*Also, - I assume Deaver received
memo to return
eagle - from Meyerkhoff -*

Happy May!

Fyi - This is the current status of on display items that Deaver & Sittman have in their possession. John said you've already sent a few things back - & they are not on report.

Porcelain horse - Do you want to keep?

Vase from Zhao - $125 - Do you want to display?

Vase from Zhao - $185 - Do you want to display?

(Since the two vases were apparently given at the same time, in the same presentation, neither of them can be kept - but either could be displayed)

MEMORANDUM FOR GAIL LEDWIG

FROM: JOHN E. HILBOLDT

SUBJECT: Moroccan Books

I have attached a copy of the entry in "Current Books in Print" upon which we and all commercial establishments base their prices. This is the derivation of the Islamic art books' value.

As a reminder, by law the Gift Unit is required to value items at their current retail value in the United States. Exchange rates, import duties, etc., often lead to misunderstandings by those presenting gifts to U.S. officials.

We will be glad to take the Islamic art books in person for another evaluation, if you wish to return them to us for such.
