Dear Dr. Tennant:

Thank you so very much for your letter of July 20. Any suggestions you may have regarding the task ahead of us would be greatly appreciated.

You should have met Mr. Dan Leonard during the week in California. I am delighted to have Dan working with me. He will bring to the office a perspective that is totally different from any in the past.

When your travels bring you to our area, please stop by and visit with us.

Sincerely,

Carlton E. Turner, Ph.D.

Dr. Carlton Turner
White House Office of Drug Abuse Policies
The White House
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Dr. Turner:

Let me congratulate you on your recent appointment. From what I know about your credentials, I am confident that you will do a fine job and are extremely well qualified for the position.

Last week I participated in a DEA marijuana course in Monterey which used your video tapes in your absence. I want you to know that almost all of the persons attending the course remarked as to how you and I agreed on practically every aspect of marijuana. This occurred although I did not see your video tape. I am not surprised about this similarity of views since I have been well briefed about you by such persons as Peggy Mann.

If I may assist you in your endeavors, please feel free to call upon me. My drug abuse treatment programs are among the largest in California, and I conduct at least 12 or 15 research projects at all times. Fortunately, UCLA has found it to our mutual best advantage to have me only teach on a limited basis so I can concentrate on service and research efforts. In this capacity, I hope I can complement your efforts.

Again, let me congratulate you on your outstanding achievement.

Best regards,

Forest Tennant
