Clear Audrey

It was so nice getting your note.
I'm happy you and Bob are doing well and still "at it" for the party.
I have other friends who have written to me about your new Congressman. I look forward to meeting him. We're doing fine - very busy and looking forward to the holidays. Give my best to Jail.
Sincerely, Mike

AUDREY FISHER

Dear Carolyn and Mike,
Since I do not have a residence
address for you I am sending this to The White House.

Mike, I presume
you are aware that our 12th District Congressional Candidate,
Ed Ischaan, was elected.
We won with 63% of the vote against a Democrat and a Libertarian. I felt rewarded for all the time and effort I put into the campaign.

Ed and I have not agreed on every issue
but I do believe he will represent the district well and will be an asset in Congress. Let me know if I can ever give you any information you might need.

I think of you and your family often and hope that one day you will be back in California.

Affectionately,

Audrey

MICHAEL K. DEEVER

I'll still keep trying for the Shapiro.

In the meantime - a very Merry Christmas - Cheers. Mike

Dear Mike:

I had hoped that Ike Shapiro might have been considered for the position as Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs, but I understand that Mr. Wolfowitz has been nominated. Because Ike is so outstanding, I would like to reiterate an earlier suggestion that I made to you. If Mike Mansfield were to leave his position in Tokyo, Ike would be the ideal representative of the United States and a great credit to the Administration. I have enclosed a copy of his resume.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Barry:

I wish to thank you and the District of Columbia Inaugural Committee for your kind invitation to join you in the ceremonies and festivities marking your Inauguration as Mayor of the District of Columbia, the inauguration of David Clark as Chairman of the City Council, and Betty Ann Kane, Hilda Mason, Frank Smith, Jr., Polly Shackleton, William Spaulding, and Nadine Winter as Council Members.

Although I regret that I cannot be with you in person, each of you has my congratulations for your success during the elections this past fall. I wish you, both individually and collectively, the same degree of success in meeting the challenges and realizing the opportunities which lie ahead for our Nation's Capital.

SUBJECT: YOUR NOTE REGARDING THE ATTACHED INVITATION TO THE PUBLIC SWEARING-IN CEREMONY OF D.C. MAYOR MARION
BARRY AND COUNCIL MEMBERS

Although I will be in California, both Thad Garrett and Steve Rhodes will attend the District of Columbia swearing-in ceremony. In my view, this would be sufficient representation from the Administration unless you find it convenient from a personal standpoint.

I have attached a suggested "regrets" letter to those being sworn in.

FROM: THOMAS C. REED TCR
SUBJECT: "Atoms: New and Old, the Life and Times of Ernest O. Lawrence"

Per your request, I reviewed the subject film on 27 December.

It is accurate, not particularly controversial, and well done.
I doubt that it is of much entertainment value outside the "Big Science" community, however.

A letter from the President to Rodger Batzel is attached at Tab A. Attached at Tab B is the incoming correspondence regarding the film.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Dear Dr. Batzel:

During the holidays, we had a chance to see your biography of Ernest O. Lawrence, "Atoms: New and Old, the Life of Ernest O. Lawrence."

It's a very professional job -- a detailed and thorough biography of a great man who played a major role in building the reputation of the Physics Department at U.C. Berkeley to the pre-eminence it enjoys today.

"Atoms: New and Old, the Life of Ernest O. Lawrence" is an important historical document, both enlightening and entertaining on a very complex subject. Thanks for letting us see it.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Osborne:

We have prepared a film on the life and times of Ernest O. Lawrence which we believe will be of special interest to the President. We are forwarding it herewith.

At the suggestion of Tom Reed I am sending it to you together with a forwarding letter to the President. Tom would like to see the film when it gets to Washington. It occurs to me that there are a number of Californians in Washington including Attorney General Smith, Ambassador Wilson and Judge Clark who know of Professor Lawrence's work and might enjoy seeing the film with the President. As noted in the letter, it gives an interesting and instructive backward look into a great period in the history of American science and its service to the country.

Thank you in advance for your attention in this matter. I realize Mr. Reagan has a tremendously busy schedule but I thought that the film would provide a worthwhile break for the President.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

In connection with the 30th anniversary of the founding of the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory we have made a short (approximately one hour) film, "Atoms: New and Old, The Life and Times of Ernest O. Lawrence."

The film shows Professor Lawrence, the people he knew, the places where he worked, the things he did. It takes us back to important and stirring times in the life of this country and of the world. Professor Lawrence was a great pioneer in dealing with the problems of modern science and in placing science when needed in the service of the country. We continue to derive inspiration from his example.

I realize that your day allows for little recreation. This film, and its showing of the life and times of a great American and a great Californian, will, I hope, provide a pleasant hour in your busy schedule.

With very best wishes for continued success in your leadership,

Respectfully yours,
