MEETING WITH CONGRESSMAN THOMAS B. EVANS, JR. FEBRUARY 3, 1981
THE OVAL OFFICE
10:30 a.m. (20 minutes)

FROM: MAX L. FRIEDERSDORF

I. PURPOSE

The Congressman requested to meet personally with the President to discuss problems that he believes are facing the Administration, and to suggest priorities for the Administration.

II. BACKGROUND

Representative Tom Evans is the Congressman at large from Delaware. He was first elected in 1976. The Congressman serves on the Banking and Finance and Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committees. He has recently been designated as a member of the House Republican leadership, serving as Presidential Liaison.

Congressman Evans previously served as executive director of the Republican National Committee's Finance Committee, as Co-Chairman of the RNC, and most recently as congressional advisor, along with Senator Laxalt, to your presidential campaign. The Congressman continues as the leader of the "Core Group", the 13 Republican House-member group that supported you early in the campaign over all other Republican candidates.

Congressman Evans has voiced to members of your staff his desire that your earliest congressional supporters receive your personal attention on matters of importance to them and to you. He feels that they, in turn, will be able to serve you on a more personal and effective level with their colleagues in the House.

III. PARTICIPANTS

Congressman Thomas B. Evans, Jr. Max L. Friedersdorf

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH CONGRESSMAN THOMAS B. EVANS, JR.

- -- Express your appreciation for Tom's friendship and support throughout the years.
- -- Indicate that you look forward to continuing your close relationship with him, as well as with the other members of the "Core Group".
- -- Tell him that you need his immediate attention to the debt ceiling increase, and ask him where he thinks the vote stands now.
- -- Assure Tom that your economic program will be comprehensive and will include major reductions in federal spending that will significantly reduce the rate of federal borrowing in the future.
- -- In responding to inquiries, comments, or suggestions about personnel and other issues on Tom's mind, indicate that you have directed Max and other senior staff members to work closely with Tom to get input.

TALKING POINTS: LUNCHEON WITH MAYORS, FEBRUARY 3, 1981

- -- SOLVING THE NATION'S ECONOMIC PROBLEM IS OF UTMOST IMPORTANCE TO BOTH THE CITIES AND THE ADMINISTRATION. FOR THE CITIES CONTINUED ECONOMIC DECLINE MEANS: UNEMPLOYMENT, DECAY, SHRINKING MUNICIPAL PROPERTY TAX BASE, DESPAIR, AND UNREST.
- -- WE MUST FIND WAYS TO CUT RED TAPE. 59 CROSSCUTTING FEDERAL MANDATES REQUIRE STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS TO DO THINGS THEY MIGHT NOT DO OTHERWISE. MAYOR ED KOCH CALLS THEM THE "MANDATE MILLSTONE."

- -- THE MANDATE MOST IMPORTANT TO THE MAYORS SHOULD BE THE ONE GIVEN THEM BY THE PEOPLE AND NOT THE ONES HANDED DOWN BY UNELECTED BUREAUCRATS.
- -- THERE ARE ADDED PROBLEMS WITH THE OVER 500 CATEGORICAL GRANT PROGRAMS FOR STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS. EACH HAS ITS OWN REQUIREMENTS AND BUREAUCRACIES. THE SYSTEM IS INEFFICIENT AND PREVENTS LOCAL OFFICIALS THE FLEXIBILITY NEEDED TO HANDLE THE SITUATION.

- -- COMPLICATED GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS SHOULD BE REPLACED WITH BLOCK GRANTS TO THE CITIES AS A FIRST STEP TO TRANSFERRING PROGRAMS, AND THE SOURCES OF REVENUE TO FINANCE THOSE PROGRAMS, BACK TO THE LEVELS OF GOVERNMENT WHERE THEY BELONG.
- -- THIS ADMINISTRATION PLANS TO HARNESS THE PRIVATE SECTOR TO HELP SOLVE INNER-CITY PROBLEMS AND TO DRASTICALLY REDUCE TAX AND REGULATORY BURDENS IN ORDER TO MAKE IT PROFITABLE TO CREATE NEW JOBS AND RENOVATE THE INNER CITY. ENTERPRISE ZONES ARE A GOOD EXAMPLE.

- -- LOCAL GOVERNMENT MUST DO ITS PART BY LOWERING LOCAL BARRIERS IF JOB CREATING ENTERPRISE ZONES ARE TO WORK: ZONING, BUILDING CODES, LICENSING, AND LOCAL TAXES ARE GOING TO HAVE TO BE REEXAMINED.
- -- THIS ADMINISTRATION PLANS TO ENCOURAGE THE CURRENT SURGE OF SELF-HELP ACTIVITY -- ACTIVITIES WHICH RELY ON LOCAL INITIATIVE AND LOCAL CONTROL.
- -- FOR FIFTY YEARS THE GOVERNMENT POWER HAS BEEN CENTRALIZING IN WASHINGTON AND IT HAS PROVEN A DISASTER FOR THE NATION'S CITIES.

TAX SOURCES HAVE BEEN PREEMPTED AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN LEFT WITH NO ALTERNATIVE BUT TO SEEK FEDERAL AID, WHICH INCLUDES ALL THE STRINGS THAT GO WITH IT.

- -- WE PLAN TO BEGIN THE FLOW OF POWER BACK TO THE STATES, CITIES, AND, ULTIMATELY, THE INDIVIDUAL CITIZEN.
- -- FINALLY, LET ME ADD THAT I HOPE THIS IS ONLY THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF COOPERATIVE EFFORTS BETWEEN THE WHITE HOUSE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS THROUGHOUT THE NATION. I THINK YOU KNOW THE FAITH I HAVE IN WHAT YOU DO, AND I WILL MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO BE HELPFUL TO THE EXTENT WE ARE ABLE.

MEETING WITH THE CONGRESSIONAL BLACK CAUCUS FEBRUARY 3, 1981 THE CABINET ROOM 2:00 p.m. (30 minutes)

FROM:

MAX L. FRIEDERSDORF

I. PURPOSE

Requested by the Congressional Black Caucus to become better acquainted and to discuss areas of mutual concern.

II. BACKGROUND

The Congressional Black Caucus requested a meeting with President Reagan for the purpose stated above. The Congressional Black Caucus is composed of eighteen members of the House of Representatives. All members are black and they are Democrats. There are no senators that are in the Caucus; there are no senators that are black. The Congressional Black Caucus has as its stated purpose legislative programs that are aimed at meeting the needs of blacks, minorities, and poor people.

The following are the 97th Congress members of the Caucus:

Walter E. Fauntroy (Washington, D.C.)

Augustus F. Hawkins (California-southern Los Angeles)

- Elected in 1962
- Second ranking Democrat on Education and Labor Committee
- Member California Assembly 1935-1962
- Sponsor of Humphrey-Hawkins Full Employment Legislation

Mickey Leland (Texas-central Houston)

- Elected in 1978
- Very ambitious; hopes to run for Senate
- Party loyalist
- Serves on Energy and Commerce Committee as well as Post Office of Civil Service and District of Columbia Committees

Parren J. Mitchell (Maryland)

- Elected in 1970
- Chairman Small Business Committee
- Serves also on Banking and Finance Committee and Joint Economic Committee
- Said to be most highly regarded member of the Caucus
- Most outspoken proponent of Carter

Charles B. Rangel (New York-upper Manhattan)

- Elected in 1970
- Endorsed Carter but was visible at pro-Reagan/Bush political gatherings
- Fourth ranking Democrat on Ways and Means Committee

Louis Stokes (Ohio-Cleveland)

- Elected in 1968
- Senior member Appropriations Committee

George Crockett, Jr. (Michigan)

- Elected in 1980 to replace Charles Diggs
- Serves on Small Business and Foreign Affairs Committees

Mervyn Dymally (California)

- Elected in 1980
- Former California assemblyman (16 years)
- Former California Lt. Governor 1974-1978
- Serves on Foreign Affairs and Science and Technology Committees

Gus Savage (Illinois-southern Chicago)

- Elected in 1980
- Businessman; journalist
- Serves on Public Works and Small Business Committees

Page Four February 2, 1981 II. BACKGROUND

This meeting is viewed as a neutral (if not friendly) exchange. We believe that the Caucus members will concentrate on a discussion of the budget (with concern centering around budget cuts), the economy, full employment, and employment of youths.

Several other issues may be brought up by the Caucus members as a result of their concern about your previous statements that do not appear to be consistent with their positions in an effort to turn you around or extract commitments. These include:

- 1. Voting Rights. Legislation is up for renewal in April of this year and they are concerned about public statements by Senator Thurmond indicating his desire to severely limit the authority under the Voting Rights Act.
- 2. Fair Housing.
- Justice Department suits against localities that have not adequately desegregated schools.
- Comprehensive Employment and Training Act. (CETA)
- 5. Busing.
- 6. Martin Luther King Holiday (January 15).
- 7. Full voting representation for the District of Columbia.
- 8. Third world emerging powers.

Some members of the Caucus have already approached the Administration (specifically Vice President Bush's staff) and indicated a willingness to work with your Administration in areas of mutual agreement in exchange for more discussion in areas where objectives and means differ.

A policy paper prepared by the Caucus for the 1980 election, entitled Black Voter Guidance 1980, that briefly describes their positions on a variety of issues has been given to Martin Anderson and Ed Harper.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH CONGRESSIONAL BLACK CAUCUS

- -- Indicate that you met with the mayors of the most populous cities earlier today to listen to their views and concerns about urban problems and that you are especially pleased at the Caucus's invitation to meet with you since the problems confronting these legislators and the mayors are so closely related.
- -- Relate your keen awareness of the critical issues confronting urban areas and blacks and that you believe the hardships faced by urban residents, including blacks, are a result of our nation's serious economic problems.
- -- Indicate that you know that blacks are among the hardest hit by inflation and the first to lose their jobs.
- Caucus will establish a cooperative working relationship and that you will make sure there will be a continuing dialogue between the Black Caucus and the Administration particularly with OMB Director Dave Stockman, H.H.S. Secretary Schweiker, and Secretary of HUD, Sam Pierce.

time to discuss the issues that they believe are the most critical facing the blacks. Indicate that you and your staff are most interested in being informed about their legislative priorities that they will discuss and develop this weekend (February 6-7) at a Caucus legislative retreat.
