MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Remarks: Kennedy Space Center Picnic
at Cape Canaveral, Florida

Richard Darman has asked that comments on the above-referenced remarks be sent directly to Aram Bakshian by noon today. Two sets of remarks have been provided. Both focus on the successes of our space program. The first version announces that NASA will begin work on a space station as our next space priority; the second version omits this announcement. I have no legal objections to either version.

At the bottom of page 4 of both drafts, however, Neil Armstrong's famous words are rendered "...one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." It is my recollection that he actually said "one small step for a man, one giant leap for mankind," but the "a" was somewhat garbled in transmission. Without the "a," the phrase makes no sense. I recommend calling this to the attention of Bakshian.

SUBJECT: Proposed Executive Order Entitled

John G. Roberts
Office of Legal Counsel

Richard Darman has asked for our comments by September 6 on a proposed executive order to increase the size of the new Commission on Industrial Competitiveness from 25 to 30 members. The order has been approved by OMB and, as to form and legality, by the Office of Legal Counsel. OLC notes that recent regulations issued by the Committee Management Secretariat on Federal Advisory Committees provide that advisory committee membership should be limited to 25 unless it is determined that more members are needed for the committee's functions or to achieve balanced membership. Even if this regulation applies to Presidential advisory committees, Ted Olson has opined that the signing of the executive order constitutes the requisite determination.

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Draft GSA Bill to Amend Section 103 of the Presidential Recordings and Materials

Greg Jones of OMB has asked if we have any objection to GSA's proposal to amend the Presidential Recordings and Materials Preservation Act to eliminate the requirement that the Nixon files be maintained in the Washington area. The provision was originally enacted to prevent the feared dispersal of evidence of alleged Watergate transgressions. GSA no longer believes the restriction to be necessary, and unless it is removed, GSA cannot go forward with plans for the Nixon library at San Clemente.

OMB and Justice have no objection, although some unidentified marginalian has suggested making the first sentence consistent with the preamble of the bill, a sound suggestion. I see no relation between this bill and the pending questions concerning our possible review of the Nixon special files scheduled to be released to the public.

Melvin K. Najarian

The Department of Defense has forwarded to us a document found in its files, responsive to an FOIA request filed by Melvin K. Najarian, who asked for files relating to former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, George A. Sawyer. The document is a copy of Sawyer's response to our Personal Data Statement memorandum. I called Defense to determine the origin of that document, and was advised that Sawyer kept a copy in his own files. I see no basis for objecting to its release. We advise individuals that their responses to the PDS will be kept confidential, but we cannot be responsible for copies retained by the individuals themselves.

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS.

SUBJECT: Request for Tape of President
Discussing Bing Crosby

Some time ago I recommended that we advise Mr. Deaver's office that the President should decline to provide a tape of his remembrances of Bing Crosby, to be used on a syndicated radio program styled as a tribute to Crosby. I prepared a letter for your signature to the president of the radio production firm stating our "policy" of not involving the President in such commercial activity. You requested that I review precedent on the matter, including activities concerning Bob Hope and James Bond. I polled the other attorneys and the most I could determine was that the "policy" was as stated, though it was often honored in the breach. The results of the James Bond taping - including the airing of television commercials with excerpts from the taping - serve more as a reminder of the need to adhere more strictly to the policy than as precedent for departure from it. The President was of course involved in the Bob Hope special, aired by NBC.

I have revised the memorandum to Sittmann to note that while exceptions have been made, we generally discourage participation by the President in this sort of commercial activity. The proposed letter to the company president need not be changed. There is no reason to alert him to the fact that we have made exceptions to our policy in the past.

SUBJECT: Request for Tape of President
Discussing Bing Crosby

Attached is a proposed response to the correspondence requesting the President to participate in a commercial radio program honoring Bing Crosby. The response declines the request on the basis of our policy of avoiding involvement by the President in commercial activity. We have occasionally departed from this policy in the past, as for example when the President participated in a taping for Bob Hope's 80th birthday celebration, aired by NBC. That was an unusual case, however, and this does not seem to be of a similar stature. If Mr. Deaver considers this request an appropriate candidate for an exception, we can revisit the question. Otherwise, I will send the letter.

SUBJECT:

Request for Tape of President
Discussing Bing Crosby

Ted LeVan, President of the radio production company Narwood Productions, has written Jim Jenkins to request that the President provide a tape of remembrances concerning Bing Crosby. Narwood is producing a three-hour tribute to Crosby, to be aired Thanksgiving weekend on a network of 250 radio stations, and would like to include the President's recollections. Per Mr. Deaver's instructions, Bill Sittmann has asked for our recommendation.

The radio program is of course a commercial enterprise, and our standard policy is to avoid involving the President in such activity. I see no reason to depart from that policy in this instance. I have prepared a reply to LeVan for your signature, and an appropriate memorandum to Sittmann seeking his office's concurrence.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 6, 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Draft Legislation regarding National Productivity and Innovation Act of 1983

Richard Darman has asked for comments by September 8 on the above-referenced draft legislation, section-by-section analysis, and accompanying Presidential transmittal letter. The legislation emerged from the Cabinet Council on Commerce and Trade, and the letter was drafted by the Department of Justice.

Title II of the bill provides that joint research and development projects are not per se illegal under the antitrust laws, and limits recovery under those laws for conduct that is part of a joint R&D project to actual, rather than treble, damages. The damage limitation only applies if particulars of the joint R&D project have been reported to the FTC and the Attorney General. Title III provides that certain licensing arrangements are not per se violative of the antitrust laws, and limits damages as in Title II. Title IV specifies that certain arrangements in connection with patent or copyright licensing are not per se illegal, and Title V closes a loophole in the patent laws by providing that importers of products produced abroad by a protected process are liable for patent infringement.

The proposed Presidential letter reviews the significance of R&D to industrial competitiveness, reviews what we have done to aid R&D to date, and provides an overview of the legislation. The letter states that the bill will require courts to consider the procompetitive effects of joint R&D projects challenged under the antitrust laws. This is an accurate shorthand, since proscribing per se treatment means that the projects will be analyzed under the "rule of reason" approach, i.e., balancing procompetitive against anticompetitive effects.

I have no substantive objections.

With respect to your query, no move of the files, even if Congress passes this bill, is imminent. The San Clemente library project still has to be approved and the facility actually constructed before the Archivist can even consider moving the files. The bill is simply designed to remove an obvious legal impediment to consideration by Congress of the San Clemente library proposal. Enactment of the bill would not itself result in any movement of the files, and so there is no need for us to withhold our approval of the bill to ensure the geographic proximity of the files for any possible review in connection with the privilege questions.

Central Files reveals that Larry Smith is a pest who has been writing everyone in an unsuccessful effort to obtain a "photo opportunity." Jack Sparks, Chairman of the Board of Whirlpool, called John Stiner of Virginia Knauer's office to complain about a letter he had received from one Larry Smith. Sparks suggested that the letter be reviewed by our office, and Stiner forwarded it to me.

Smith's letter is extremely offensive and suggests Smith has exploitable "contacts" within the Administration, which he is willing to put to work for clients for $1,000 per day, plus expenses. As evidence of his clout, Smith appends a May 8, 1981, letter from Senator Laxalt to Mr. Deaver, advising that Justin Dart asked for a "photo opportunity" for Smith.

I do not know who Smith is, nor do I think it matters. I have prepared an appropriately stern letter to Smith, and one to Sparks advising him of our action.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS
SUBJECT: Joey Adams Foreword

You will recall that after determining that the proceeds from Joey Adams' forthcoming book on humor would go to the Actors Youth Fund, we advised Kathleen Osborne that our office would have no objection to the President writing a brief foreword to the book, pursuant to Mr. Adams' request and the President's expressed desire to comply with that request. Since I had contacted him in the course of reaching the foregoing conclusion, Adams sent a draft of the book to me and indicated that he wanted me to be his only point of contact in connection with the project. I recommend sending the book to Osborne for either routing to the speechwriters or special messages or the President's own drafting of a brief message.

SUBJECT: Joey Adams Foreword

On August 18, I advised you that our office had no objection to the President complying with Joey Adams' request that he write a brief foreward to Adams' forthcoming book on humor, the proceeds of which are to go to the Actors Youth Fund. Adams has now sent our office a draft of the book to facilitate preparation of the foreword. I am sending the draft to you so that it may be routed as appropriate to whomever will be working on this project. As I indicated in my earlier memorandum, our office should review a draft of the proposed foreword.

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING Orig. signed by FFF

SUBJECT: Request that President Write Foreword

You will recall that Joey Adams, President of The Actors Youth Fund, asked the President to write a foreword to his new book on the uses of humor. We advised that it would be inappropriate for the President to do so, in light of the White House policy of avoiding involvement in commercial ventures. The President thereupon inquired if Adams were doing the book for the benefit of The Actors Youth Fund. Mr. Adams has been out of the country, and only recently has been able to return our calls. He has now indicated that all of the proceeds of the book will in fact go to The Actors Youth Fund. Accordingly, we have no objection to the President writing a brief foreword to Mr. Adams' book, should he desire to do so. Our office, however, should review a draft of the proposed foreword.

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Request for Permission to Use
President's Poem "Time" in 1984 Edition of Anthology of Magazine Verse and Yearbook of American Poetry

Alan Pater, President of Monitor Book Company, has requested permission to reprint the President's poem, "Time," in the 1984 anthology of magazine verse published by Monitor. It took some time to locate the poem as it appeared in the Winter 1982 issue of the obscure magazine "Tendrill," the citation provided by Pater. That magazine identified the poem as reprinted from the newspaper, "Uncle Sam."

I see no reason to object to Monitor's contemplated reprinting of the President's poem. The poem is a private product of the President's, so it is technically not our call on whether to approve its use but the President's personal decision. I do not think it worth wasting the President's time to call this matter to his attention, however, and recommend that we simply advise Monitor that we have no objection. If you disagree, I will draft an appropriate memorandum for the President.

Dear Mr. Pater:

This is written in response to your letter to the President requesting permission to reprint his poem, "Time," in the 1984 edition of the Anthology of Magazine Verse and Yearbook of American Poetry. You indicated in your letter that the poem was originally published in the Winter 1982 issue of Tendrill magazine.

We have no objection to your contemplated reprinting of the poem. I would point out, however, that Tendrill indicates that "Time" was reprinted from the newspaper Uncle Sam.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Justice Department Views on S. 804,
the "Undercover Operations Act of 1983"

OMB has provided us with a copy of a proposed letter from Assistant Attorney General McConnell to Chairman Thurmond, generally objecting to S. 804. That bill, largely a reaction to Abscam, would circumscribe Justice undercover operations and expand the entrapment defense. The provisions as they would appear in 18 U.S.C., and Justice's views, are described below.

- 18 U.S.C. § 3801 would expressly authorize undercover operations and require the Attorney General to issue guidelines governing them. Justice notes several technical problems with this provision but registers no serious objection.
- 18 U.S.C. § 3802 would clarify the authority of undercover operations to use funds in running cover operations. Justice supports this provision.
- 18 U.S.C. § 3803 requires satisfaction of certain threshold requirements before an undercover operation may be commenced, including a highly restrictive "probable cause" standard for undercover investigations of "religious" or "political" organizations. Justice strenuously opposes these requirements.
- 18 U.S.C. § 3804 would expand the liability of the United States for tortious conduct with some nexus to an undercover operation, and is opposed by Justice on the ground that present remedies are adequate.
- 18 U.S.C. § 3805, which would require an annual report to Congress on undercover operations, is also opposed as burdensome and potentially disruptive of ongoing investigations.

A separate section of the bill would create a statutory entrapment defense far broader than that currently recognized by the courts. The bill would codify the "objective test" rejected by the Supreme Court in United States v. Russell, 423 U.S. 411 (1973), under which the jury would consider not the subjective predisposition of the defendant to commit the crime but whether the methods used by the government would make it more likely than not that a normally law-abiding citizen would commit a similar offense. Justice opposes this radical departure from existing law, noting that it would simply provide a loophole for criminals.

I have no objection to the proposed letter.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS (

SUBJECT: Seal Inquiry

You referred a call from State Representative, Tom Riner, to me. Riner stated that the Kentucky Legislature wanted to use the Presidential Seal, absent the banner describing the seal as such, in a display along with the national motto. (Pursuant to 36 U.S.C. § 186, the national motto is "In God we trust.") I suggested to Riner that it would be more appropriate to use the Great Seal for such a display. He accepted the suggestion, and asked for a copy of the Great Seal. The attached letter, for your signature, provides Riner with a copy, and reminds him, as I did by telephone, of the proscriptions contained in 18 U.S.C. § 713(a). Representative Riner indicated that prompt action would be appreciated.

Dear Mr. Riner:

Pursuant to your conversation with John Roberts of my staff, please find enclosed a color print of the Great Seal of the United States. It is our understanding that the Seal will be used by the Legislature in an appropriate display, along with an inscription of the national motto. As Mr. Roberts advised you, it would be more appropriate to use the Great Seal than the Seal of the President for such display purposes.

I have also taken the liberty of enclosing a copy of the statutory provision, 18 U.S.C. § 713(a), governing use of the Great Seal. If we may be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

With best wishes,

SUBJECT: Presidential Address: Annual Meeting of National Association of Towns and

Richard Darman asked that comments on the above-referenced remarks be sent directly to Ben Elliott by noon today. The remarks reaffirm the President's commitment to local government and reducing the role of federal government, and review Administration initiatives in the areas of federalism and the economy.

In the third paragraph on page 9, the President reaffirms his support of "legislation that provides for a member nominated by your organization to be placed on the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations." The format for appointments to the Commission from other groups, such as the Council of State Governments or National League of Cities, is for the President to appoint a specified number of individuals from larger lists submitted by those groups. See 42 U.S.C. § 4273. The phrasing used in the speech is thus acceptable, assuming the nominee of the National Association of Towns would be "placed" on the Commission by the President, rather than by the Association itself. This is all that is envisioned by the Association, which simply wants equal treatment with states, cities, and counties.

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Civil Aeronautics Board Decision in Tower Air, Inc.

Richard Darman's office has asked for comments as soon as possible on the above-referenced CAB decision, which was submitted for Presidential review as required by § 801(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, 49 U.S.C. § 1461(a). Under this section, the President may disapprove, solely on the basis of foreign relations or national defense considerations, CAB actions involving either foreign air carriers or domestic carriers involved in foreign air transportation. If the President wishes to disapprove such CAB actions, he must do so within sixty days of submission (in this case, by October 28).

The order here has been reviewed by the appropriate departments and agencies, following the procedures established by Executive Order No. 11920 (1976). OMB recommends that the President not disapprove, and reports that the NSC and the Departments of State, Defense, Justice and Transportation have not identified any foreign relations or national defense reasons for disapproval. Since this order involves a domestic carrier, judicial review is theoretically available, and the proposed letter from the President to the CAB Chairman prepared by OMB includes the standard sentence designed to preserve availability of judicial review.

The order authorizes specified service by Tower Air on a New York-Brussels-Tel Aviv route.

A memorandum for Darman is attached for your review and signature.
