Dear Mr. Smith:

Thank you for your kind letter. I really appreciated the congratulations and your generous expression of support.

Since we will not be publishing documents per se, we are sending your address to the National Institute on Drug Abuse which has a Public Affairs Office to handle publication requests. Of course, should something develop which we feel would be of specific interest to you, we will be glad to send it along.

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.

Dear Dr. Turner:

Congratulations on your appointment as a senior policy advisor on drug abuse matters.

We are in the process of developing a major newsletter that will attempt to regularly and concisely "cover the waterfront" (so to speak) on what's being done--or not done--to deal with dope peddling.

It would be greatly appreciated if we could be placed on your mailing list for periodic news releases, report summaries, announcements, executive orders, etc. The complete address is:

Mr. George Smith
Editor, Insurance Field Co.
P.O. Box 500
Hawkinsville, GA 31036

It was a pleasure to personally wire the White House in support of your appointment and I know you will provide a much-needed perspective and dimension to drug abuse deliberations in our nation's capitol.

Sincerely,

George V.R. Smith
Editor, Insurance Field Co.

① Send note thanking for wires and support
② since we will not be publishing document pause we are sending her address to NE DA. If we do have something to send we will sure include her.

Dear Dr. Steed:

Thanks for the notice of the 1982 World Congress for the Prevention of Alcoholism and Drug Dependency in Kenya, August 29-September 2, 1982.

When I committed to this meeting, I assumed I would be in Mississippi to use funds available to me. However, the situation has changed. I cannot give commitment prior to knowing if outside funds are available and how this would fit within our policy.

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.

Dear Dr. Stelzer:

Enclosed you will find a xerox copy of a letter I received from Mr. A. Calderbank of ICI in England. Apparently, Mr. Calderbank misinterpreted our original request. Let me bring you up-to-date.

Dr. Michael Rose, who happens to be a friend of mine, was contacted regarding information on paraquat. Michael has apparently been lost by ICI or reassigned and subsequently, I was referred to Dr. Smith and now subsequently to you. The issue of paraquat and its use in eradicating narcotic plants is of interest to me in my present position as well as in my last position. There seems to be misconceptions about paraquat all over the place in Washington. My concern is to get the LD-50 of paraquat orally, IV and, if you have it, through the smoking process. Other toxicological information would be of great use on paraquat.

I have read considerable papers on paraquat but sometimes the people writing those papers don't really understand the nature of what they are doing.

If you have a review article that will give us this information in a graphic presentation, I would be delighted to receive it. Certainly this office does not want to receive a box full of information which would be impossible for me to digest.

Your help would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.
