SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT'S FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY BOARD (PFIAB)
and INTELLIGENCE OVERSIGHT BOARD (IOB)

- I promised during the campaign to revitalize America's intelligence system. I am committed to having the most proficient and professional intelligence service in the world. The American people and I are well aware that the security of the country is tied to the strength and efficiency of our intelligence-gathering organizations.
- I welcome you to your important duties. The action to establish both Boards is consistent with my promise that they will play key roles in this program of revitalization. The members of these Boards are highly distinguished Americans from many fields of endeavor, with Ambassador Anne Armstrong as Chairman and Mr. Leo Cherne as Vice Chairman of the PFIAB and Dr. W. Glenn Campbell as Chairman of the IOB. I thank all members for accepting to serve.
- In the past, the PFIAB has been responsible for important and innovative changes in our approach to intelligence and I expect the new Board to carry on this proud tradition. Further, I am charging the Board to perform a continuing and objective review of the performance of the Intelligence Community and to provide me and the members of the Intelligence Community with their frank, objective and creative assessments and recommendations.
- The functions of the IOB are being preserved. The IOB, with its emphasis on matters of legality, will play an important complementary role to the PFIAB. The IOB will report to me and to the Attorney General on intelligence activities that the Board believes to be in violation of the Constitution or of laws of the US or a Presidential Executive Order. The Board will also review the internal guidelines of the Intelligence Community.
- With these two Boards in place, the American people and I will have a dual assurance that our Intelligence Community will do the best possible job, paying full attention to the rights of all our citizens.

- As I stated when I issued the Executive Order on Intelligence Activities, thoughtful analysis is vital to sound decisionmaking. The goal of our intelligence analysts can be nothing short of the truth, even when the truth is unpleasant or unpopular. I have asked for honest, objective analysis and I shall expect nothing less from the intelligence community. When there is disagreement, as there often is, on the difficult questions of our time, I expect honest differences of view to be fully expressed. I ask that the PFIAB assist me in this vital effort to improve our intelligence analysis.
- As I told Anne Armstrong and Glenn Campbell, I will provide frequent opportunity for the Boards to meet with me as needed to perform their separate mandates.
- Again I offer my welcome to you and support for your efforts.

WASHINGTON

PRESENTATION OF DIPLOMATIC CREDENTIALS

Wednesday, January 13, 1982
Beginning at 11:30 a.m.
The Oval Office

FROM: WILLIAM P. CLARK Bul

I. PURPOSE

To receive for accreditation the diplomatic credentials of three Ambassadors.

II. BACKGROUND AND PRESS ARRANGEMENTS

- A. Background: The Ambassadors from the Republic of Sierra Leone, Republic of Austria, and United Republic of Cameroon will present their credentials. After an exchange of documents, you will hold a brief (five-minute) conversation with each Ambassador.

Three-by-five cards are attached noting pertinent information and suggested talking points.

- B. Press Arrangements: White House photographer only.

Dauda Sulaiman Kamara (Phonetic: Kah MAH rah) - Appointed Ambassador of the Republic of Sierra Leone

Head of State - Dr. Siaka Stevens, President

Ambassador Kamara, 39, was a teacher and government servant before becoming a diplomat. He studied at Fourah Bay College in Sierra Leone, then taught for four years before joining the Office of the Vice President and Prime Minister. He served as secretary to a governmental commission of inquiry in 1976-77. His first diplomatic assignment was as Ambassador to the People's Revolutionary Republic of Guinea from 1977 to 1981. Ambassador Kamara speaks fluent English, French, and several Sierra Leonean languages. He is married and has five children.

Pertinent Background: President Stevens visited the U.S. in September 1980.

Significant Programs or Issues: US/Sierra Leone relations are good. Sierra Leone generally follows a nonaligned foreign policy, but has supported the U.S. in international issues such as the UN resolution opposing the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. U.S. aid to Sierra Leone, which included development assistance and Food for Peace foodgrains, has averaged $6 million a year over the past three years, although budget reductions have forced a cutback in our proposed Fiscal Year 1982 programs. We also have an active Peace Corps program in Sierra Leone involving some 185 volunteers; Ambassador Kamara has spoken warmly of his acquaintance with Peace Corps volunteers in Sierra Leone. In addition, American companies have invested $75 million in Sierra Leone, primarily in mining operations.

Issues for Discussion:

- Express concern about Sierra Leone's pressing economic problems (declining economic output, inflation) and note our efforts to assist Sierra Leone through economic assistance and our Peace Corps program.
- Emphasize our interest in increasing private sector opportunities in Africa, which contribute to the expansion of economic activity both in Africa and the United States.
- Congratulate the Ambassador on President Stevens' election as Chairman of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), and express support for Sierra Leone's participation in this and other organizations, such as the Mano River Union, which promote West African economic development.
- Convey our desire to work with Sierra Leone and other African nations to promote peace and stability in Africa.

Thomas Klestil (Phonetic: KLESteel) - Appointed
Ambassador of the Republic of Austria

Head of State - President Rudolf Kirchschlaeger (pronounced KEERKshlaygher)

Head of Government - Chancellor Bruno Kreisky (pronounced KRYskee)

Ambassador Klestil, 49, married, 3 children. Previous assignment: Austrian UN Representative; has served earlier in Washington and as Consul General in Los Angeles.

Pertinent Background: Klestil met you once briefly when you were Governor. Chancellor Kreisky visited Washington unofficially in 1979. Kreisky was a co-sponsor of the Cancun Summit, although was too ill to attend.

Significant Issues: Relations with neutral Austria are free of bilateral problems. Austrians are concerned over East-West tensions. They hope we will take more Polish refugees. We believe the approximately 5,000 Poles we plan to admit from Austria this fiscal year corresponds to the present need, but if the situation were to worsen we could reprogram numbers.

Issues for Discussion

- Express hope that Austria's President and Chancellor, both of whom had medical problems in 1981, are in good health, and express regret that Chancellor Kreisky was unable to come to Cancun.
- Express appreciation for Austrian role as
country of first asylum for refugees.
- Note that your offer of assistance to Austria has been followed up by discussions between our two governments and with the UN High Commissioner for Refugees, with a view to working out concrete details.

In addition, American companies have invested $75 million in Sierra Leone, primarily in mining operations.

Issues for Discussion:

- Express concern about Sierra Leone's pressing economic problems (declining economic output, inflation) and note our efforts to assist Sierra Leone through economic assistance and our Peace Corps program.
- Emphasize our interest in increasing private sector opportunities in Africa, which contribute to the expansion of economic activity both in Africa and the United States.
- Congratulate the Ambassador on President Stevens' election as Chairman of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), and express support for Sierra Leone's participation in this and other organizations, such as the Mano River Union, which promote West African economic development.
- Convey our desire to work with Sierra Leone and other African nations to promote peace and stability in Africa.

Thomas Klestil (Phonetic: KLESteel) - Appointed
Ambassador of the Republic of Austria

Head of State - President Rudolf Kirchschlaeger (pronounced KEERKshlaygher)

Head of Government - Chancellor Bruno Kreisky (pronounced KRYskee)

Ambassador Klestil, 49, married, 3 children. Previous assignment: Austrian UN Representative; has served earlier in Washington and as Consul General in Los Angeles.

Pertinent Background: Klestil met you once briefly when you were Governor. Chancellor Kreisky visited Washington
unofficially in 1979. Kreisky was a co-sponsor of the Cancun Summit, although was too ill to attend.

Significant Issues: Relations with neutral Austria are free of bilateral problems. Austrians are concerned over East-West tensions. They hope we will take more Polish refugees. We believe the approximately 5,000 Poles we plan to admit from Austria this fiscal year corresponds to the present need, but if the situation were to worsen we could reprogram numbers.

Issues for Discussion

- Express hope that Austria's President and Chancellor, both of whom had medical
problems in 1981, are in good health, and
express regret that Chancellor Kreisky was unable to come to Cancun.
- Express appreciation for Austrian role as
country of first asylum for refugees.
- Note that your offer of assistance to Austria
has been followed up by discussions between
our two governments and with the UN High Commissioner for Refugees, with a view to working out concrete details.
