THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 8, 1982

Dear Mr. Yanick:

Thank you for your letter. I know that President Reagan is as grateful for your support as I am.

Your desire to serve within the White House is certainly appreciated. However, since most staff positions are filled and since they are not subject to frequent change, I cannot be very encouraging.

As an alternative, you may want to contact the Office of Personnel Management to find out about other opportunities for Federal employment. The address is 1900 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20415.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

MICHAEL K. DEEVER

Dear Mr. Deaver,

I have been interested in politics all my life. I had the honor of personally meeting with former President Gerald Ford, I was able to attend former President Carter's inauguration and I was a press page at the 1980 Republican National Convention in Detroit.

I presently am serving on the Hartford Union High School Board of Education. This is my 5th try to hold public office.

I am the youngest member of the 5 member body, being 21 years of age.

As you can probably guess, my life time goal is to become the President of the United States.

I am extremely interested in helping President Reagan and his administration.

I would appreciate any efforts, by you, on my behalf, to help me realize this dream and goal of mine.

Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to read this and I hope you and your family have a happy holiday season.

Very truly yours,

Steven R. Yanick

Dear Mike:

The U.S. Small Business Administration sponsors a traveling exhibit called "Eureka" which celebrates the creativity and contribution of American small businesses and individual inventors to our quality of life.

I thought you might like to have a copy of the "Eureka" poster and program.

Sincerely,

James C. Sanders

Dear Mike:

I understand that ~~Leo Brady~~, who worked on my successful Senate campaign, met with Grey Terry on November 12, 1982, regarding his desire to join the ~~Presidential Advance Team~~ as a volunteer.

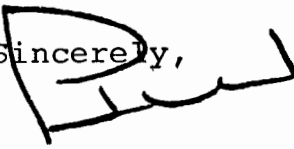

I first met Leo while he was working full-time for Marshall Coleman's 1981 gubernatorial campaign in Virginia. This year, Leo joined my campaign staff as a volunteer and eventually took two weeks leave from his job to work full-time on such projects as fund raising, advance work, and ballot security. Leo did a commendable job and contributed to our victory.

Leo Brady is a life-long Republican and a firm advocate of the President's policies. He has worked on numerous Republican campaigns over a period of more than two decades. I know him to be loyal, dedicated, articulate, well-organized, and politically astute. He presently holds a top secret clearance, and for a period of years he was employed at CIA headquarters in the logistical support field.

I highly recommend Leo Brady as a volunteer for the Presidential Advance Team. His dedication to the President, career experience, and political experience all qualify him for the position he seeks.

Thank you for your consideration, and please let me know if I can provide any additional information.

Sincerely,

Paul Tribble

Dear Joe,

Thank you for your letter recommending Mr. Donald Dotson for appointment as Chairman of the National Labor Relations Board.

You will be pleased to know that on November 22 the President announced his intention to nominate Donald Dotson to be a Member of the National Labor Relations Board for a term of five years expiring December 16, 1987.

Again, thank you for writing. Your recommendation of qualified persons to serve President Reagan is greatly appreciated.

Mr. Mike Deaver

Dear Mike:

I am writing to recommend Donald Dotson as the next Chairman of the National Labor Relations Board. As you know, Mr. Dotson has already been confirmed by the Senate for another position in this Administration so hopefully there would not be too much debate during a reconfirmation for this position. I sincerely feel that the big majority of the workers in this Country who do not belong to a labor union deserve a man with Mr. Dotson's credentials in this position. As you know, these are the people that elected President Reagan and are the ones who never threatened to stop supporting him because of a certain issue.

I respectfully request that Mr. Dotson be given every consideration for this position.

Look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Joe M. Rodgers

P. S. We badly need a final decision concerning the President's involvement with the 25th Anniversary of the Country Music Association. This is an outstanding opportunity for some charity and I think a good way for the President to recognize the importance of country music in this Country.

Dear Jim:

There is talk in the financial community about President Reagan visiting the American Stock Exchange to celebrate the opening of their new trading mezzanine on November 29. Such a visit would be harmful to our organization and would generate a considerable amount of ill will.

As you know, the American Stock Exchange has a very aggressive merchandizing effort attempting to persuade companies to leave our NASDAQ System and list their shares on the AMEX. Participation by the President in American Stock Exchange activities would, of course, be used in their attempts to recruit our companies. I don't believe that the New York Stock Exchange has ever received such a presidential blessing.

On a level playing field, the NASDAQ System has done quite well in its competition with the American Stock Exchange. Since 1972, our volume of shares traded has more than tripled, while volume on the AMEX has shown no growth. So far this year, NASDAQ share volume is 6,958,000,000 versus 1,110,000,000 for the American Stock Exchange. In a decade, we have grown from twice to well over six times their daily volume.

In every year since 1972, the number of issues listed on the American Stock Exchange has declined while our list of issues has grown considerably. Of the 3,400 companies included in NASDAQ, over 500 could qualify for a New York Stock Exchange listing and 1600 qualify for an American Stock Exchange listing. This compares with about 1550 companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange and 850 on the AMEX.

The President should not take sides in marketplace competition. If he is interested in communicating with officials of publicly held companies, our organization includes 50% more public corporations than the combined total of the New York and American Stock Exchanges.

Dear Mike,

I am sure that this letter will find you totally absorbed in the pressing requirements of your current position. Nevertheless, in the immediate aftermath of an election I wanted to remind you of the opportunities that exist whenever you find yourself no longer in public office.

With the experience of what unfolded for President Ford after he left office I can assure you that such opportunities are many, varied and lucrative. They include public speaking engagements, literary work, television and corporate activity. As a result of my association with the William Morris Agency as well as other organizations and individuals, ideas, proposals as well as specific services are available.

I know that, while in office, little time or thought is given to what one will do after leaving government service. Having been through a number of hard lessons and delicate situations over the last six years my associates and I can be uniquely helpful to people such as yourself. A balance must be struck between earnings, maintaining control and dignity of activities. That balance is essential in emphasizing your previous service as well as providing for a return to public life. This is the type of representation that I suggest is not usually available via many existing agencies.

At this time, understandably you will just tuck this letter away. I wish you all the best in your present endeavors and hope that this would not become a subject of concern until 1988.

Best wishes,

Bob

Mike,

Hope all is going well. You won't need any help afterwards but if I can ever do anything now or in the future let me know.
