The Hon. Michael K. Deaver
Assistant to the President
Deputy Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Deaver:

On behalf of the Armenian Assembly Summer Intern Program, I would like to request your participation in the "Capitol Ideas" visitation series we plan each year for our interns. Our purpose is to offer the students the opportunity to meet first-hand with government officials and other leaders at their offices and hold brief, informal exchanges on topics of both general concern and specific interest to Armenian-Americans. As the enclosed booklet describes, last year we met with six U.S. Senators and two ABC News anchorpersons.

We would be grateful if your schedule permitted you to take part in our program, which runs from June 13 to August 12. Of course, we would limit the number of participating interns as needed and would be happy to meet you at your office in Washington whenever it may be convenient, including before or after business hours.

The "Capitol Ideas" series is well-known among Armenian-Americans and receives a great deal of publicity throughout our community. It would be an honor for our students to have the opportunity to meet you personally and for our community in turn to become better acquainted with you as well.

Thank you for considering this request. I will take the liberty of contacting your office shortly to ascertain your availability.

Sincerely,

(Mr.) Laurens Ayvazian
Director

JAB
what are you doing?

Dear Mike:

On Thursday, June 16, 1983, President Reagan, Republican members of Congress, several well-known celebrities, and hundreds of conservatives from all over the nation will be gathering in Washington, D.C. (we will notify you of the location within the next few days) to pay tribute to Senator Jesse Helms. Our tentative itinerary calls for a reception and dinner, followed by an evening of dancing to Big Band music.

Mike, our guests and I would consider it an honor if you could join us. Your presence would mean a lot to Jesse and to the many other individuals who plan to attend in his honor.

I realize the demands made on your time are great, but I hope you will be able to set aside that evening to help us pay tribute to a truly great American.

Susan Stacy, at our Washington Congressional Club office, is helping coordinate this event. It would be helpful if you could have someone RSVP to her at (202) 783-6729 at your earliest convenience. If you need more information about the evening, feel free to give her a call.

It would mean a lot to have you with us on June 16th. I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

John

Dear Mike:

As I promised in my earlier note to you, enclosed is a formal invitation to the Tribute to Senator Helms on the evening of June 16th. You will find the particulars of the evening along with a partial listing of those Honored Guests who have agreed to come to pay tribute to Jesse Helms on that evening.

If you have already agreed to be with us that night, I want to thank you, knowing how much it will mean to Jesse. If you are still trying to work it into your schedule, perhaps having this additional information will allow you to join us for at least a part of the evening.

Again, if you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact Susan Stacy at (703) 783-6729.

Look forward to seeing you there!

Sincerely,

John
