OPL MEETING REPORT

GROUP: Ramah Navajo School Board

DATE: 2/23/82

TIME: 3:30 PM

PLACE: Room 191

PROJECT OFFICER: Blackwell

NUMBER OF GUESTS: John Cordova; Mary Coho; Bennie Coho; Robert
(Attach list) Carson; Martha Garcia

ADMINISTRATION PARTICIPANTS:

Blackwell

SUMMARY:

These Navajo leaders are not from the main Navajo reservation. They asked us to set up a meeting for them.

Then they asked for a follow-up meeting with DR. James Martin, Acting Assistant Director for Indian Education Field Operations and Elizabeth Holmgren, Acting Division Chief of Elementary and Secondary Programs. This meeting was scheduled for them at 3 PM on Feb. 25. After it was arranged, the Indian delegation said they would not be able to participate so the meeting was cancelled.

NUMBER OF GUESTS: Del Lovato, Chairman, Pueblo Indian Tribes;
(Attach list) Florentino Romero; William Buckner; Alex Lucero;
Fred Codero; Edward Little; Joseph Abeyta; Frank Tenoris;
Jim Hena

ADMINISTRATION PARTICIPANTS:

Blackwell

SUMMARY:

These leaders of the Pueblo Indians are anxious to receive a requested reply from the Solicitor of the Interior Department regarding the legality of a proposed transfer of 59 acres in downtown Albuquerque from the former Albuquerque Indian school campus to the Pueblo Tribes. This tract of land is BIA land.

I agreed to contact the Interior Department to expedite a decision on this matter, with out myself coming down on the legal side of the question.

Their second request was regarding the BIA decision to close the Southwest Indian Polytechnic Institute located in Albuquerque. Because they are in full communication with the BIA on this, there was no need for OPL mediation in this matter.

These Indian leaders also stressed the need for President Reagan to issue a national Indian policy statement, analogous to one issued by President Nixon. I informed them that there is much action underway on this and that I had just the previous evening personally discussed this with Secretary Watt. The Secretary is working to expedite this policy statement.

PROJECT OFFICER: Blackwell

NUMBER OF GUESTS: Betty John, Director of Family services; James (Attach list) Price, Chairman of the Board; Alton Terry, member of the Board; Bradie Metheny, friend of the Board

ADMINISTRATION PARTICIPANTS:

Theodore Krenzke, BIA, Director of Office of Indian Services.
William Kacvinsky, Administration, Office of Native Programs, Labor Dept.
Susan Hawkes - Intergovernmental Affairs; Bob Carleson - OPL

SUMMARY:

These Indian leaders from Seattle are concerned that, in a declining budget situation, reservation Indian programs are being maintained at the expense of urban Indian programs.

They asked us to set up a meeting of Administration policy people to discuss this matter. The meeting was held on Friday morning, 8 AM and included the following people as above with a full discussion of their problem.

OPL MEETING REPORT

GROUP: Cherokee Nation and the Kettering Foundation

DATE: 2/24/82 TIME: 3:30 PM PLACE: Room 191

PROJECT OFFICER: Blackwell

NUMBER OF GUESTS: Chief Ross Swimmer, Deputy Chief Perry Wheeler - Cherokee
(Attach list) James Kunde and James Caplinger of the Kettering Foundation

ADMINISTRATION PARTICIPANTS:

Blackwell

SUMMARY:

This meeting was with the Chief and Deputy Chief of the Cherokee Nation in Oklahoma and officials of the Kettering Foundation.

They came in to brief me on a program, "Negotiated Investment Strategy," which Kettering has used successfully in Gary, Indiana, Columbus, Ohio, and St. Paul, Minnesota. It is an interesting concept in which federal, state, and local officials meet with private sector leaders to reach agreement on elimination of "duplicative programs" to get a better return on investment of social programs.

They found, for instance, that one area had 36 often overlapping drug abuse programs. By getting all of the sources of assistance together with a skilled mediator, they claim some substantial success in making better use of the aggregate funds available from all sources.

(see page # 2.)

FOLLOW-UP

PRESIDENTIAL:

STAFF:

Cherokees (Page 2.)

The Cherokees, who have no reservation in Oklahoma, are thoroughly integrated into city and county governments. They convinced Kettering that this program of Negotiated Investment Strategy should be attempted in their local rural area. They felt that this concept would be particularly useful in light of the President's "federalism" proposals.

Since this full concept would be appropriate to all rural areas, not just those with Indian populations, I suggested that the appropriate White House official to consider their ideas is Rich Williamson.

I agreed to urge Rich Williamson to meet with them and consider their concept.

MEMORANDUM FOR: JAMES A. BAKER, III
FROM: ELIZABETH H. DOLE
SUBJECT: Weekly Summary Report ending January 29
Veterans; Fraternal; Religious; 1982
Portfolio Conservative/ Limited Government
American Indians
Manager Morton C. Blackwell

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

Emceed and spoke at two hour briefing for 125 students and faculty associated with the National Association of Evangelicals.

Roosevelt Room meeting of conservative and religious school leaders with Ed Meese and senior staff on Administration bill to prohibit tax-exempt status for racially discriminatory schools.

RED FLAGS

Rising feeling in religious school community that Administration support for them has caved in to the pressure from civil rights activists, leaving impression that Administration unconcerned at trend toward bureaucratic persecution of religious schools.

Conservative groups convinced that decision against plane sales to Taiwan shows that Secretary Haig has convinced the President to abandon his long support of the Nationalist Chinese.

MISCELLANEOUS

Kudos to H. Ross Perot who engineered meeting between Vietnam Veterans Memorial Foundation and foes of the proposed memorial design, resulting in significant changes (including a statue) which probably will diffuse the controversy.

SUMMARY:

Conservative and religious school leaders discussed their objection to the proposed Administration bill to deny tax- exempt status to racially discriminatory religious schools. The visitors requested that the Administration seriously consider amending the bill, especially to be more explicitly restrictive of the I.R.S. They also asked that the Administration urge Senator Baker to refer this bill to both the finance and judiciary committee.

They said any appearance of a "railroad" would produce severe negative reactions in the religious school community.

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

Spoke in Dallas to conservative leadership gathering of Council on National Policy.

Presidential briefing in Cabinet Room of pro-life leadership. The briefings by Don Devine, Director, OPM; Secretary Richard Schweiker, HHS; Under Secretary David Swoap, HHS; and the President were very well received by pro-life leaders in the Cabinet Room.

RED FLAGS

The January 21st conservative leadership meeting at the Mayflower Hotel marks the start of a move by outside conservative leadership to disassociate with the Reagan administration policy.

The American Association of Christian Schools describes our I.R.S. bill as the "worst piece of federal legislation toward churches in all history."

MEMORANDUM FOR:

JAMES A. BAKER III

FROM:

ELIZABETH DOLE

SUBJECT:

Weekly Summary Report ending January 8, 1982
Veterans; Religious Groups; American Indians;
Portfolio Limited Government/Conservative groups
Fraternal groups
Manager MORTON C. BLACKWELL

SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

Dealt with conservative outrage over Justice Department announcement of its intention to appeal the Idaho federal court decision on E.R.A.

RED FLAGS

Anti-E.R.A. activists greatly concerned that Justice Department will not just work for delay of Supreme Court hearing on E.R.A. decision, but may ask Supreme Court to vacate the Idaho decision.

Departures of Lyn Nofziger, Dick Allen, and Bill Gribben causing concern among conservatives that major, pre-nomination Reagan supporters are being eased out of the Administration.

Movement conservatives likely to be united with the National Education Association in opposition to expected "foundation" plan for the Department of Education.
