MEETING WITH SENATOR PETE WILSON (R-CALIFORNIA)

DATE: Tuesday, January 10, 1984

LOCATION: The Oval Office

TIME: 4:00 p.m.

FROM: M. B. OGLESBY, JR. be

PURPOSE

To respond to Senator Wilson's request for an opportunity to discuss the F-20 tactical fighter aircraft.

BACKGROUND

Senator Pete Wilson is concerned about the fate of the F-20 airplane, a tactical fighter aircraft built by Northrop. Thus far, the Defense Department has not expressed an interest in purchasing the F-20 preferring instead the performance capabilities of the F-15 and the F-16 fighter planes. As a result, Northrop has been promoting the F-20 for foreign military sales, and DoD indicates that they have assisted in this effort.

During his meeting with you today, Wilson will propose that the Air Force include in its budget submission an aggressor squadron of F-20 aircraft. Wilson indicates that he is supported in this view by Senators Stevens and Goldwater and Congressmen Badham, Dickinson, and Jack Edwards. They have been in touch with various officials in your Administration and feel that your personal attention to this situation is warranted. Wilson does not expect a final decision today, but rather an opportunity to make his case to you personally.
