Dear Dr Bledsoe,

On behalf of my two colleagues and myself, may I express our gratitude for the time you spent with us during our recent visit to Washington. It was most useful.

As you know, the work of our Task Force is concentrated on counter terrorism within Canada, and the problems of providing a suitably coordinated response. I am especially grateful for having had the opportunity to meet with you and to learn of your approach to resolving the difficulties of managing and coordinating the counter-terrorism infrastructure. The points you brought out during our discussion were particularly relevant to circumstances we encounter in Canada. I was very impressed by your knowledge and understanding of our Canadian situation.

Thank you for your friendly reception and the forthright comments you so generously shared with us. We are indeed wiser for the experience.

Warmest regards.
