Dear Mr. Haug:

Mr. Deaver has received your letter of July 16, 1984 and was pleased to hear from you.

He asked that I make arrangements for your friend, Ken Gimblin to tour the White House. I have secured a ticket for him for a tour on August 10 at 8:30 AM. The ticket can be picked up the day before the tour and arrangements for doing that can be made by calling me at 456-6475.

If there are any problems with these arrangements please have him call me.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mike:

Thanks so much for your help. The Hamendamis' are now over here visiting their relatives.

I hope you receive the Sacramento Union. There have been several excellent articles critical of the democratic ticket. Although things look bright for the President's re-election, I can't help but be nervous, and will be until after the election. I will once again be doing volunteer work for the ticket.

A good friend of mine, Ken Gimblin, will be going to Washington D.C. Friday August 10 with the Los Angeles Raiders for a night exhibition game against the Redskins. Would it be possible for him to get a V.I.P. tour of the White House that morning? I teach with him and he also is sports director for a radio station here (KWOD 106) and does sports news part time for channel 40. He interviewed the President when he was governor and is a staunch supporter of the President.

Please let me know if this is possible. Thanks so much, Mike, and I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Bruce Haug

P.S. Last Friday (July 13) Ken and I went to beautiful Carmel and ate at the Highlands Inn overlooking the Pacific. It compares to Santa Barbara as it is extremely beautiful. The food was excellent, and very reasonable. A gracious host, Kathy Clark, is there to assist. You will love it, I guarantee.

MEMORANDUM FOR: MICHAEL K. DEEVER

FROM: JOHN F. W. ROGERS
ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

SUBJECT: CANCELLATION OF WHITE HOUSE TOURS

On any given day (Tuesday - Saturday) somewhere between 8,000 and 10,000 people go through the White House on tour. Of this number, almost 2,000 have confirmed reservations for Congressional, VIP, or Group tours. Thus, any event which closes the White House to tours, results in 8,000 - 10,000 disappointed people. The number of days the Residence is open for tours has already dropped about 10 percent in the first five months of this year, compared to the same period last year. While this decrease is a matter for concern, it is not really the major problem.

The real problem occurs when the Residence is closed to tours on short notice. This means that the 2,000 or so people who have reserved tours must be contacted and informed of the closing. During the busy time of year, they can rarely be accommodated at another time. When the notice of the closing is very short, it is often impossible to contact the people and they must be turned away at the gate.

While I realize that it is not possible to avoid last minute events which close the Residence to tours, I hope that you will weigh the effects of the closing when measuring the benefits of that particular event. The more advance notice that is given, the less of a problem there will be.

I know you get hit from all sides about the President's schedule and I don't mean to add to your burdens, but I felt I should let you know.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mike:

So glad to see you occasionally on T. V. and read about you in the local News Press; although, we all agree the newsmen appear to be out in left field.

I thought the President's speech last evening was superb. His precise and factual narrative of events, explaining the S. American situation so clearly, must have had every citizen applauding his effort to make this threatening problem more understandable.

After a two weeks trip through the Southeast, my friend Joy and I will be in Washington at the Mayflower for three days, commencing June 4th. We would like to see the White House, but Lagomarsino's Office here has everything booked until the middle of July. Is there any way that you could arrange a pass for us?

I do hate to bother you with this small matter when you have a million things on your mind, but I would be ever so grateful for an assist. I will try to call you on May 19th A.M., on our stop-over in Washington before proceeding South.

Sincerely,

Jean Strahorn

Dear Mike:

It's been many years since we've had the chance to speak together;
however, I enjoy reading about you in the news.

Your schedule must be hectic, still, I shall appreciate your taking the time to arrange a special White House tour for my wife Anne and our two children, Grace 14 and John 11. We will be arriving in Washington D.C., Friday evening June 14, 1984 and will be staying at the Hyatt Regency Capitol Hill through June 18th. This will be the first leg of our Freedom Trail Tour and the first trip East for my children.

It would be great to say hello during our visit, but I recognize your time constraints.

I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Cordially,

Dear Mike,

How is life in the Capitol?
Gil and I are trusting that you will be able to hold things together there for another 4 years since we don't seem to be able to get back there for a visit during this term.

Gil is doing great. He is a trim 150 lbs and walks 4 1/2 miles every day. He and Mayyocco played golf last week and then dropped in to harass Buggy Crain who lives around the corner from us.
It would be great to have you come by for some R & R. We have plenty of room since the 2 oldest are away at College.

Say, is it possible that there are better tours than those available to the general public?

Some very close friends are going to be in D.C. June 14-26 and hope to see everything possible.
There will be 4 of them. I hate to see them standing in long lines if it isn't necessary.

Oh, do what you can to keep the peace in the Middle East next month. Gil & I will be in Israel for 2 weeks in May.

We'd love to see you. Life in Pleasanton is good. Come and enjoy it with us.

God bless you,
Eutelia & Gil
