THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 31, 1981

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Hanging in my office are two gorgeous paintings of ducks. They are entitled "Pintails" and "Redheads". Both paintings have received excellent comments. I thank you very much for the use of these paintings. They will hang in Room 424 of the Old Executive Office Building of the White House complex.

For protection of ownership, there has been a sticker attached to the back of each painting stating that you have graciously loaned the paintings to us.

I sincerely thank you and I look forward to having the opportunity to express my appreciation in person.

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Senior Policy Advisor

Dear Senator Johnston:

Thank you for your letter of June 24, which has been forwarded to me. It was indeed kind of you to endorse my candidacy for the position of Adviser for Drug Policy.

I am now serving as Senior Policy Adviser for Drug Policy. I would like to meet with you at your earliest convenience after the Congress reconvenes on September 9. My secretary will call your office sometime after that date to make the necessary arrangements.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
Senior Policy Adviser
for Drug Policy

The Honorable J. Bennett Johnston
United States Senate
