Mr. Morton Blackwell
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

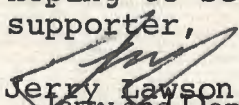

Dear Morton,

We send greetings from California and want to inform you that we plan on being in Washington in March. Congressman Bill Lowery's office has arranged for us to take the VIP tour at the White House on March 15. It would be a privilege if I could introduce my wife, Donna, and daughter, Dawn, to you at that time.

Enclosed is our new financial syllabus, "Satonomics to Godonomics", that we use when giving financial seminars. I am tired of the news media and short-minded people coming against Reaganomics. If they would listen to what is really being said and not run with the fear of losing their own little world, the nation and they would begin to flourish. Some reports after having taught this seminar are: In the black ghetto of San Diego, a group of black brothers are now committed to each other to begin producing and becoming debt free with proper managment. They then want to be able to reach out to their fellow man and teach them. The food distribution program (I sent you an outline on it last year!) is being implemented in the area where there are no supermarkets. These men and women are the ones that are beginning to reach out to their neighbors and help them, not only in food but how to cook and eat, to manage that which they have and become productive on their own. It is our prayers that this will begin to eliminate welfare and the need of welfare in that area. There are several churches now teaching to reach out and take care of those that cannot take care of themselves, the fatherless and widows, poor and needy.

Please share with the President that we honor him. We pray for the both of you that God will continue to strengthen you and keep you on His path. Godly men such as you are a light to the world. We love you and are functioning to help bring America back to the people producing not the government. A fruit tree grows from the ground up not the sky down.

Hoping to see you when we are in Washington. Your friend and supporter,

Morton C. Blackwell
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Morton,

Meeting with you in Kentucky and having the unique privilege of talking with you as we drove from the airport to Prayer Mountain was in deed a blessing.

Enclosed are seven different but interdependent areas that we have been working in for the last five years to build individuals and help them to learn to become producers instead of strictly consumers. What we have learned working with both individuals and organizations is the leaders of the organizations grow out of contact with their people many times and fail in truly representing them. Their organization becomes most important thus limiting its true purpose. The Christian community after 2000 years is still struggling to see what God calls for (1) to be good stewards, (2) build resources (3) call on those in need with those resources. Matthew 25. Our goals are to illustrate and activate Christians beyond themselves and their personal organization. I pray these contribute to our country's stability, spiritually, mentally and physically; as we have seen a high percentage of broken homes and marriages healed, families ready for bankruptcy now operating their own businesses and divorcees being provided for and functioning without the aid of welfare. I hope to stay in contact with you and be able to supply some positive results.

God bless you and Mr. Reagan. We are praying for the two of you to remain steadfast on God's path and walk with His strength. Again, thank you for the privilege of chatting with you and we are looking forward to meeting with you again.

I remain respectfully yours in JESUS,

Jerry Lawson
