Dear Mike:

On Wednesday afternoon, September 28, I will be holding a PAC fundraiser at Basil's. I would be very honored if you would permit me to use your name as a co-host on the invitation. Your name will be a strong draw for what I hope will be a winning cause.

I will be following-up with a phone call next week to touch base.

Many thanks,

Dear Mr. Deaver,

May I express my sincere gratitude for the ^{out-}standing presentation you made on 24 June at the White House to the President's Key Supporters. I felt honored to be listed among them.

Our particular area of the political spectrum is the ethnic vote. As Chairman of the National Republican Heritage Groups Council I assure you that our Council with member organizations in twenty-six states as well as thirty-six nationality federations shall play a meaningful role in the forthcoming campaign.

Our office at the RNC shall be in touch with you so that I may visit you during one of my frequent trips to Washington (from New York) in order to pay our organization's respects as well as to discuss the campaign.

Thank you for your continued service to the Nation.

Sincerely,

Dear Paula:

Sorry you missed our meeting yesterday. We made some progress on child support enforcement reform and had a good discussion on pension reform.

I'm leaving tomorrow for the Far East for two weeks so I wanted to set up another meeting for August 3 at 10:00 a.m. -- the day after I return. I know this backs up against the August recess, but I think it's important that we discuss a couple more items before you leave town.

I've asked Pam Turner to follow-up with you on the next meeting.

Dear Bruce:

I've checked into Jerry Patterson's appointment. It appears Jerry was appointed as an ex officio member of the Commission on Security and Economic Assistance secretarial Board only by virtue of his capacity as Chairman of a relevant Congressional committee, namely the Subcommittee on International Development Institutions and Finance. Under the aegis of AID and State, it is a six month "independent working group". The NSC cleared the 43 members. There are 18 other ex officio members of Congress on this bipartisan Board, including Pell, Inouye, Zablocki, and Helms, Kasten, and Percy.

Not a very good answer but the only one now.

Dear Mike:

Attached please find an ~~invitation from Reverend~~ Michael J. Kirwin for President Reagan to be main speaker at ~~a dinner celebration that will commemorate the 1950th~~ anniversary of the Church's foundation at a dinner on ~~November 6,~~ in Wilkes-Barre. Reverend Kirwin is organizing an outstanding event that would be worthy of President Reagan's attendance.

The President would have an excellent forum of 800 outstanding and distinguished members of the Catholic community in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Reverend Kirwin has an outstanding reputation and I know this event will be a tremendous success.

Thank you in advance for your consideration. I hope that you will give this invitation every consideration. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I have read your letter of July 7 and reviewed the requests contained therein. While the requests pertain to events which took place almost three years ago, I have refreshed my recollection to the best extent possible.

Based upon that recollection, a search of any files I might have from that period and a review of documents sent to you by other Administration officials in response to these same or similar questions, I wish to advise you that to the best of my knowledge and recollection at no time during the period involved did I have any direct or indirect knowledge of, or any participation whatever in, any transactions involving material prepared for President Carter. Re: The President's Re-election Campaign
Official Staff Travel

Dear Mr. Deaver:

The next sixteen months will be a critical period for our President. The success of his re-election campaign will rely heavily upon the effective coordination of campaign personnel. Timely, accurate travel arrangements are essential to positioning the proper individuals in the right place at the most opportune moment.

We at Van Slycke & Reeside (VS&R) are eager to provide our expertise for the re-election of President Reagan. We can offer both the experience and the comprehensive services the campaign will require. VS&R has been recognized by the American Society of Travel Agents for its professional integrity and leadership role in the industry.

Among the numerous services and benefits we propose to provide, VS&R offers to staff a 24-hour a day, 7-day a week reservation and ticketing center which can be accessed nationwide via toll free telephone lines.

I am eager to discuss your additional requirements and will call your office next week to determine when a meeting will be convenient.

Sincerely,

Frank L. Robinson
Account Executive
