution was agreed to.

Mr. BYRD. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

NATIONAL ICE CREAM MONTH AND NATIONAL ICE CREAM DAY

The joint resolution (S.J. Res. 298) to proclaim the month of July 1984 as "National Ice Cream Month" and July 15, 1984, as "National Ice Cream Day," was considered, ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.

Harmon Killebrew Day and Accompanying Draft Proclamation

We have been asked for our comments as soon as possible on the enrolled resolution designating yesterday "Harmon Killebrew Day," and the draft proclamation called for by the resolution. Killebrew, who began his career with the Washington Senators, will be inducted into the Hall of Fame this August. It strikes me as unusual to single out Killebrew for such special treatment, but Congress passed the resolution by voice vote and of course we should sign it. OMB recommends approval.

The draft proclamation, approved by OMB, reviews Killebrew's accomplishments, recognizes "the other baseball immortals enshrined in Cooperstown," and quotes some general musings from Justice Blackmun on baseball. The quotation of Blackmun is appropriate. Whatever his virtues as a jurist, Blackmun is one of the greatest fans of the game. I have no objection to the draft proclamation.

Discussion

S.J. Res. 285, which passed both Houses by voice vote, designates June 13, 1984, as "Harmon Killebrew Day," and requests the President to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

The resolution notes that Harmon Killebrew was named to Major League Baseball's Hall of Fame on January 10, 1984, and that next to Babe Ruth, Harmon Killebrew is the most prolific home run hitter in American League history. Mr. Killebrew played Major League baseball for more than 17 full seasons, leading the American League in home runs for 7 seasons and amassing 573 home runs.

Senator McClure (who sponsored S.J. Res. 285) and Harmon Killebrew both grew up in Payette, Idaho. Senator McClure, in his introductory remarks on S.J. Res. 285, stated that Harmon Killebrew, since his retirement, has been very active in several worthy causes, the most prominent being the Danny Thompson Leukemia Foundation. Danny Thompson, a former teammate of Harmon Killebrew, was a second baseman for the Minnesota Twins who died of leukemia at the age of 26. In the few years since Harmon Killebrew and former Congressman Ralph Harding started the Foundation, it has raised over $400,000 for leukemia research. The money is raised primarily through the Danny Thompson Memorial golf tournament held annually in Sun Vally, Idaho. Members of both the Senate and the House participate in this event.

CONGRESS IS RESPONSIBLE FOR DEFICITS

(Mr. WALKER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, this morning the majority leader launched a preemptive strike against a Presidential speech yet undelivered which was an obvious attempt to divert the American people's attention away from the truth.

We can hope that what the President will say later on this week will lay the blame for deficits where they belong, right here in the House of Representatives. It is this House that is responsible for the fact that we are piling up massive deficits in this country.

The majority leader mentioned the fact that we attempted to save money through the Budget Act. What he did not mention was that most of those savings were as a result of increased taxes. He also did not mention the fact that when it came to actually spending the money in the appropriations bills that what we did was waive the Budget Act. We said the Budget Act has no meaning when it comes to actually spending money. We will just waive it. So there we are saving no money at all.

He also did not mention the bills we have been bringing up under the Suspension Calendar, which have been brought up. Big spending bills in violation of Democratic Caucus rules and also means that we do not have any chance to amend out the big spending because they are here under suspension.

Once again we are adding to deficits in a way in which this House cannot react in a responsible manner. The President ought to lay the blame right where it belongs, here in the House of Representatives. We are responsible for the deficits this country is piling up.

THE EQUAL ACCESS BILL

(Mr. SHAW asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, equal access has been voted on favorably by the majority of this House. Unfortunately, however, the two-thirds majority that was needed under the procedure which this matter was brought to us was not forthcoming.

I would urge you, Mr. Speaker, to bring this back to us now under regular order. The majority has spoken. Now it is time that the majority rule.

CONSIDERATION OF VOLUNTARY SCHOOL PRAYER, LINE ITEM VETO, BALANCED BUDGET AMENDMENTS AND CRIME CONTROL

(Mr. HUNTER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, at this time I would hope to offer unanimous-consent requests calling for consideration of amendments to permit voluntary school prayer, a balanced budget, line item veto, and legislation calling for the passage of the President's Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1983, H.R. 2151.

The Chair has ruled that in order to make these requests I must have the clearance of the majority and minority leaderships.

This request has been cleared by the minority leadership.

I would now yield to a spokesman from the majority leadership for appropriate clearance.

Mr. Speaker, I hear no response. That should make it clear to the American people who stands in the way of these four important issues, the Democratic leadership of this House.

EQUAL ACCESS LEGISLATION

(Mr. McEWEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. McEWEN. Mr. Speaker, in Minnesota a fourth grade student was reprimanded by her supervisor for bowing her head to pray before her meal. According to the assistant superintendent of the Boulder, Colo., schools, a group of two or more may not sit together for the purpose of spiritual or religious discussion. In Indianapolis students are not allowed to get into a car to be picked up at the end of the schoolday by a youth pastor or worker. In Philadelphia several students were reprimanded because they discussed their faith with one another. In Cincinnati a principal issued a statement that it is illegal to even mention God in the public schools.

Mr. Speaker, because there is such a great misunderstanding and confusion about student-initiated and student-run religious meetings, I believe it is time for us to consider equal access legislation, H.R. 5345. As was mentioned by previous speakers this morning, this has been approved by the House by nearly 2 to 1, and I believe it is time to be considered in a fashion that this majority can then affect the legislation of our country and enact this into law this year.

THE FAIR TAX ACT

(Mr. FAZIO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FAZIO. Mr. Speaker, tomorrow a Subcommittee of the Joint Economic Committee will hold a very important hearing on income tax reform and the Bradley-Gephardt fair tax plan, of which I am a cosponsor.

This hearing is important because our income tax system is not working well any more.

Mr. Speaker, it is time to restructure the tax system. We need a system that is simple to understand—currently, over half of all individual tax forms are filed with professional help.

We need a tax system that does not distort business investments—people should be encouraged to make productive investments, not encouraged to lose money just to lower their tax liability.

And, perhaps most of all, Mr. Speaker, we need a tax plan that is fair.

For all of these reasons, I have cosponsored "The Fair Tax Act." Under this plan, most individuals would pay a tax rate of 14 percent. And while many current deductions would be eliminated, some of the most popular and important ones, including those for home mortgage interest and charitable deductions, would be retained.

This legislation would revamp the tax law for individuals and corporations by the best means available: It would lower tax rates and broaden the tax base largely by eliminating most existing tax loopholes.

The Bradley-Gephardt tax plan calls for the kind of change that is needed to insure steady economic growth and to restore the element of fairness and simplicity to our system. The loss of confidence in today's tax laws costs the Treasury $100 billion a year in avoidance.

HARMON KILLEBREW DAY

Mr. FORD of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service be discharged from further consideration of the Senate joint resolution (S.J. Res. 285) to designate June 13, 1984, as "Harmon Killebrew Day," and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate joint resolution.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object—and I will not object—I would like to inform the House that the minority has no objection this legislation being considered.

Mr. Speaker, I have introduced companion legislation, House Joint Resolution 559, to designate June 13, 1984, as "Harmon Killebrew Day."

Killebrew was chosen for induction into the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame on January 11, 1984. He will be formally inducted into the Hall of Fame, located in Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 12.

Killebrew played for more than 17 full seasons, leading the league in home runs for 7 seasons and amassing 573 home runs—fifth among baseball's all-time home run leaders. As listed in the "Baseball Encyclopedia," Babe's homer percentage was 8.5, meaning that he hit $8\frac{1}{2}$ homers for every 100 official times up. In comparison the great Hank Aaron and Willie Mays are tied for 10th at 6.1. Harmon Killebrew ranks third with a percentage of 7 homers per 100 at bat.

Killebrew was discovered by former U.S. Senator Herman Welker of Idaho, who convinced the old Washington Senators to sign up the slugging youngster before his 18th birthday. When the Senators moved from Washington to Minneapolis, Harmon arrived as a second baseman, but was soon switched to third base, and then became the team's regular left fielder.

Since that time I have got to know Harmon Killebrew quite well. Harmon has participated in voluntary activities across this country, and especially in my home State of Idaho, to raise money for leukemia victims. Along with former Idaho Congressman Ralph Harding, Killebrew has established the Danny Thompson Leukemia Foundation to honor a former teammate who died of that disease at the age of 26. Of course, many of our colleagues here in this body have participated in that Danny Thompson event in Sun Valley on an annual basis. I certainly know the Speaker has been out there on many occasions to participate in that worthy event.

I think it is appropriate that the House honor tomorrow as an official day for Harmon Killebrew.

Mr. FORD of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. CRAIG. Further reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Michigan.

Mr. FORD of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, this date is essential for today because tomorrow is in fact the day. I am told by the Senator's office that they have some arrangement to get it to the President right away. I believe it was Senator McCLEURE from Idaho who introduced the bill over there. We had a similar bill introduced by the gentleman on this side, which the committee had not considered in time to take this action. That is why we are taking up the Senate bill.

I would simply like to say, Mr. Speaker, that both you and I have had the honor of participating with Harmon Killebrew and our former colleague Ralph Harding in their endeavors in Idaho. I see the gentleman from Minnesota standing. The money that is raised by this annual event is raised from people all over the country and goes to the Leukemia Research Foundation at the University of Minnesota, which is one of the most outstanding efforts to control this terrible disease presently operating in the country, and it certainly is a worthy cause. I think above and beyond the brilliant baseball career that will have him inducted into the Hall of Fame on August 12, Harmon Killebrew should have this honor for the constant effort he has made ever since watching this young fellow player die of this dreadful disease during the baseball season up there in Minnesota. He has worked year in and year out to raise money to research this so that it will not happen to others. I think that this country does itself proudly when it honors people of this kind.

I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. FRENZEL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. CRAIG. Further reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Minnesota.

(Mr. FRENZEL asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FRENZEL. Mr. Speaker, I endorse the resolution. Harmon Killebrew was a temporary resident of the district that I represent. For all of the Minnesota congressional delegation, I would say that we, and the people of our State, have the greatest honor, respect and affection for Harmon Killebrew.

Whatever his athletic talents were, and they were prodigious, they were exceeded by his other personal virtues. We are not aware of any person in organized sports who is more universally recognized as the perfect gentleman and just a fine all-around person than Harmon Killebrew. He is the epitome of a sports, a figure who millions of young baseball fans looked up to, and hoped to emulate.

Harmon Killebrew needs no flowery prose from us. His personal conduct on and off the field has already won him accolades beyond our meager abilities. Nevertheless, House Joint Resolution 559, is a little bit of frosting for his case, and ought to be promptly passed.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the Senate joint resolution, as follows:

S. J. RES. 285

Whereas Harmon Killebrew was named to Major League Baseball's Hall of Fame on January 10, 1984;

Whereas Harmon Killebrew was a member of eleven American League All-Star squads and was the first American League player elected at three positions—first and third bases and the outfield;

Whereas next to Babe Ruth, Harmon Killebrew is the most prolific home run hitter in American League history;

Whereas Harmon Killebrew had eight seasons of at least forty home runs and eight years of one hundred and ten runs batted in;

Whereas Harmon Killebrew was the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1969, when he hit forty-nine home runs, had one hundred and forty runs batted in, and had a fielding average of 0.975; and

Whereas Harmon Killebrew hit four home runs in one double header: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That June 13, 1984, is designate "Harmon Killebrew Day", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe that day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

The Senate joint resolution was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. FORD of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on the Senate joint resolution just passed.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

COUNSEL TO THE DIRECTOR MJH
SUBJECT: HARMON KILLEBREW DAY

Pursuant to Senate Joint Resolution 285, the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation which would designate June 13, 1984 as "Harmon Killebrew Day."

The proposed proclamation was prepared by this office.

The proposed proclamation has the approval of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

- - - - -

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

On August 12, 1984, Harmon Killebrew will be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. As a seventeen year old, Harmon Killebrew signed with the late Washington Senators and played with that franchise in the Nation's Capital and after its transfer to Minnesota. In an illustrious career, he hit 573 home runs, second only to Babe Ruth among all players in American League history. Harmon Killebrew was a member of the American League All-Star team on eleven occasions, and in 1969, he hit 49 home runs and batted in 140 runs and was named the American League's Most Valuable Player.

In honoring Harmon Killebrew, we recognize the accomplishments of the other baseball immortals enshrined in Cooperstown and the many contributions the sport has made to American culture and myth. Harmon Killebrew is the latest in a lengthy list of players who, in the words of Justice Harry Blackmun of the United States Supreme Court, "have sparked the diamond and its environs and that have provided tinder for recaptured thrills, for reminiscence and comparisons, and for conversation and anticipation . . . and all other happenings, habits, and superstitions about and around baseball that have made it the 'national pastime' or, depending upon the point of view, 'the great American tragedy.'"

The Congress, by Senate Joint Resolution 285, has designated requested the President to issue a proclamation in observance of this event.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim June 13, 1984, as Harmon Killebrew Day, and I call upon the people of the United States to observe that day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this day of June, in the year of our Lord
nineteen hundred and eighty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and eighth.

Discussion

Legislation to establish a Federal Labor Bureau, now known as the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), was enacted on June 27, 1884, with a mission for the Bureau to collect information on "the subject of labor, its relation to capital, the hours of labor, and the earnings of laboring men and women...".

The enrolled resolution recognizes and commends the exemplary service of BLS Administrators and employees over the last century. It notes that the BLS has pursued its responsibilities with absolute integrity and has established the highest standards of professional competence and commitment. S.J. Res. 278 also notes that during its century of service to government, business, labor, and the public, the BLS has produced indispensable data on the labor force and the economy, such as the unemployment rate and the consumer price index.

The resolution was passed by voice vote in both Houses.
