DATE: Tuesday, December 7, 1982

LOCATION: The Oval Office

TIME: 4:30 p.m. (5 minutes)

FROM: Kenneth M. Duberstein KMD

I. PURPOSE

To respond to Senator Bill Roth's (R-Delaware) longstanding request to bring Mr. Anthony John Obara to the White House to present a bronze sculpture to the President.

II. BACKGROUND

Several months ago, Senator Roth asked for an opportunity to bring Mr. Anthony John Obara, a sculptor, to the White House to present President Reagan with one of his sculptures in bronze, entitled "The Bald Eagle." Because of the significant value of the work, the Counsel's Office recommended that the sculpture be donated to the United States for eventual repose in the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library.

Mr. Obara is a native of Delaware, and currently resides in Pennsylvania. He is basically a self-taught artist, and works in all mediums: Oils, acrylic, watercolor, bronze and stone.

The sculpture which will be presented today will be replaced in approximately two months with the piece that Obara has sculpted for the United States. The White House Gift Unit is aware of this, and will exchange the eagle received today when the other is completed.

Mr. Obara will be accompanied by his wife, Jane, and their daughter, Janie Sherman Perry.

MEETING WITH SENATOR MACK MATTINGLY (R-GEORGIA)
AND ADAM WALTERS, THE 1982 EPILEPSY FOUNDATION'S
POSTER CHILD

DATE: Tuesday, December 7, 1982

LOCATION: The Oval Office

TIME: 4:35 p.m. (5 minutes)

FROM: Kenneth M. Duberstein KMD

I. PURPOSE

To respond to Senator Mack Mattingly's (R-Georgia) request to bring Adam Walters, the 1982 Epilepsy Foundation's Poster Child, to the White House to meet the President.

II. BACKGROUND

Senator Mattingly recently requested an opportunity to bring the 1982 Epilepsy Foundation's Poster Child, Adam Walters, to the White House for a meeting and photo session with the President. The Epilepsy Foundation is interested in a Christmas photo which will be used nation-wide in their fight against epilepsy.

Adam Walters is eight years old, and is in the second grade in Lawrenceville, Georgia. His seizures began when he was six years of age, and since being diagnosed, he has been treated with Dilantin and has attained excellent seizure control. Upon learning of the diagnosis, he read, by himself, pamphlets on the subject and has accepted the disorder -- rarely complaining or feeling different due to the epilepsy. He is a very active child and is now in his third year of YMCA soccer.

Adam shows a great concern for others with handicaps. When James Brady was wounded and later had a seizure, Adam was very concerned and wrote him a letter of consolation.

Adam will be accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Almer Walters, one of his younger brothers, David, and the President (Thomas O'Neil) and Executive Vice President (William McLin) of the Epilepsy Foundation.

Because of the significant value of the work, the Counsel's Office recommended that the sculpture be donated to the United States for eventual repose in the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library. All the necessary paperwork involved in such a donation has been completed.

The Cybis Studio in Trenton, New Jersey is America's oldest existing art porcelain studio where artists emulating the traditions established by the late Boleslaw Cybis create fine porcelain sculptures which have become well known among art collectors around the world. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE DANVILLE
ASSOCIATION OF RETARDED CITIZENS

DATE: Tuesday, December 7, 1982
LOCATION: The Oval Office
TIME: 4:53 P.M. (7 minutes)
FROM: Kenneth M. Duberstein KMD

I. PURPOSE

To honor Congressman Dan Daniel's (D-Virginia) request for the President to meet with representatives of the Hatcher Center (sheltered workshop) and members of the Danville Association for Retarded Citizens.

II. BACKGROUND

Dan Daniel--a seventh term Democrat from Virginia's Fifth Congressional District (south central part of state, including Danville)--serves as Chairman of the Armed Services Subcommittee on Readiness. Dan has been an active boll weevil and has been very supportive of the Administration's economic and defense policies. He has met with the President and attended White House events on numerous occasions.

Dan has requested this meeting to honor representatives of the Hatcher Center. The Hatcher Center is a sheltered workshop operated by the Danville Association for Retarded Citizens (DARC). It is their hope to present the President with a large rocking horse symbolic of the workshop's efforts. Dan points out that this organization recently experienced a one-quarter cut in its budget. The response was to increase sales, reduce expenditures and rely more heavily on volunteer assistance in order to achieve the same quality of service for its clients. Dan characterizes this as a phenomenal job, and he is extremely proud of their achievement.
