Please return original to the Office of the Executive Clerk.

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

April 12, 1983.

- Whereas Anatoly Shcharansky, an eminent Soviet computer scientist, has been a leader of the Moscow Jewish community since 1973 when he first applied for and was denied permission to emigrate to Israel and is a founding member of the Moscow Helsinki Monitoring Group; and
- Whereas the Government of the Soviet Union has engaged in a systematic campaign of harassment and intimidation against Anatoly Shcharansky, culminating in his arrest in March 1977 on trumped-up charges of treason; and
- Whereas in July 1978, after sixteen months of being detained incommunicado, Anatoly Shcharansky was tried and sentenced to thirteen years of imprisonment; and
- Whereas since his conviction Anatoly Shcharansky has been subject to extremely harsh prison treatment, including isolation, severe cold, and inadequate food, sleep, and health care, resulting in a deterioration of his health; and
- Whereas on September 26, 1982, Anatoly Shcharansky began a hunger strike to protest the severe prison conditions which have further harmed his health; and
- Whereas Anatoly Shcharansky symbolizes the plight of many other Soviet Jews whose level of emigration is at its lowest point in a decade and who are increasingly harassed by Soviet authorities; and

Whereas by its treatment of Anatoly Shcharansky and others, the Soviet Union is violating its international obligations, including its obligations under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the Helsinki Final Act of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe; and

Whereas fifty other members of the Helsinki Monitoring Groups in Moscow, the Ukraine, Lithuania, Georgia, and Armenia are currently imprisoned or in internal exile and, since the beginning of the Madrid Meeting of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe which reviews compliance with the Helsinki Final Act, at least five hundred human rights activists have been arrested in the Soviet Union; and

Whereas the Madrid Meeting resumes its deliberations on April 19, 1983: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Representatives that—

- (1) the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics should immediately release Anatoly Shcharansky from prison and allow him to emigrate;
- (2) the President and the Secretary of State should, at every suitable opportunity and in the strongest terms, express to the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics the opposition of the United States to the imprisonment of Anatoly Shcharansky and other Helsinki Monitors;

- (3) all countries which are signatories to the Helsinki Final Act, including the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, should abide by their international commitments in the field of human rights, including complying fully with all provisions of the Helsinki Final Act; and
- (4) the United States delegation to the Madrid Meeting of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe should seek a balanced and substantive result from the Madrid Meeting which should include indications of improved implementation of the Helsinki Final Act's provisions, such as the release of Anatoly Shcharansky and other imprisoned Helsinki Monitors, as well as other steps toward compliance with obligations under the Final Act.

DECL: OADR

(N1

Dear Mrs. Shcharansky:

I am writing to you to reaffirm my continuing concern and support for your husband Anatoly. Your recent message, and numerous reports emanating from the Soviet Union, have indicated that his situation remains grave. We are worried about his health and the conditions of his confinement.

We have been closely following recent events concerning Anatoly. As you know, some recent reports have suggested that there have been changes in his situation. I would like to hope this means that favorable developments are underway. If so, they can only be welcome.

A few days ago I again reiterated my deep admiration for your husband. I want to assure you that my commitment to Anatoly's cause is unwavering, and that I remain willing to pursue every possible avenue to improve his situation and secure his freedom.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

Mrs. Avital Shcharansky
Sderot Herzl 34,
Kiryat Moshe,
Jerusalem, Israel.

SUGGESTED RESPONSE

Dear Avital:

I have been asked to respond to your letter of April 11 to the President, concerning U.S. efforts on behalf of Anatoly.

As President Reagan stated in his letter to you, he is firmly committed to Anatoly's cause. You are right in pointing out that Anatoly has struggled for the same high ideals and values as those upon which the United States was founded. This fact only enhances our admiration for him and our resolve to help him. All of us are determined to do everything possible to win Anatoly's release and reunion with you.

We must continue our nearly weekly meetings and phone calls.

We also will remain in closest touch with Anatoly's family in Moscow. As you know, there are some more hopeful signs, and we are pursuing the Soviet authorities with vigor and determination.

Let me assure you once again that the President's personal commitment and the efforts of the United States Government to free

Anatoly will not cease until that goal is accomplished.

Sincerely,

Mark Palmer

U.S.A.

Dear Mr. President,

I thank you for your letter of encouragement and the assurance that your commitment to secure my husband's freedom remains unwaivering and determined. The efforts of the free world on Anatoly's behalf are the fulfillment of a moral obligation to a fighter who has dedicated his life to the ideals of freedom and human dignity embodied in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, ideals which are at the salvation of all democracy. United States now and in the past has made the fight in defence of these principles which are the truest expression of the American spirit.

Your helping hand, Mr. President, is the hand of friendship and support proffered by one freedom fighter to another no less valiant, who has been captured in the common struggle.

Mr. Mark Palmer of the State Department has confirmed that concrete efforts are being made to effect Anatoly's release in accordance with those steps you and Mr. Schultz indicated would be taken in this direction. I am certain, Mr. President, that your personal involvement in these efforts would assure their success and would enable me to be reunited with my husband after these years of painful separation and anxiety. Your actions on Anatoly's behalf have written a chapter of honour in the history of the United States and are a testimony to your personal sense of justice and human values.

Sincerely yours,

fital Scharunsky

Resolution

I was informed by Charles Tyson that the first Schedule Proposal for a Presidential Signing Ceremony of the joint House-Senate Resolution (H.R. 178) honoring Dr. Sakharov on April 27 was disapproved. On that day, the President will be in New York until the late afternoon and has a speaking engagement in the evening.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK THE WHITE HOUSE

SITUATION ROUM

SUBJECT: Presidential Signing Ceremony for Sakharov Resolution

We understand that the organizers of Sakharov Day have been in touch with White House Science Adviser Keyworth to request a Presidential signing ceremony for the joint House-Senate resolution honoring Dr. Sakharov (H.J. 178). Congressional staffers we have contacted anticipate that the resolution will probably be passed by mid-April, in time for one of the main events honoring Sakharov, a National Academy of Sciences news conference on April 27 involving several Nobel Prize winners. The Sakharov Day organizers feel that a signing ceremony would give a big boost to their efforts, and increase the amount of attention that would be paid to the Academy's press conference.

We believe that Dr. Sakharov deserves and can use considerable support in his ongoing struggle with the Soviet authorities, and he and his wife Elena Bonner have let us know they would appreciate support on this occasion. At the same time, they would prefer to see private spokesmen take the lead over government figures. This fits well, we believe, with the President's preference for both firm principles and quiet diplomacy on human rights matters. Thus, we think that a Presidential signing ceremony would be appropriate in this case, provided it is conducted in a manner consonant with the Sakharovs' evident preference that government efforts not overshadow private efforts on their behalf.

We would appreciate any early word that may be forthcoming on the President's decision in this matter.

- THE SOVIET MINISTRY OF JUSTICE HAS DENIED THAT MINISTER TEREBILOV SAID IN STOCKHOLM THAT SAKHAROV WOULD "PROBABLY BE PERMITTED TO LEAVE" IF HE APPLIED TO DO SO. IN A STATEMENT TO REUTERS IN MOSCOW, A MINISTRY SPOKESMAN SAID THAT "SUCH A REQUEST WOULD BE DEALT WITH BY THE COMPETENT AUTHORITIES AND HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE MINISTRY" WHICH "WOULD MAKE NO ASSESSMENT OF ITS CHANCES OF SUCCESS." COMPETENT AUTHORITY IN SUCH A CASE IS THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR.
- ACCORDING TO MEDIA REPORTS, SWEDISH TELEVISION HAS REACTED WITH OUTRAGE TO THIS DENIAL AND IS STICKING BY ITS ORIGINAL REPORT OF TEREBILOV'S REMARKS, WHICH IT HAS RECORDED ON TAPE AND FILM. HOWEVER, THERE APPEARS TO BE A PROBLEM IN TRANSLATION INVOLVED. SWEDISH EMBASSY HERE HAS RECEIVED A FULL SWEDISH-LANGUAGE TEXT OF TEREBILOV'S REMARKS. THE OPERATIVE SENTENCE WAS TRANSLATED BY SWEDISH TELEVISION FROM THE ORIGINAL RUSSIAN TO READ, "I THINK THAT, IF HE ASKED, HE WOULD CERTAINLY BE PERMITTED TO LEAVE." THIS IS AN OVER-INTERPRETATION OF THE RUSSIAN WORD "NAVERNO," WHICH IN THIS CONTEXT WAS MORE LIKELY INTENDED BY TEREBILOV TO MEAN "PROBABLY." NEVERTHELESS, THE MINISTRY DENIAL IS SUCH AS TO COVER EITHER INTER-PRETATION. THEREFORE, IF NOTHING ELSE, THIS INCIDENT SHOULD REDUCE THE CREDIBILITY OF OFFICIAL SOVIET DENIALS YET ANOTHER NOTCH IN THE SWEDISH NATIONAL CONSCIOUSNESS.

4. OTHER INTERESTING WRINKLES APPEAR FROM THE FULL TEXT AVAILABLE TO THE SWEDISH EMBASSY. TEREBILOV IS QUOTED AS REFERRING TO A PHOTOGRAPH OF SAKHAROV HE HAD SEEN IN STOCKHOLM AND REMARKING THAT SAKHAROV LOOKED TO BE IN GOOD HEALTH. THIS IS AN OBVIOUS ATTEMPT TO COUNTER REPORTS IN THE WESTERN MEDIA OF SAKHAROV'S DECLINING CONDITION. THEN, AFTER NOTING THAT HE IS NOT PERSONALLY ACQUAINTED WITH SAKHAROV, TEREBILOV (ACCORDING TO THE SWEDISH TEXT) SAID, "FOR SOME TIME IT WAS INSISTENTLY SUGGESTED TO SAKHAROV THAT HE LEAVE THE SOVIET UNION. HE HAS NOT, ACCORDING TO MY INFORMATION, ASKED FOR PERMISSION TO LEAVE. I THINK THAT, IF HE ASKED, HE WOULD CERTAINLY (PROBABLY) BE PERMITTED TO LEAVE. "THIS IS AN EVEN MORE DUPLICITOUS STATEMENT THAN THAT CONCERNING SAKHAROV'S HEALTH, IMPLYING THAT THE IMPEDIMENT TO HIS EMIGRATION HAS BEEN SAKHAROV'S RATHER THAN THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT. BASED ON OUR CONVERSATIONS WITH MRS. BONNER THIS IS CLEARLY UNTRUE, BUT MAY INDICATE SOME KNOWLEDGE BY TEREBILOV OF A CHANGING ATTITUDE WITHIN THE SOVIET LEADERSHIP TOWARD THE DESIRABILITY OF LETTING, OR EVEN ENCOURAGING, SAKHAROV TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY. THE ONLY RELIABLE INDICATION OF THIS WOULD BE WHAT, IF ANYTHING, THE SAKHAROVS ARE BEING TOLD BY THE AUTHORITIES IN GORKIY, SOMETHING WHICH WE MAY LEARN AT THE TIME OF MRS. BONNER'S NEXT VISIT TO MOSCOW.

5. COMMENT: IT APPEARS THAT TEREBILOV OVERREACHED BOTH HIS OWN AUTHORITY AND SOVIET PUBLIC POSTURE IN HIS COMMMENTS IN STOCKHOLM IN MID-APRIL. HOWEVER, THE OFFICIAL DENIAL FROM THE JUSTICE MINISTRY DOES NOT PER SE MEAN THERE IS NO MOVEMENT ON THE SAKHAROV CASE. WE NOTE THAT QUIET INDICATIONS OF SOVIET FLEX-IBILITY HAVE APPEARED IN AUSTRIA RECENTLY (REF B). THE COMEDY OF ERRORS OVER TEREBILOV'S REMARKS INDICATES ONLY TWO RATHER OBVIOUS POINTS: ANY DECISION ON THE SAKHAROV CASE WILL COME FROM A MUCH HIGHER LEVEL THAN THE MINISTRY OF JUSTICE AND THE SOVIETS WANT TO CONDUCT THIS MATTER AWAY FROM THE SPOTLIGHT. WE BELIEVE THE MINISTRY "CLARIFICATION" SHOULD BE READ LITERALLY AND NOT AS A DEFINITIVE STATEMENT OF KREMLIN INTENTIONS TOWARD SAKHAROV. END COMMENT.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: Letter from Avital Shcharansky

Mrs. Shcharansky has written the President (Tab 1) to express her appreciation for his February 16 letter (Tab 2) confirming his commitment to aiding her husband Anatoly. The Department of State does not believe that another Presidential response is necessary. We recommend that EUR Deputy Assistant Secretary Mark Palmer, who has been Mrs. Shcharansky's principal contact at the Department, reply to her, using the suggested response at Tab 3.

SUGGESTED RESPONSE

Dear Avital:

I have been asked to respond to your letter of April 11 to the President, concerning U.S. efforts on behalf of Anatoly.

As President Reagan stated in his letter to you, he is firmly committed to Anatoly's cause. You are right in pointing out that Anatoly has struggled for the same high ideals and values as those upon which the United States was founded. This fact only enhances our admiration for him and our resolve to help him. All of us are determined to do everything possible to win Anatoly's release and reunion with you.

We must continue our nearly weekly meetings and phone calls.

We also will remain in closest touch with Anatoly's family in

Moscow. As you know, there are some more hopeful signs, and we are pursuing the Soviet authorities with vigor and determination.

Let me assure you once again that the President's personal commitment and the efforts of the United States Government to free

Anatoly will not cease until that goal is accomplished.

Sincerely,

Mark Palmer

Dear Mrs. Shcharansky:

I am writing to you to reaffirm my continuing concern and support for your husband Anatoly. Your recent message, and numerous reports emanating from the Soviet Union, have indicated that his situation remains grave. We are worried about his health and the conditions of his confinement.

We have been closely following recent events concerning Anatoly. As you know, some recent reports have suggested that there have been changes in his situation. I would like to hope this means that favorable developments are underway. If so, they can only be welcome.

A few days ago I again reiterated my deep admiration for your husband. I want to assure you that my commitment to Anatoly's cause is unwavering, and that I remain willing to pursue every possible avenue to improve his situation and secure his freedom.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

The President,

WASHINGTON D.C.
U.S.A.

Dear Mr. President,

I thank you for your letter of encouragement and the assurance that your commitment to secure my husband's freedom remains unwaivering and determined. The efforts of the free world on Anatoly's behalf are the fulfillment of a moral obligation to a fighter who has dedicated his life to the ideals of freedom and human dignity embodied in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, ideals which are at the salvation of all democracy. United States now and in the past has made the fight in defence of these principles which are the truest expression of the American spirit.

Your helping hand, Mr. President, is the hand of friendship and support proffered by one freedom fighter to another no less valiant, who has been captured in the common struggle.

Mr. Mark Palmer of the State Department has confirmed that concrete efforts are being made to effect Anatoly's release in accordance with those steps you and Mr. Schultz indicated would be taken in this direction. I am certain, Mr. President, that your personal involvement in these efforts would assure their success and would enable me to be reunited with my husband after these years of painful separation and anxiety. Your actions on Anatoly's behalf have written a chapter of honour in the history of the United States and are a testimony to your personal sense of justice and human values.

Sincerely yours,

Altal Schanaus ker

Avital Shcharansky has telephoned Jim Baker's office to request a meeting to discuss "new information on her husband's situation." Jim Cicconi, who received the call, has the impression, however, that she would be satisfied to meet with someone from the NSC.

Although I see no objection to Mr. Baker meeting with Mrs. Shcharansky, I believe it would be sufficient for me to meet with her, given the pressures on his schedule. Therefore, I would recommend that she be told that although Mr. Baker's calendar is full before her departure May 10, I would be available to discuss her husband's situation with her.

Recommendation

That Mrs. Shcharansky be offered a meeting with me in lieu of Mr. Baker.

Phone call from Mrs. Anatoly Scharansky

As we discussed earlier today, I received a phone call from Avital Scharansky, whose husband Anatoly has been persecuted and imprisoned in the Soviet Union. She will be in the U.S. until May 10, and has requested a meeting with Jim Baker to discuss new information on her husband's situation.

We would appreciate it if NSC could advise on whether such a meeting should be held. It is my impression that Mrs. Scharansky would probably be satisfied to meet with someone from NSC in lieu of Mr. Baker. If you wish to contact her directly, she can be reached at (212) 884-0930 or (212) 884-4617.

STRAIGHT WIRE - OR TELEX - MAY 7, 1984

TELEX: 429 439 FREEDOM

Mr. Ed Lozansky Freedom House 20 West 40th Street New York, New York 10018

Nancy and I are delighted to join all those gathered to pay homage to Dr. Andrei Sakharov on this special occasion.

When judged against the backdrop of world events, Andrei Sakharov, it is clear, is one of those rare individuals who has transcended difficult challenges to become part of history. A renowned physicist, Dr. Sakharov has repeatedly demonstrated his overriding commitment to international peace and the human rights of the peoples of the Soviet Union. In recognition of these singular qualities, Dr. Sakharov was awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace.

Exciled to the closed city of Gorky in 1980, he and his wife have been subjected to continuous harassment and attempted intimidation. Even in the face of his declining health, the Soviet government has refused to permit him to enter the Academy of Sciences Hospital in Moscow. Nor have the Soviets allowed him to emigrate to another country.

In his strivings for peace and freedom, his life and work serve as testimony to the power of moral courage to inspire people around the globe. By forcefully speaking out and aiding the victims of severe repression, he has with his valor brought light and meaning to the very heart of liberty.

2 NSC/S

At this critical time in history, it is incumbent upon us to bring deserved attention to the plight of the Sakharovs. It is easy to identify with their fate, for they seek the fundamental freedoms that all Americans cherish.

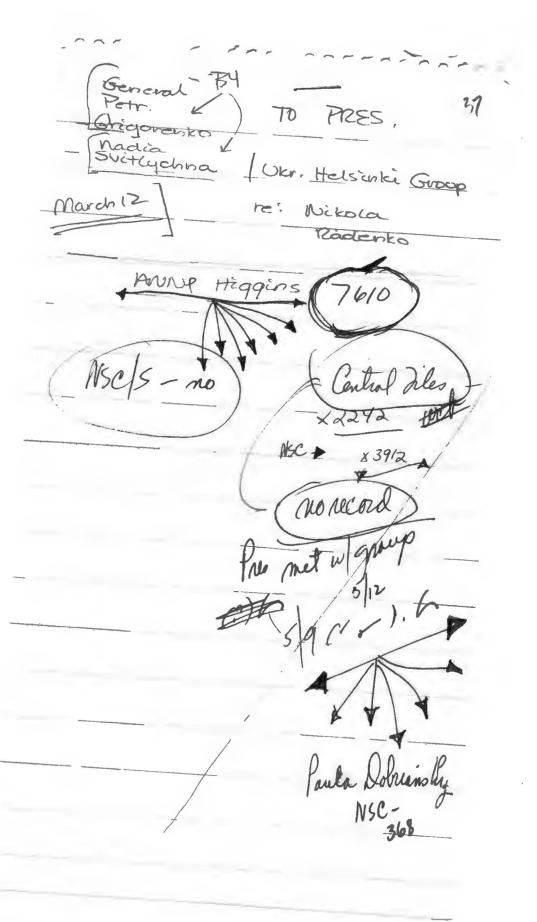

As Andrei Sakharov approaches his sixty-third birthday, we fervently hope that the coming years will see the realization of the progress and liberty he has so devotedly sought.

their suitability for inclusion in the National Wilderness Preservation System.

TITLE IV-WITHDRAWAL OF DESIG-NATED WILDERNESS AREAS FROM OPERATION OF THE MINING AND MINERAL LEASING LAWS

WITHDRAWAL OF DESIGNATED WILDERNESS AREAS FROM MINING AND MINERALS ACTIVITY

SEC. 401. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and subject to valid existing rights, lands within the national forest system in Wyoming which have previously been designated by Act of Congress for inclusion in the National Wilderness Preservaton System, and lands which are so designated by this Act, are hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the mining laws and from disposition under all laws pertaining to mineral and geothermal leasing and all amendments thereto. In the case of the lands referred to in the preceding sentence, for purposes of applying the provisions of section 4(d)(3) of the Wilderness Act, the date of enactment of this Act shall be substituted for the December 31. 1983, and the January 1, 1984, dates referred to in such provisions.

TITLE V-ASSESSMENT OF MINERALS, PROHIBITION ON DRILLING

Sec. 501. (a) Subject to subsection 501(b) of this Act, and in furtherance of section 4(d)(2) of the Wilderness Act and the policles of the National Materials and Minerals Policy, Research and Development Act (94 Stat. 2305), the Secretary of the Interior shall continue to assess the minerals potential of National Wilderness Preservation System lands within the State of Wyoming in order to expand the data base with respect to the minerals potential of such

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to valid existing rights, exploratory drilling within the boundaries of any congressionally designated unit of the National Wilderness Preservation System in the State of Wyoming for the purpose of assessing oil and gas potential is hereby prohibited.

(c) The provisions of section 308 of Public Law 97-394 shall not apply to lands within the national forest system in Wyoming which have been previously designated by Act of Congress for inclusion in the National Wilderness Preservation System, or the lands which are so designated by this Act. TITLE VI-MISCELLANEOUS

PROVISIONS

GRAZING IN WILDERNESS AREAS

SEC. 601. The Secretary of Agriculture is directed to review all policies, practices, and regulations of the Department of Agriculture regarding livestock grazing in national forest wilderness areas in the State of Wyoming in order to ensure that such policies, practices, and regulations fully conform with and implement the intent of Congress regarding grazing in such areas, as such intent is expressed in the Wilderness Act.

STATE WATER ALLOCATION AUTHORITY

Sec. 602. (a) As provided in section 4(d)(7) of the Wilderness Act, nothing in this Act shall constitute an express or implied claim or denial on the part of the Federal Government as to exemption from Wyoming water laws.

(b) As provided in section 4(d)(8) of the Wilderness Act, nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting the jurisdication or responsibilities of the State of Wyoming with respect to wildlife and fish in the national forests in Wyoming.

PROHIBITION ON BUFFER ZONES

SEC. 603. Congress does not intend that designation of wilderness areas in the State of Wyoming lead to the creation of protective perimeters or buffer zones around each wilderness area. The fact that nonwilderness activities or uses can be seen or heard from areas within the wilderness shall not, of itself, preclude such activities or uses up to the boundary of the wilderness area.

The amendments were agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.

ANDREI SAKHAROV DAY

The joint resolution (S.J. Res. 51) designating May 21, 1983, as "Andrei Sakharov Day," was considered, ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.

The preamble was agreed to.

The joint resolution, and the preamble, are as follows:

Whereas Andrei Sakharov has earned the admiration and gratitude of all the peoples of the world for his tireless and courageous efforts to secure basic human freedoms for the peoples of the Soviet Union, including those rights and freedoms proclaimed and guaranteed in the Final Act of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe signed at Helsinki, August'1, 1975; and

Whereas Andrei Sakharov has been awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace for "his love of truth and strong belief in the inviolability of human beings . . . his courageous defense of the human spirit . . ." and a life that has made him "the conscience of mankind": and

Whereas Andrei Sakharov, in direct consequence of his tireless work for world peace and human rights, has been illegally confined by the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics to the remote city of Gorky, where, on May 21, 1983, he will spend his sixty-second birthday in almost total isolation; and

Whereas even under conditions of isolation and harassment by Soviet authorities, Andrei Sakharov has continued to speak with eloquence and great moral force for the causes of human rights and world peace, for amnesty for all prisoners of conscience. and for full compliance by all signatory states with the provisions of the Helsinki Final Act and the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights: Now, therefore, be it.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That May 21, 1983, is designated "National Andrei Sakharov Day" and the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe that day with appropriate ceremonies and activities; and be it further

Resolved, That the President of the United States is authorized and requested to call upon all nations of the world to designate May 21, 1983, as "National Andrei Sakharov Day" within their respective nations; and be it further

To authorize and request the President to issue a proclamation designating May 21, 1983, as "National Sakharov Day".

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 3, 1983

Mr. Kemp (for himself and Mr. Solarz) introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred jointly to the Committees on Post Office and Civil Service and Foreign Affairs

JOINT RESOLUTION

To authorize and request the President to issue a proclamation designating May 21, 1983, as "National Sakharov Day".

Whereas Andrei Sakharov has earned the admiration and gratitude of all the peoples of the world for his tireless and courageous efforts to secure basic human freedoms for the peoples of the Soviet Union, including those rights and freedoms proclaimed and guaranteed in the Final Act of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe signed at Helsinki, August 1, 1975; and

Whereas Andrei Sakharov has been awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace for "his love of truth and strong belief in the inviolability of human beings . . . his courageous defense of the human spirit . . ." and a life that has made him "the conscience of mankind"; and

Whereas Andrei Sakharov, in direct consequence of his tircless work for world peace and human rights, has been illegally confined by the government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics to the remote city of Gorky, where, on May 21, 1983, he will spend his sixty-second birthday in almost total isolation; and

Whereas even under conditions of isolation and harassment by Soviet authorities, Andrei Sakharov has continued to speak with eloquence and great moral force for the causes of human rights and world peace, for amnesty for all prisoners of conscience, and for full compliance by all signatory states with the provisions of the Helsinki Final Act and the United Nations Universal Delcaration of Human Rights: Now, therefore, be it

Tass Says Sakharov May Not Emigrate

Reuter

MOSCOW, May 11—The Soviet Union said today that dissident scientist Andrei Sakharov would not be allowed to leave the country.

After weeks of speculation that the Nobel Peace Prize winner might be granted an exit visa, the official Soviet news agency Tass said Sakharov would be barred from traveling abroad because he possessed state secrets.

Tass said the physicist, who developed the Soviet hydrogen bomb was a scientist in possession of important state and military secrets.

"For these reasons and in the interests of national security, he is deprived of the possibility of making trips abroad," Tass said.

The sharply negative Tass statement came a few hours after an interview given foreign journalists by Sakharov's wife Yelena Bonner who returned today from Gorki, the city Sakharov was exiled to in 1980. She told reporters that Sakharov, who earlier had said his human rights work was too important to allow him to leave the Soviet Union, was now willing to emigrate.

The Tass statement followed still unexplained hints that the Soviet government under new Communist Party leader Yuri Andropov was considering allowing the scientist to leave the country.

Sakharov, 61, was banished in 1980 to Gorki, 250 miles east of Moscow, in an attempt by the Soviet authorities to stop his activities as the country's leading human rights advocate.

The physicist lost his security clearance in 1968 after the publication in the West of an essay dealing with the possible "convergence" of the capitalist and socialist systems. In the 1970s he became involved in human rights issues, losing his place in the Soviet scientific elite. He was barred from leaving the country to accept the Nobel Peace Prize in 1975.

Speaking today with reporters before the Tass announcement, Bonner said her husband was willing to leave the Soviet Union and not return if he was granted a visa. But she said she was pessimistic that permission to leave would be granted.

Bonner complained of her husband's isolation in Gorki, and said she feared for his safety.

"I am very frightened. He's in the hands of terrorists and I fear one day they will kill him," she said.

She added that he had not yet received an official invitation to teach at the University of Vienna, an invitation that Austrian authorities said last month they were offering. Austrian officials had said they were optimistic that Sakharov would be allowed to take up the offer.

Soviet Justice Minister Vladimir Terebilov visiting Sweden hast month also said he saw a possibility that Sakharov might be allowed to leave. Later he said the matter would be handled by the appropriate authorities.

The University of Vienna offer raised hopes in the West that Sakharov would be allowed to leave.

Diplomats in Moscow said the Austrian Embassy had handed a formal invitation to Sakharov to the Soviet government last week and was awaiting a response.

Bonner said conditions in Gorki had grown worse for her huband in recent weeks and he was very depressed and isolated.

Since Sakharov's exile, his wife has traveled regularly from Gorki to Moscow and reported that her husband was finding it difficult to continue his work as a physicist because he was cut off from information and from his colleagues. She told reporters, "I can state categorically that Sakharov is ready to leave. He is ready to leave completely.

"Do you think Aldo Moro would have asked for the right to go back to the Red Brigades if they had offered him his freedom," she asked referring to the Italian Christian Democratic party leader siain by urban guerrillas.
