Sorry to be so late in responding to your welcome note. I'm sure you can imagine what the past few months have been like.

Anyway, we're settled in - sort of. It's a big move for Californians as I'm sure you know well.

Berg and Carol Benson were here for the Inaugural festivities and I had lunch with Eric Grube before we left for the East.

Let us know when you're going to be in Washington and I'll give you a tour of the White House.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mike Deaver
FROM: Lyn Nofziger

It is generally agreed that Nancy, as First Lady, is going to be a target for some of the women who write about society and social figures in Washington, D. C.

It seems to me that one way to minimize this is to begin to get her actively engaged in some charity-type activities. Thoughts include new activity in the Foster Grandparents organization, moving into the area of alcohol and drug abuse of whatever. But I do think that the quicker she is seen as a concerned and caring First Lady the quicker we'll be able to minimize the attacks on her that everybody is positive are coming.

Dear Kay:

I was pleasantly surprised to receive your letter. After a few days in Washington, D.C. it does seem a long time ago since I was hired as Executive Director of the Santa Clara County Republican Central Committee. In retrospect, they were fun-filled, carefree days as compared to the awesome responsibility of my new position.

I have sent your request for photos on to the Press Section with the request that they do whatever they can to provide the photos you need.

Thanks again, Kay, for taking the time to write.

FROM: JOE HOLMES

A.C. Lyles has called me about the following:

1. Roy Rogers and Dale Evans are being saluted for fifty years in show business. The folks putting it together would like a message, or certificate from the President. I can take care of this if you approve.
2. Neil Reagan referred Ralph Edwards (This is Your Life) to A.C. for RR to sign a release allowing use of old RR footage. Apparently, RR substituted for Edwards on two This is Your Life segments. Actually they could use the footage without a signed release. I suggest we ask A.C. to make certain the footage is in good taste and simply give them a verbal release.
3. A.C. also indicated he is anxious to do the First Lady gown story which he has discussed with you. If it has been approved by you and Mrs. R., do you want me to coordinate?

Dear Brad:

I'm sorry to be so late in responding to the nice note you sent me with your parents.

It's very exciting and busy and Amanda and Blair begin school next week.

It's been busy for President Reagan too as these first nine days in office were very important.

I think the one thing I miss the most besides all of our friends is the Sunday School class. I hope you keep going so that when we get back - maybe I can start again.

Amanda and Blair were on the South Lawn of the White House for the welcome home to the hostages and were very excited with all the military, flags and music.

Thanks again and say hello to everyone.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 3, 1981

Dear Ted:

This letter concerns the estimate you provided Rex Scouten, dated January 7, 1981.

On behalf of the White House, I hereby approve your estimate for the West Hall Sitting Room, the First Family Bedroom, the First Lady's Dressing Room, the President's Study, and the East Hall Sitting Room. I authorize you to proceed with the necessary work.

Because the Congress has not yet appropriated sufficient funds for this project, however, I must caution you that I am not authorized to commit to the payment of any Federal funds. We intend promptly to seek the $50,000 customarily appropriated by the Congress for the refurbishment of an incoming First Family's residence. We will submit this appropriation request as part of our revised budget later this month. Because the request is both reasonable and consistent with past practice, and because it was included in the FY '81 Carter budget request, I would expect it to be approved.

In addition, we are taking specific steps to raise private funds for the improvement of the Residence. We will be doing this through the White House Historical Association, subject to acceptance by the appropriate government agency. Because the private quarters in the Residence have not been properly refurbished for over a decade, because the Residence clearly would benefit from the intended improvements, and because the benefit would accrue to the Government and to future Presidents, as well as the incumbent, I feel sure that the solicitation through the Historical Association will be fully successful. In this regard, I am particularly encouraged by preliminary conversations I have had with interested donors.

The combination of the expected public appropriation and the private solicitation will, I am confident, be more than adequate to cover your estimate. As sufficient funds are made available to the White House, we would then disburse them on an appropriate basis.

I trust the foregoing is satisfactory to you, and I will be happy to discuss this matter further at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Michael K. Deaver
