THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1982

Dear Mr. Dailey:

Thank you for your recent letter in which you indicated that Rex Humbard would be interested in future White House meetings with religious Leaders. We appreciate very much the great services of his ministry and will keep Rev. Humbard in mind for appropriate future meetings.

Enclosed you will find two packets of information regarding recent initiatives of the President, the Voluntary School Prayer Amendment and the Tuition Tax Credit Bill.

Thank you again for your offer. If there is anything further I or my staff can do for you, do not hesitate to call upon us.

Sincerely,

Morton C. Blackwell

Dear Mr. Blackwell:

First, let me express my gratitude for helping to obtain the letter from President Reagan congratulating Rex Humbard on fifty years of religious broadcasting. Rex will be reading that letter over the air shortly and I am grateful for your assistance.

Secondly, I wonder if I could ask you to include Rex in any future meetings of religious leaders at the White House. I know that Rex has not been involved in the political arena in years past nor does he intend to. I am also aware that his lack of participation is the reason why he has not been extended previous invitations.

However, Rex has indicated to me that he would like to become involved in future meetings which would be of concern to him. I hope that I don't sound presumptuous. I'm well aware that such invitations are at your discretion. I do want to convey, however, Rex's desire to be more involved in these areas in the future. It certainly would be his honor to join with other religious figures in any future gatherings. Thank you very much for your consideration in this matter. We appreciate it.

Cordially,

Jim Dailey

Dear Mr. Humbard:

Nancy and I join all those congratulating you on your 50th anniversary in religious broadcasting.

You can take great pride in the service you have provided for your audiences over the years. Indeed, you have answered a calling few are privileged to hear. In sharing the word of the Lord and spreading His message, you have given solace to the human spirit.

God bless you and best wishes in the future.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Dear Bob:

As per our telephone conversation of today, I am forwarding you a suggested copy for a letter from President Reagan to Rex Humbard on the occasion of his 50th year in religious broadcasting.

Rex's show is the world's longest running, syndicated religious program. It is now seen on 600 stations throughout the world, including 200 U.S. stations.

If possible Bob, we would like the letter by January 1.

I certainly thank you for your assistance in this endeavor. Please feel free to make any appropriate copy changes you deem necessary.

Thanks again and have a truly merry and blessed Christmas.

Cordially,

Jim Dailey
Director of Public Relations

It is my privilege to extend warm congratulations on the occasion of your fiftieth anniversary of religious broadcasting.

The Rex Humbard program has been a source of inspiration and encouragement to millions around the globe. I understand your show is considered the world's longest running, syndicated religious program. Truly, this noteworthy accomplishment has made an invaluable contribution to the establishment of lasting peace.

You have my best wishes for continued success in years to come and, again, my congratulations on the celebration of 50 remarkable years of religious broadcasting.
