Office of the

Administrator of Veterans Affairs

Dear Concerned Veterans:

The President has asked me as his newly designated Acting Administrator of Veterans Affairs to respond to your recent communication regarding issues of particular concern to Vietman Veterans. He has personally appointed me Acting Administrator until such time as the Senate confirms his nominee, Mr. Robert Nimmo, as Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

First, you may have been unaware that the President had decided to continue the ongoing work of the Interagency Work Group which has been the focal point within the government for research on the possible effects of Agent Orange. While some activities and programs of the Federal government have been slated for substantial reductions or eliminations, the President's fiscal year 1982 budget contains $9,540,000 of budgeted monies for research on the possible effects of Agent Orange. This is more than 300% greater than the $3,126,000 budgeted for Agent Orange in the current fiscal year of 1981.

An unfortunate legacy of the Vietman conflict is the continuing concern of many veterans that they may have suffered or may yet develop health problems as a result of long-term effects of certain chemicals to which they were exposed while serving in Vietnam. The President is committed to the fullest possible scientific examination of these concerns, with the aim of insuring that this matter is dealt with fairly and equitably. The important scientific research being coordinated by the White House Interagency Work Group, including the Air Force Ranch Hand Personnel Study, will be a major priority of this Administration.

Second, in the overall figures for the Veterans Administration, the President's budget set out budget authority for fiscal year 1982 of $24.2 billion. This was an increase of $1.3 billion over the 22.9 billion budget authorization for current year 1981. In addition, $597 million was added by the Reagan Bi-partisan Budget Resolution which will permit the Veterans Administration to: (1) operate with no reductions in personnel in the Department of Medicine and Surgery, (2) operate with no reductions in Veterans services.

Third, the President feels it is important to correct a wide-spread misunderstanding with respect to the funding of the Vietnam Veteran Outreach Centers. Many Vietnam Veterans have contacted the President in recent days expressing their dismay that these Outreach Centers are to be discontinued.

The President, in his nationally televised speech before the Congress on April 28th, stressed his support of the Reagan Bi-partisan Budget Resolution which restored most of the previously proposed cuts in Veterans programs. The level of funding restored is more than enough to fund the Outreach Centers, with a proposed budget of $26 million for FY '82 as opposed to only $12 million expended in FY '81.

The Congress has authorized the President's spending levels but must now pass legislation specifically extending the life of the Outreach Centers. This has the overwhelming support of both parties in both the House and Senate. The President wants you to know that he is specifically committed to keeping the Outreach Centers funded and open when Congress authorizes and appropriates funds for this program.

Fourth, the Veterans Administration has been specifically directed by the White House to stop plans to implement any proposed reductions in Veterans programs which were reversed and restored by the Reagan Bi-partisan Budget Resolution.

The American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, AMVETS, Blinded Veterans Association, and Jewish War Veterans have all endorsed the Reagan Bi-partisan Budget Resolution which contains the President's aforementioned support of veteran's programs.

My office looks forward to working with you now and in the future.

Cordially,

Donald L. Custis

Dear Morton,

This is to confirm your speaking engagement at CALL's legislative briefing at 10:30 a.m., Monday, July 27 at the the Quality Inn-Capitol Hill (415 New Jersey Ave., N.W.).

It would be ideal if you could speak for roughly 30 minutes on the important role conservative grassroots organizations like CALL play in the passage of conservative legislation, specifically the President's Economic Recovery Program.

We look forward to having you with us. We'll be in touch.

Sincerely

Rhonda

President Ronald Reagan The White House 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

The members of Conservatives Against Liberal Legislation and I firmly believe that your comprehensive economic program is the only way to assure Americans of economic security, incentive, and opportunity. Because we are committed to helping you gain congressional approval for your complete Economic Recovery Program, I thought you might be interested in CALL's activities.

Currently we are concentrating our efforts on educating voters and persuading undecided congressmen on critical differences between your bold budget proposal and the Jones "status quo" alternative.

On April 27, CALL's Washington Post advertisement urged conservative Democrats to vote for economic recovery (please see enclosed copy). We've also launched a series of press releases and radio actualities tailored to the home districts of the sixty-seven undecided congressmen on the enclosed list. In addition, we've written to over 200,000 voters encouraging them to contact their congressmen in support of your budget. So far. over 2,000 individuals have expressed favorable views to their congressmen.

To further dramatize the profound differences between your budget and Jones' "business as usual" budget, CALL is carrying out an intensive, grassroots voter education effort in Jones' district. Our ad in the Tulsa World on April 26 asked the Tulsa voters "What did you vote for last November, President Reagan's fresh, bold economic proposals or more liberal, high-tax, no-growth economics as represented by the Jones' budget?" CALL's radio actualities and radio advertisements again illustrate the contrasting budgets.

Looking beyond the budget battle and to the upcoming tax reduction fight, CALL plans to step up its voter education effort in Rep. Dan Rostentowski's 8th District in Illinois. This is because Rostentowski chairs the House Ways and Means Committee which has the first critical vote on the tax reduction proposal.

President Ronald Reagan Page two April 30, 1981

Whenever and wherever feasible, CALL will continue to implement grassroots campaigns to educate the constituents of powerful House leaders Tip O'Neill (House Speaker), Jim Wright (Majority Leader), Jamie Whitten (Appropriations Committee Chairman) and Henry Reuss (Joint Economic Committee Chairman). We will also continue to try to persuade the Conservative Democratic Forum members of the benefits of your Economic Recovery Program. The scope and effectiveness of these efforts will depend on available resources.

Mr. President, these are some of the activities that CALL has undertaken to assist you in your battle to reverse the dangerous trends in the American economy. With CALL's members working together with you and thousands of other concerned citizens, I know we can change America's economic future.

I pray for your continued success and speedy recovery.

Warmest regards.

CALL's Legislative Programs

CALL alerts citizens at the grassroots level in all 50 states about congressional legislation important to the health and welfare of the country.

CALL holds briefings for its members as well as members of Congress and their staffs on major issues of the day. Conservative leaders in and out of government participate.

CALL publishes its monthly newsletter, CALL for Action, to alert its members to pressing legislation and appropriate action which can be taken to affect that legislation.

CALL publishes timely economic and defense issue fact sheets for its membership, and for members of Congress and their staffs.

CALL extends to its membership, and to members of Congress and their staffs. the use of its organization as a forum for discussing and printing ideas and arguments dealing with legislation important to America's well-being.

What CALL and its Members Are Dedicated To:

CONSERVATIVES AGAINST LIBERAL LEGISLATION (CALL) is dedicated to a rebirth of economic growth for all Americans through lower rates of taxation, spending reductions, regulatory reform and sound monetary policies.

We also believe in a strong defense capability and a resolute foreign policy directed toward expanding freedom around the globe.

Most importantly, we believe that conservatives must do more than merely highlight the intellectual and moral bankruptcy of modern American liberalism. We must propose our own new ideas and programs that will gain the electoral support of the vast majority of the American people.

CALL enjoys the support of Americans who are affiliated with all three major political persuasions: Republican, Democratic and Independent. We all share a commitment to a prosperous, compassionate society and a strong, freedom-oriented foreign policy.

As a non-profit, nationwide citizens' action organization, CALL will be striving in the 1980's to make the United States strong and great again, both economically and militarily. We want to help get America moving again.

CALL is classified as a Section 501(C)(4) educational, citizens' organization under the Internal Revenue Code and may accept contributions in any amount from individuals or corporations. Contributors to CALL are not reported to any federal agency.

Here's What They're Saying About CALL!

"I truly believe CALL is one of the most exciting and influential— organizations in America. We need action. And that's what CALL is all about.

- Senator Gordon Humphrey,(R-NH)

Conservatives Against Liberal Legislation, operated by "new right" wizard John T.(Terry) Dolan, ran a huge ad in the January 1981 Washington Post urging conservative Democrats in the House of Representatives to vote against Speaker Tip O'Neill for another term.

-Group Research

CALL is one of several right wing organizations in the country attempting to give Congress a more conservative character.

The national director for CALL, which has about 70,000 members across the country, is John Dolan, one of the catalysts of the national right-wing movement.

—The Vermont Times Argus

"Thanks for your help in the great election law victory! You... were just as responsible for the demise of HR1 as the House Administration Committee Members in the decisive, bipartisan 8-17 vote. I really appreciate your effective assistance on this important question. It's good to know that we can count on you again."

—Congressman Bill Frenzel

"CALL has mounted the most visible effort. Starting in February 1979 with an anti-HR1 letter written over the signature of Republican Robert K. Dornan of California, CALL has sent out nearly 1.5 million pieces of mail with enclosed postcards to be returned to members of the House. CALL has also done targeted media advertising, spending about $12,000 on anti-HR1 radio and newspaper ads in Democratic Rep. Thomas S. Foley's district in eastern Washington. Gearing for a House vote, CALL is printing buttons and bumper stickers..."

—Congressional Quarterly

Dear CALL Members

Research, printing, postage, and media campaigns cost thousands of dollars. We can only win these victories with contributions from you. Your continued support is critical to the success of CALL's many projects. Thank you for your generous support.

Sincerely,

Reagan Scores KO In Round 1

It was Thursday, May 7th. The clock above the Speaker's head had just passed 4:45 p.m. A roar of celebration broke out over the House floor-from the Republican side. President Reagan's budget proposal had just tallied up vote-number 218, the magic number needed for passage. House conservatives had finally won a major and significant victory: the first step toward economic recovery.

The final vote count for the Reagan budget was 253-176 (see CALL Roll enclosure with this newsletter), an overwhelming 77 vote margin. Sixty-three Democrats had defected to the President's side.

Passage of the President's budget means a sizeable increase in spending for national defense and an unprecedented yet necessary transfer of power from the federal government to state and local governments. But most importantly, we can expect substantial budget and tax cuts next year.

ROLL THE CREDITS

President Reagan should be complimented on a superb lobbying effort that earned him a resounding budget victory. But much of the credit for the budget's passage goes to Congressman Phil Gramm of Texas.

A conservative Democrat, Rep. Gramm was a major force behind the conservative bipartisan coalition that passed the President's budget. Along with Republican Del Latta of Ohio, Gramm formulated a consensus budget that would appeal to conservative Democrats, as well as to Republicans. That Reagan-Gramm-Latta budget, which contained $6.2 billion more in cuts than the original Reagan budget, is the resolution that was finally passed on May 7th. Our congratulations and thanks go out to Congressman Gramm for the courage he showed in bucking the powerful liberal House leadership.

DEAR CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATS,

Welcome back to Washington.

This week, perhaps next, you will vote on America's economic future.

THE CHOICE IS CLEAR

THE ECONOMIC

THE BUSINESS-AS-

The American people—your constituents-want a change.

We urge you to vote for that change.

VOTE FOR THE REAGAN RECOVERY BUDGET

This CALL ad appeared in the WASHINGTON POST on April 27th, the day members of Congress returned to Washington from Easter recess.

During the recess, constituents tied up the phone lines of their representatives, demanding they support the President's Budget. And when they returned to Washington, the heat was still on, as this ad suggests.

DEMOS STALL TAX CUT ENGINE

The adopted budget resolution allows for a $51.3 billion tax cut, about 80% of which will be geared toward individuals. The President has requested that the tax cuts go into effect July 1st. That means that if Congress were to act immediately on the Reagan tax proposal, you could be seeing the first effects of a tax cut in your July paycheck.

But all indications are that the House Democrats want to stall on the tax proposal. The Democratic leadership wants fewer tax reductions than the President has requested, as well as a delay in when any tax cuts would go into effect.

Representative Phil Gramm, architect of successful budget proposal.

CALL FOR ACTION _

The Reagan budget victory is merely the first step in a summer-long budgetary process. The passage of this resolution only sets the spending guidelines for the individual House committees. A second or final House resolution will be voted on in September, just before the beginning of the new fiscal year. That is when the final tax and budget cuts will be decided.

We thank you for your financial and active support in our campaign to push for the Reagan budget proposal. We ask you to thank your representative, if he or she voted for the Reagan budget (see CALL Roll).

Act Now For a July Tax Cut

The Reagan budget proposal has been passed, but the battle for the President's tax program is just beginning.

Any group of people can be a tremendous help in passing the Reagan across-the-board tax-cut program. Simply follow this timetable:

May 7 - May 31. Remind everyone that President Reagan has proposed tax cuts that would show up in people's paychecks by July 1st; and that the Congress planned on those tax cuts in the Budget that was passed on May 7th.

May 7 - May 31. Encourage people to write to their congressmen, and to the Democratic leaders, Tip O'Neill, Jim Wright, Dan Rostenkowski and Jim Jones, demanding action on the tax cuts in time to take effect during July.

June 1 - June 13. Blame Democrats, and especially O'Neill, Wright, Rostenkowski and Jones if they fail to act on the tax cut in May.

June 14 - June 26. Tell people to call their congressmen during the upcoming recess (June 27 to July 7). They should demand the tax cut immediately and complain about the delay.

June 27 - July 7. (The July 4 House Recess). Panic Democratic congressmen by tying up their phone lines with complaints about taking a recess when they have not enacted the tax cuts; complain that they have sabotaged the Reagan program by preventing the tax cuts from taking effect in July when the President and the people want them.

Please pass this timetable on to your friends and colleagues, and ask them to get actively involved, too.

President Awes Critics

The truth comes out sooner or later.

During the presidential campaign last fall, among the countless criticisms leveled at Ronald Reagan were that he was too old for the physically-taxing job he sought, and that if elected he would not take an active interest in the day-to-day legislative details required of a successful president. Well, (as the President himself would begin) Reagan's phenomenal recovery from his gunshot wound destroyed the belief that he was too old and physically unfit for the job.

Reagan political friends and foes alike agree that the selling job Reagan did on the moderate-to-conservative House Democrats (as well as the moderates of his own party) was nothing less than remarkable. You would have to go back, they say, to LBJ and the "Great Society" era of 1965-66 to find a precedent for the detailed, successful job Reagan performed in passing his proposed budget.

The President evidently left no stone unturned in order to get his budget through the Democratic-controlled House. Out of the many examples of Reagan-in-action that surfaced in the press, one example suffices to highlight the White House's all-out lob-bying campaign. While chatting privately with the President about the then upcoming budget vote, Rep. Dan Mica (D.-FL) kiddingly wondered aloud whether or not he should take some presidential jellybeans home to his family. Mica forgot about his remark until a package arrived at his home shortly thereafter from the White House. Inside the box: presidential jellybeans of course. On May 7, Rep. Mica voted for the President's budget proposal.

The Strange Case of Lyndon LaRouche

This is the second of a two-part report on the background and tactics of Lyndon LaRouche (see April issue of CALL for Action for Part I).

With the recent demise of the U.S. Labor Party, La-Rouche has established a new political front group, the National Democratic Policy Committee (NDPC). The change of names is consistent with and conducive to the tactic of "entryism" used often by Trotskyites. The idea is to "infiltrate" the targetted group and work from the inside. With the NDPC, LaRouche has directed his followers to work within the Democratic Party. His aim is to gain more influence inside the party and more credibility with voters. LaRouche evidently became familiar with this tactic during his years in the SWP.

At the same time that LaRouche is infiltrating the Left, he is also making inroads into unsuspecting elements of the Right. Two primary vehicles he uses to "enter" rightist channels are the Fusion Energy Foundation and the Anti-Drug Coalition.

The Fusion Energy Foun-

The organ of Anti-Drug Coalition is a magazine called War on Drugs. It purports to clamp down on the huge drug network in this country. Recently, the Coalition has attempted to recruit Nancy Reagan as a primary sponsor for its activities in order to gain credibility as a conservative organization in the eyes of true conservatives.

Incident.

Lyndon LaRouche

CALL for Action

LaRouche's face will undoubtedly surface again in 1984. Until then, his lackeys will continue the war against the Left and will reach out for support from the Right.

As a conservative, you should take precautions to avoid the jaws of LaRouche's marxism in sheep's clothing.

Study the list of organizations and publications above, next to LaRouche's picture. Make your friends aware of them as well. In the meantime, CALL will continue to monitor LaRouche's expanding network and will keep you informed of its effects.

Washington Briefs

- Prior to defeating Jim Jones' liberal, alternative budget and embracing the Reagan-Gramm-Latta budget, the House of Representatives rejected two other leftwing, alternative budgets. On May 6, by a vote of 69-356, the House resoundingly defeated the budget proposal sponsored by the Congressional Black Caucus which would have restored almost all of the Reagan budget cuts, made huge cuts in defense spending and raised taxes on upper income earners.
- The same day, the House also dismissed a substitute budget championed by Rep. David Obey (CALL rtg: 18%). Obey wanted to "balance" the budget by restoring the Reagan budget cuts and postponing a federal taxcut. Obey was defeated 119-303.
- Following Reagan's defeat of House liberals over the size and shape of the budget, liberal dissatisfaction with Speaker Tip O'Neill grows. Many liberals realize Tip is a politician out of another, bygone era. His back-slapping, smoke-filled room, bourbonand-branch-water image is not exactly what the liberals want their leader to project in this age of instant communication.
- House liberals were especially upset that Tip spent the congressional Easter recess in New Zealand and Australia rather than in Washington corralling errant conservative Democrats back to the Democratic reservation. Then, back on Capitol Hill, Tip held a press conference to glumly announce that things looked bad for the Jones budget, saying it appeared 25 to 30 conservative Democrats were likely to desert their party and vote for the Reagan budget cuts. Though a bit misleading, the next day's headlines proclaimed: "O'Neill throws in the towel."
- Furthermore, Tip's liberal troops are angry that their "leader" refuses to appear on television talk shows. Associates of Tip say he is aware that he comes across badly on the tube, preferring to get his message across through the print media. This was clear on the Sunday following the budget vote when House Ways and Means Committee Chairman Dan Rostenkowski and House Majority Leader Tom Foley both appeared on network public affairs shows, minus Tip.
- Despite the grumbling in his liberal ranks, his own admitted frustration on the job, and rumors he will not seek reelection to his seat in 1982, Tip says he will run in '82, and-barring Republican takeover of the House-seek the Speaker's job through at least 1984.

The Comment Column

With this issue of CALL for ACTION we begin a regular column in which we will reply to questions and comments our supporters commonly write in regarding CALL, the conservative movement and the issues of the day. We hope you find it helpful.

From a reader in Media, Pennsylvania: "Why are there so many conservative organizations working for the same purpose?" "When are we going to get some unity?," asks another reader from Mayo, Maryland.

There are many legitimate reasons for the existing number of political action committees (PACs), multiissue lobbies (such as CALL) and single-issue lobbies. For example, a multi-candidate PAC is lawfully allowed to contribute a maximum of $5,000 to any one political candidate during each election. For a candidate to receive more than $5,000 he or she must receive contributions from a number of PACs. hence the need for more than one PAC. As for lobby organizations, there are only three major multi-issue lobbies: CALL, The Conservative Caucus, and the American Conservative Union. We believe it is vital that CALL exist because we are the only multi-issue lobby that works primarily on the major issues of economics and defense. Furthermore, in comparison to other organizations, CALL has very tow overhead costs. We do our fundraising "in-house," meaning we do not pay an outside mail firm like the Richard Viguerie Company. And CALL employees work for little or no pay. In addition, we do not sell or rent your name to other conservative groups. Our Chairman, Rhonda Stahlman, having entered the conservative movement as a contributor first and a worker second in 1976, knows what an inconvenience it is to find your mailbox stuffed everyday with five or six letters from conservative groups due to the selling or renting of your name.

A reader from Visalia, California wants to know if CALL's activities are "considered political or nonpolitical (educational)?"

CALL is a voter-education citizens' action organization, not a political action committee. We are in the business of helping you keep better informed about and have a greater impact on the important political issues of the day that are pending in Washington. Legally, we can deal only with the pluses or minuses of a politician's legislation, not his or her election efforts.

From Marion, Illinois, a supporter asks if contributions to CALL are tax-deductible.

CALL is classified by the I.R.S. as a 501(c) (4) educational, citizens' action organization and contributions to such an organization are not tax-deductible, sorry. However, your contributions to CALL are not reported to any government agency.

The CALL Scorecard

The CALL SCORECARD represents the critical analysis of key roll call votes during the 96th Congress by Conservatives Against Liberal Legislation (CALL).

CALL is a non-profit, nationwide citizens' action organization formed to mobilize concerned Americans seeking the restoration of our economic and military greatness.

CALL is dedicated to an expanding economy through lower taxation and regulation, a strong defense capability and a resolute foreign policy directed toward preserving world freedom. CALL is also dedicated to upholding traditional American social values.

The CALL SCORECARD is comprised of votes taken from the Congressional Record. The symbol "R" signifies a 'correct' vote, pairing or announced positions; 'W' marks an 'incorrect' vote, pairing or announced position; a dash (-) denotes a vote of 'present', or failure to vote or take a stand on the issue.

A vote is "right" (correct) if it is consistent with CALL's philosophical principles as stated above.

(Republicans are indicated by CAPITAL letters. The numbers preceding the names of House members indicate the congressional districts.)

Senate

- 1. Balanced Budget—Reduced Taxes: An amendment by Armstrong (R-C0) to S Con Res 86 to cut federal spending for FY 1981 by $16.4 billion to $596.7 and to cut federal taxes by $30 billion. This was an alternative to the liberal proposal which set spending at $613.1 billion and had increased taxes by $88 billion. Rejected May 6, 1980 by a vote of 35-59. "R" is a vote for less inflationary federal spending and an overdue taxcut.
- 2. Balanced Budget—Increased Taxes: Adoption of the first concurrent budget resolution (S Con Res 86), setting revenues at $613.1 billion. The budget allows for a tax increase of $88 billion. Adopted May 12, 1980 by a vote of 68-28. "R" is a vote against higher inflation, higher unemployment, and a heavier tax burden.
- 3. Tax Cut: An amendment to H J Res 569 by Dole (R-KS) to cut personal income tax rates 10 percent in 1981, and allow faster tax write-offs for business investments. Rejected June 26, 1980 by a vote of 38-58. "R" is a vote for reducing stifling personal income tax burden, and for increased business expansion.
- 4. Tax Indexation: An amendment to H J Res 569 by Armstrong (R-CO) to index, or adjust, personal income tax rates to offset the effects of inflation. Rejected June 26, 1980 by a vote of 39-54. "R" is a vote to prevent the government from profitting from inflation at the expense of taxpayers.
- 5. Energy Mobilization Board: Passage of S 1308 to set up a special board with the power to override local, state or federal laws blocking completion of a priority

- energy project. Passed October 4, 1979 by a vote of 68-25. "R" is a vote against unnecessary federal intrusion into the energy field.
- 6. Aid to Marxist Nicaragua: Passage of HR 6081 which provided $75 million in special aid to the Marxist government in Nicargua. Passed May 19, 1980 by a vote of 44-35. "R" is a vote against sending millions to prop up the radical government in Nicaragua.
- 7. Defense Spending: Motion to S Con Res 86 by Hollings (D-SC) to prevent cutting $2 billion from defense outlays and transferring the funds to domestic programs. Passed May 7, 1980 by a vote of 64-30. "R" is a vote against further crippling of U.S. defense capabilities.
- 8. Satellites: An amendment to HR 6974 by Wallop (R-WY) to add $160 million for design and production of laser beam-armed satellites capable of destroying missiles and aircraft. The Soviets are already designing such a weapon. Rejected July 1, 1980 by a vote of 39-52. "R" is a vote to offset the dangerous Soviet advantage in laser beam weaponry.
- 9. Chemical Weapons: An amendment by Hart (D-CO) to HR 7301 to postpone construction of a $3.1 million chemical warfare facility in Arkansas. The Soviet Union is now ahead of the U.S. in chemical warfare capability. Rejected September 16, 1980 by a vote of 46-47. "R" is a vote to strengthen America's weak chemical warfare capability.

- 10. Aid to Communist Nations: An amendment to HR 4473 to kill a prohibition on direct or indirect U.S. aid to Loas, Vietnam, Cambodia or the Central African Republic. Not only are these countries gross violators of human rights, but also implaccable enemies of the U.S. Passed October 9, 1979 by a 49-46 vote. "R" is a vote against sending U.S. aid to communist dictatorships.
- 11. India Nuclear Fuel Shipment: A resolution to reverse President Carter's decision to ship 38 tons of enriched uranium fuel to India. President Carter supported the sale of the fuel despite its possible use in nuclear weapons by a country whose leader, Prime Minister Indira Ghandi, is a Soviet sympathizer. Rejected September 24, 1980 by a vote of 46-48. "R" is a vote to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons, particularly to those countries which are hostile to the United States.
- 12. Education Department: A bill (S 210) to create a new cabinet-level Department of Education. As expected, the department was a gift to the ultra-liberal National Education Association which seeks to control education and educators from Washington. In addition the department is seen by conservatives as a thorough waste of taxpayer dollars. Adopted September 24, 1979 by a vote of 69-22. "R" is a vote against federal control of our children's education.
- 13. IRS Harassment of Private Schools: Amendment to HR 4393 to allow IRS to regulate private schools according to racial balance. Rejected September 5, 1979 by a vote of 31-54. "R" is a vote against federal harassment of private or church-related schools.

- 14. PAC Restrictions: An amendment to S 2377 to limit the effectiveness of conservative PACs and to maintain liberal control of Congress. The "Obey-Railsback" amendment would limit the amount of money a PAC could contribute to a Senate candidate, and limit the amount a candidate could receive from PACs during an election cycle. Adopted June 19, 1980 by a vote of 53-41. "R" is a vote to uphold your right to make a free choice in the election process.
- 15. Forced Busing: An amendment to HR 7584 deleting a provision in the bill that would prohibit the Justice Department from using money appropriated under the bill to take any action that directly or indirectly required busing a student to school, except for special education students. Rejected September 25, 1980 by a vote of 42-49. "R" is a vote against counterproductive federal school busing.
- 16. Domestic Violence: A bill ($ 1843) sponsored by Cranston (D-CA) which would establish a three-year grants program at state and local levels to prevent domestic violence and to give assistance to its victims. Passed September 4, 1980 by a vote of 46-41. "R" is a vote for less federal intervention in the family. There are already approximately 274 domestic violence shelters operating across the nation.
- 17. Quotas in Education: A Helms (R-NC) motion to table (kill) the Javits (R-NY) substitute amendment to HR 4389 that would allow for timetables, goals, ratios, or other numerical requirements in education. Motion rejected July 20, 1979 by a vote of 18-70. "R" is a vote against the reverse discrimination inherent in numerical quotas.

House of Representatives

- 1. Balanced Budget—Reduced Taxes: An amendment by Latta (R-OH)(H Con Res 314), an alternative to the liberal budget proposal (H Con Res 307, see House vote no. 2). The Latta proposal would have reduced personal income tax rates by 10%, slowed the growth of government spending, created half-a-million new jobs, and stimulated productivity. Rejected May 6, 1980 by a vote of 175-242. "R" is a vote to reduce the enormous tax burden on individuals and industry.
- 2. Balanced Budget—Increased Taxes: An amendment by Giaimo (D-CT)(H Con Res 307) to balance the federal budget by increasing taxes on individuals and industry by $88 billion. Under this budget, the average American worker would be forced to pay an increase of $1000 next year in direct and indirect taxes. Passed May 7, 1980 by a vote of 225-193. "R" is a vote against more inflation, more unemployment, and a heavier tax burden.
- 3. Congressional Pay Raise: Passage of a joint resolution (H J Res 404) to raise pay by 5.5% for members of Congress (from $57,500 to $60,662.50), federal judges, and

- other top-level federal workers. The resolution also continued appropriations for existing programs for certain federal agencies through Dec. 31, 1979. Passed Sept. 25, 1979 by a vote of 208-203. "R" is a vote to set fiscal example by refusing a pay increase.
- 4. Uncontrolled Spending: An amendment by Stockham (R-MI) to HR 4962 (Child Health) to change the Child Health program from a permanent entitlement to an authorization. Funds for such "entitlements" programs are labelled by liberals as "uncontrollable:" which gives Congress an excuse to increase government spending year after year. As an authorization, programs would be voted on by Congress each year, and would be allocated according to need. Rejected Dec. 6, 1979 by a vote of 152-226. "R" is a vote to control runaway federal spending.
- 5. Energy Mobilization Board—Passage of HR 4985 to establish a bureaucratic energy board to govern major energy projects. The EMB would pre-empt decisions on energy matters by qualified experts in the oil industry, and continue discouraging the production of energy here at home. Passed Nov. 1, 1979 by a vote of 299- of the United States. 107. "R" is a vote against no-growth energy policies.

- 6. Aid to Nicaragua: A bill (HR 6081) authorizing $75 million in foreign aid to leftist-controlled Nicaragua. The aid, backed by the Carter Administration, was considered by the House despite mounting evidence that the Sandinistas controlling Nicaragua have strong ties to the Soviet Union through its omnipresent proxy Cuba.
- 7. Defense Spending-Holt Substitute: An amendment to H Con Res 307 (see House vote no. 2) seeking to restore to the FY 1981 budget $5.1 billion in muchneeded defense spending. The amendment would substitute the increased defense outlays for selected social programs by the same dollar amount. This vote was taken only one week after the aborted rescue attempt of the U.S. hostages in Iran. Because of the rescue failure and the seeming U.S. military impotence, this substitute was expected to pass. But President Carter lobbied overtime to insure the amendment's defeat. Rejected May 1, 1980 by a vote of 164-246. "R" is a vote to correct the obvious U.S. military weakness.
- 8 Civil Defense-An amendment by Skelton (D-MO) to HR 4040 for authorization of $990 million over FY 1980-84 for the Civil Defense program. Adopted Sept. 14, 1979 by a vote of 189-149. "R" is a vote to establish a virtually non-existent defense for American citizens against Soviet nuclear attack.
- 9. Chemical Weapons Production-An amendment by Moffett (D-CT) to prohibit the use of federal funds for the production of binary chemical weapons. The amendment was considered by the House despite widespread use of chemical weapons by the Soviet Union against Afghan rebels and by Soviet-backed Vietnam against Cambodian nationals. Rejected Sept. 16, 1980 by a vote of 125-276. "R" is a vote to strengthen America's weak chemical warfare capability.
- 10. Aid to Communist Nations-An amendment by Young (R-FL) to prohibit 1980 Foreign Assistance Appropriations funds for direct or indirect aid to Laos, Vietnam, Cambodia, or the Central African Empire. Adopted Sept. 5, 1979 by a vote of 281-117. "R" is a vote to stop American taxpayers from financing communist regimes.
- 11. Nuclear Fuel Sale to India-Adoption of the resolution (H Con Res 367) to disapprove of sale to India of enriched nuclear fuel. President Carter supported the sale of the fuel despite its possible use in nuclear weapons by a country whose leader, Prime Minister Indira Ghandi, is a Soviet sympathizer. And despite approving of the sale, Carter campaigned heatedly against the proliferation of nuclear weapons around the world. Adopted Sept. 18, 1980 by a vote of 298-98. "R" is a vote to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons, particularly to those countries which are potential adversaries

- 12. Education Department-A bill (S 210) to create a new cabinet-level Department of Education. As expected, the department was a gift to the ultra-liberal National Education Association which seeks to control education and educators. In addition, the department is seen by conservatives as a thorough waste of taxpayer dollars. Adopted Sept. 27, 1979 by a vote of 215-201. "R" is a vote against bureaucratic control of the education of our children.
- 13. IRS Harassment of Private Schools-An amendment by Ashbrook (R-OH) to the FY 1980 Supplemental Appropriations bill to prevent the Internal Revenue Service from using any funds in the bill to deprive private or church-related schools of their tax-exempt status. Adopted June 18, 1980 by a vote of 326-81. "R" is a vote against the harassment of private or church-related schools and against controls on the type of education these schools pursue.
- 14. PAC Restrictions—A bill (S 832) by Obey (D-WI) and Railsback (R-IL) to limit the effectiveness of conservative PACs and to maintain liberal control in Congress. The bill would limit the amount of money a PAC could contribute to a House candidate, and limit the amount a candidate could receive from PACs during an election cycle. Adopted October 17, 1979 by a vote of 216-198. "R" is a vote to maintain the right of free speech in the election process.
- 15. Forced Busing Amendment-Passage of the joint resolution to propose a constitutional amendment to prohibit the forced busing of students away from their neighborhoods in order to achieve racial balance. Rejected July 24, 1979 by a vote of 209-216. "R" is a vote to support a citizen's right to send his child to the school of his choice.
- 16. Domestic Violence—A bill (HR 2977) to establish a three-year grants program at state and local levels to prevent domestic violence and to give assistance to its victims. The bill authorizes $65 million for the program. Passed Dec. 12, 1979 by a vote of 292-106. "R" is a vote to counter a growing bureaucracy and to stop increasing government intervention in our families.
- 17. Quotas in Housing An amendment by Sensenbrenner (R-WI) to HR 5200 (The Fair Housing Act) to delete new federal enforcement provisions. Without the amendment, the federal government would be able to establish special tribunals which would take the place of courts of law. All decisions in these tribunals would be based on the criterion of racial quotas. Rejected June 12, 1980 by a vote of 196-209. "R" is a vote against government control of our right to buy, sell, or rent a home.
