The U.S. Committee of the IISS and the Johns Hopkins Foreign Policy Institute cordially invite you to participate in a seminar that we are jointly sponsoring to examine the issues facing the U.S. and the Soviet Union as they prepare for the second Reagan-Gorbachev summit. Our purpose is to take an in-depth look at the political, policy and bureaucratic issues that must be resolved before the Soviet and American leaders meet later this year.

There obviously will be considerable emphasis on arms control questions but we intend to deal with other elements of the Soviet-American relationship, in particular such regional problems as Afghanistan, and their impact on the prospects for arms control and abatement of the military competition.

We are inviting a select group of current and former officials, scholars, journalists and others with special interest in Soviet-American relations to participate. We have asked Richard Perle, Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Policy, and Representative Les Aspin, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, to make opening presentations establishing the framework for our discussions. Harold Brown, Chairman of the Johns Hopkins Foreign Policy Institute, will act as moderator.

The seminar will be held Friday, February 7, at SAIS, ^{L-610} 1740 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W. Coffee will be available as of 9:45 a.m., and we will begin at 10:00 a.m. promptly. A light informal lunch will be served at 12:15, with the discussion scheduled to continue after lunch until 2:00 p.m.

Please RSVP to Maryllis Bartlett at 785-6816. We do hope that you can join us.

Dear Mr. President:

On behalf of Alaskans, it is my pleasure to invite you and Mr. Gorbachev of the Soviet Union to hold the American summer summit meeting in Fairbanks on the campus of the University of Alaska, where we have all the facilities necessary for a meeting that will be so significant to the entire world.

Our easily-accessible global location and our historical and cultural ties to Mr. Gorbachev's country make us a logical choice for such a meeting. Mr. Gorbachev could travel here in a few hours, and our time zone would make it possible for the people of both countries to receive live coverage of the events held in conjunction with the meeting.

We would be deeply honored to host this significant meeting, and I hope you will give us your utmost consideration. A similar invitation has been extended to Mr. Gorbachev.

Sincerely,

SCHEDULE PROPOSAL

WASHINGTON
January 23, 1986

TO: FREDERICK J. RYAN, JR., Director of
Presidential Appointments of Scheduling

FROM: Larry Speakes

REQUEST: For the President to meet with Vladimir Horowitz.

PURPOSE: An opportunity for the President to bid farewell to Mr. Horowitz as he returns to Russia for a forthcoming concert tour.

BACKGROUND: Mr. Horowitz, 81, left Russia in 1925 and had stated that he would never return to Russia -- that America is my home. Considered by many to be the world's preeminent pianist, he is scheduled to play his first concert on April 20 at the Bolshoi Theater. His second concert will be at Leningrad's Shostakovich Hall. The concerts are a result of the renewed cultural exchanges between the U.S. and the Soviet Union
arranged at the meeting in Geneva.

PREVIOUS PARTICIPATION: None.

DATE AND TIME: As soon as possible

DURATION: 15 minutes

LOCATION: Oval Office

PARTICIPANTS: The President
Vladimir Horowitz

OUTLINE OF EVENTS: Mr. Horowitz enters the Oval Office for discussion with the President. At conclusion of the visit, the President
presents him an appropriate memento.

REMARKS REQUIRED: To be prepared by Speechwriters

MEDIA COVERAGE: White House photographer

STATE DEPARTMENT SUGGESTED REPLY

18

Dear Dr. Camardese:

I am replying to your November 13 letter to President Reagan regarding his November 19-20 summit meeting in Geneva with Soviet General Secretary Gorbachev. We appreciate your comments as we move forward in our efforts to build the foundation for a more stable and constructive relationship with the Soviet Union.

The basis for this summit was set by the firm and realistic policies the President has pursued toward the Soviet Union. For 40 years, the behavior of the Soviet Union has complicated our hopes for peace and the growth of freedom. Through the reestablishment of our political, economic, and military strength and the reinvigoration of our alliances, we were able to establish a dialogue with the Soviet Union based on realism and strength.

The President called for a fresh start in U.S.-Soviet relations. We have now made that start. In Geneva, the two leaders had an intensive and frank examination of all the issues on our basic four-part agenda: arms control, regional issues, human rights, and bilateral questions. Each made clear where he stands and discussed areas of mistrust and suspicion. The joint statement issued at the end of the meeting frankly recognized that our systems and policies are vastly different. The competitive nature of our relationship will continue.

If we can be of assistance to you in this or any other matter, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

As you make ready to meet at the Summit with Mr. Gorbachev---Please:

1. Do not forget that he is Chief of the most evil empire known in history. I do not think you should have apologized for having spoken the truth---such as you did recently.
2. Insist continually that the ONLY thing to negotiate about is that ALL people be set free from communist tyranny.
3. Insist that the 8 resistance Nations be set Free.
4. Insist that the over 2000 Slave Labor Camps in Russia be closed.
5. Insist that the Russian people be free to emigrate.
6. Please have the WORLD'S Media present when you pose these questions.
7. Understand that it is more than foolhardy to try to be so diplomatically careful as not to offend the Soviets.
8. You are in a MOST dangerous situation in dealing with the Chief of the KGB devils.
9. TRUTH and ONE make the greatest Army.
10. The Greatest Sport as Teddy Roosevelt stated is to fight for the right.
11. Nothing should be on the negotiating table except the subject of Soviet Tyranny and HOW can Gorbachev earn himself a place in history by setting free the Russians and all the other millions of people under the tyranny of communism.

The whole world is suffering from a dearth of Spiritual Health.

Truth is found only in God and Eternal, Transcendent, Righteous, Spiritual Absolutes.

America has contributed considerably to this semi-chaos of materialistic Humanism by a coming to negotiate with atheists and communists and attempting to reason with their situation ethics. As a result we have progressively negotiated away 26 Countries to the communists over the past 40 years.

It is never too late to do the right thing and always too early to do the wrong one.
