Dear Mike Deaver,

Enclosed are copies of just a couple of articles which might give you an idea is to the unswerving and close loyalty my lead newspaper, The Jackson Journal (I have about a dozen which carry my articles regularly), still carries for our President.

I want to call your attention to the fact that West Tennessee never voted plurally for a Republican before we began boosting and backing Ronald Reagan. We are given credit for turning that part of the state Republican. I believe that we are gaining Republican support daily there. We hope to hold, or gain, Republican support this fall.

It occurred ^{be} to me that ~~it would really nice if you could cause our President to send a line or two of encouragement to my editor and publisher, who is a strong Reagan man. He is:~~

William Stone
Jackson Journal
Jackson, Tennessee 38301

Believe me, this will help the morale of our Republican supporters in that area.

I trust this suggestion is not too much.

Cordially (yours in the bond--Mu Chapter)

Dear Mr. Deaver,

I am sure you were surprised to find this letter on your desk and at such a time. Well, it is not political!

I happened to see your name in the press and this prompts me to write to you, for I have one son and his family and many in-laws in your country.

But I thought I would share with you these few topical poems which I have selected as apposite today. I hope that all will prove helpful at a time when there is so much to get us down, in all we see, hear and read daily.

As to myself, I am 75+ and ex-Bank of Ireland staff.

With my best wishes,

Honorable Michael Deaver

Dear Mike:

I very much enjoyed having had the opportunity to personally say hello to you this past week at the White House. I am enjoying my participation with the Presidential Advisory Committee on Small & Minority Businesses. You know that's not what I had in mind but it is always an honor to be able to serve our President in whichever capacity he feels appropriate.

Mike, the Chief of the Criminal Division in the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida is Martin Raskin. Marty was my law school roommate and is, and has been, a close friend for many years.

Marty has asked me in the past for an autographed picture of President Reagan. I had written some time ago to the White House but have not heard from them relative to this request. I would not be taking of your time personally to make this request, were it not for the fact that Marty is an indefatigable worker who puts in fifteen hours a day, seven days a week, to combat the serious crime problems that we have in South Florida.

I know how much he would treasure the President's picture and how deserving of it he is. Thank you in advance for considering this request.

Kindest personal regards,

AL CARDENAS

Dear Mike:

Just a note to let you know how much Fred and I enjoyed the Western Bar-B-Que in Santa Barbara earlier this month. Frances F innen had the time of her life too. I thought you'd get a kick out of this photo with Frances.

I think you look great in spite of all the pressure you must have. We all appreciate the job that you are doing for the boss. Washington, D.C. is not like California for raising children, but your sacrafice will pay off in the long run.

We know that you must have had something to do with our getting the invitation, so thanks very much for thinking of us. Also, here is a picture of me with the President that Craig took. What a thrill to see him again.

Take good care and let us know if you ever need any help.

Warmest personal regards,

Leslie

Dear Shirley:

March 24, 1982

Since Joe Canzeri left, I have no White House contact on supplying the mansion with new RCA VideoDiscs.

I know Mike Deaver has more momentous things on his mind these days but, sometime, when there is a lull, will you ask Mike if he'd like some new discs for the White House and Camp David.

And who should I check with on this? We'll be glad to fetch you a new catalog. If the players are not being used a lot, we'll understand. Joe told me one of the three was given to Lopez Portillo.

Other than that, how goes?

Yours,

Ray

Dear Mr. Deaver:

I am writing as the president of the Michigan Association of Nonpublic Schools (MANS), the state representative for the Council for American Private Education (CAPE), and the superintendent of Michigan District/Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod schools on behalf of tuition tax credit legislation.

It is my understanding that the White House Policy Planning Staff is currently developing a tuition tax credit plan for submission to the Cabinet Council.

I strongly encourage development and passage of tuition tax credit legislation at this time. The private sector and the general public have waited long for a tangible indication of the governments's affirming disposition to nonpublic (private) education and to parents who want to exercise choice in the educational marketplace.

I am concerned that the weight of other important priorities does not deter this administration from influencing the passage of a bill similar to the one introduced by Senator Packwood and Moynihan.

Your leadership in this issue can do much to stimulate all schooling in America.

Sincerely and respectfully,

Donald L. Kell

Dear Holmes:

Thank you for your letter forwarding the request from Mr. James W. Norris. I have been informed that Mr. Gregory Newell, Director of Presidential Scheduling, responded to Mr. Norris's request on March 8th.

It was suggested that he re-submit the invitation approximately ten to twelve weeks ahead of the event for a more definite answer.

Please be assured that the request will be given every consideration as the President's schedule is planned for that time of the year.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL K. DEAVER

Dear Mike:

I am sending along to you a letter that I received from Jim Norris, an insurance agent who resides in Santa Barbara. He mentions that he handles the President's insurance on the Ranch.

Mike, the letter is self-explanatory. They are requesting that the President be their keynote speaker at the independent insurance agents' convention this year on October 3rd at the Coronado Hotel.

Also enclosed is a letter that Mr. Norris has personally written to the President. I understand that this is asking for a commitment many months in advance. However, it is for you to make any consideration that you feel is appropriate.

Would you please acknowledge receipt of my letter, so that I might advise him that his request is under consideration.

Sincerely,

Holmes Tuttle

Dear Mike:

Thought you might like to have an extra copy of the Santa Barbara News-Press. Great publicity!

Also wanted to let you know that we are moving from our present home to the family home where I grew up here in Santa Barbara, and will be renting our Mission Canyon home. If you know of anyone there who is looking for a home to rent here, you might have them contact me. It is two bedroom, two bath, living room, dining room, etc.

Know you are doing a fine job - keep up the good work!

Cordially,

Dear Buzz:

It was nice hearing from you and being reminded of our previous visit.

Thanks for your concern and suggestion that the President do "Fireside Chats". This idea has been discussed in the White House for several weeks, and you'll be pleased to know that the President will begin doing a series of weekend radio talks. We feel it has merit. I have, however, taken the liberty of forwarding your letter to David Gergen, Assistant to the President for Communications, for his information.

I have checked into the mystery of the graduation picture you sent to the President and First Lady. The picture did arrive safely, and both were sorry that you did not receive a thank you letter. You may expect one in the near future.

With best wishes.

Dear Mike:

It has been a long time since I contacted you in your California office relative to setting up a meeting in Abilene, Texas, between you, Ron, Jack Cox and me. The occasion was Ron's visit to Abilene to campaign for a Republican Congressional candidate. Our meeting was relative to two books which Jack Cox wanted to write which he felt would be extremely helpful to Ron's securing the Republican Presidential nomination. One of the books had to do with Texas' and National politics, relative to an expose' on John Connally who, at that time, appeared to be a viable Presidential candidate. The other book was relative to an expose' of the Carter administration and their participation in the expulsion of Somoza. Jack did publish the book on Nicaragua and I believe you were furnished with a copy. It was also at this meeting that Jack reminded Ron how he had kept the Texas delegation, during the Republican convention in Miami, loyal to Ronald Reagan, despite the extreme pressures put on him by Nixon and John Tower. It also offered me a chance to visit with Ron since Ron, Jr. and my oldest son, Kyle, had gone through junior high and high school together and graduated in the same class from Harvard School. Ron gave the commencement address.

All of this is a background to our past fleeting association with the hope that two requests might receive your personal attention. First, of all, I want to urge, as strongly as possible, that Ron give serious consideration to commencing a regular series of what President Roosevelt called his " Fireside Chats ". I think these should be conducted at least monthly, with an emphasis on only two or three major problems confronting the administration. This could help eliminate a lot of confusion by not cramming too much into one "sitting". I know that the strong support among the American people still exists for Ron's programs, but he and this strong majority are being inundated by the liberal media and the small, but extremely vocal minorities. The second request is a personal one. We had a graduation

Dear Mike:

Just a note to say two things. One, thank you again for giving me the opportunity of a lifetime flying on Air Force I with the greatest President in our nation's history. Secondly, to let you know how impressed I am with the work of Shirley Moore. Of course, I know that is not news to you but I just wanted to tell you. She is very dedicated and loyal to you and the President and it shows in the quality of her work.

Mike, thanks again. Let me know where I can be of assistance. Our hope is the Foundation will be able to generate the funds to make an impact in the market place, supporting the President, within the next few months.

Sincerely,

S. Jackson Faris
