Dear Mike:

The Commissioner of Social Security, the Honorable John A. Svahn, spoke to the Channel City Club last Friday and did such an excellent job that I thought the White House should know about it.

He is young, good looking, very articulate and with an excellent sense of humor. I have heard nothing but the highest praise for his appearance here.

With best personal regards.

Dear Derek:

I would very much like to have you come to Washington as a guest of the United States to discuss the logistics of the Economic Summit that we will be hosting in Williamsburg, Virginia next spring. Because of the smooth coordination of the Economic Summit that was held in Ottawa last year, I feel that your in-put would be most helpful.

If the timing is convenient for you we would like you to arrive in Washington the evening of October 17th and schedule the meeting for the 18th. Please contact Bill Sittmann (202/456-2861) of my staff and he will be happy to make the necessary arrangements.

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Thank you for your recent letter in support of President Reagan's proposed Constitutional Amendment to require a balanced Federal budget. I appreciate the time you have taken to inform me of your views.

As you may know, the Balanced Budget Amendment was recently brought to a vote on the floor of the House of Representatives where it failed to receive the two-thirds approval required for passage. You can be sure, however, that President Reagan will continue to make every effort to see that this amendment becomes part of the United States Constitution. As he stated shortly after the vote:

"The leadership in the House...(has) choked off the chances for a balanced budget amendment this year. We will fight on. -The American people are overwhelmingly with us and our numbers are growing. We can take heart in the fact that 236 Republicans and Democrats, a clear majority of the House, joined together in the bipartisan support of a balanced budget...We will submit our amendment again, and with the support of the people we will keep up the pressure until Congress makes an iron-clad commitment to bring spending in line with revenues. When the Congress busts the budget, it's the American people who are short-changed. This vote today makes clear who supports a balanced budget and who does not."

Again, thank you for writing.

Dear Sir:

I urge you, as one of President Reagan's top advisors, to give him your maximum support with the plan to call a special session of Congress this October to force a vote on the Balanced Budget/Tax Limitation Amendment.

President Reagan must be assured that a vast majority of Americans believe very strongly that this Amendment is the only way to balance the federal budget and guarantee a healthy economy for all of us.

Because of your close relationship with the President, I know that he looks to you for advice on these matters. I hope you will convey my strong feelings that we must have a special session before the November elections.

Dear Mr. Deaver -

— Hopefully - what I am reading in "Time" and the Newspapers - is TRUE - that you are planning to stay with the President

Also - that the people who are leaving are really leaving -

The first to go
should be David Stockman - not in January - but in November!

Stockman is responsible - for the lack of trust ^{of Mr. Reagan} in Wall Street -

The moment his
"chats" with "The Atlantic

monthy - "Came out." The President was "morally wounded" - He should have been fired immediately -

That, "I am also hopeful
James Baker and
Co. will go -

I think that that group - have made a Great Mistake - in making it seem that Mr. Reagan is in a contest with Congress

The President
should not be in that position -

Robert Dole is Running for President
at Mr. Reagan's expense and the best thing about

Robert Dole is his wife -

"All around" - The President has received terrible advice - from people who have only - their own interests - in mind -

Mrs. Reagan is absolutely right - in wanting you stay - but I think you should be compensated accordingly - to your needs. no matter - how much it costs.

I think too - that Mr. Hofzinger should be "back in the fold" - permanently - The President needs him!

Mr. Reagan is much too "trusting" of too many people - and he must be protected.

Sincerely
Suzanne H. Florman

President Reagan shares your concern for the issues of school prayer and abortion. He has sent to Congress a Constitutional amendment which would restore the right of students to engage in voluntary prayer in public schools and he has repeatedly emphasized his desire to have Congress enact legislation which would grant greater protection of the right to life of the unborn. I have taken the liberty of enclosing a recent speech where President Reagan discusses these and other issues. I hope that you will enjoy reading it.

Dear Mr. Deaver:

Please , Hopefully you as President Reagan top Adviser will encourage him to call a special session of Congress before election to force a vote on the BALANCE BUDGET.

Why all this heavy spending when we cannot afford it US POOR TAXPAYERS are really suffering, bailing out many many countries and big BANKS.

Mr Deaver am I stupid to be bitter and angry ??? I dearly love my country as we all do, I am deeply worried look at the domestic problems put on the back burner and far to long for instance last week ABORTION SCHOOL PRAYER.

God will not save our NATION if we continue to kill our unborn babies I do not want my tax money paying to kill them either but my hands are tied.

Lets Work With President Reagan ON These MAJOR ISSUES

I like the President decision on Israel pulling them out of Lebanon But why give them so much money ?? May God be with our BOYS over there, Please do your part to keep them safe, my heart aches for their love ones here in the states.

Respectfully yours
