MRS. REAGAN: TAPING FOR NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INDEPENDENT
INSURERS MEETING
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1982

Hello to all of you at the National Association of Independent Insurers meeting. When I learned you were doing a film on teenage drunk driving, in addition to your already excellent film on drug abuse, I wanted to thank you personally.

Drug and alcohol abuse are two of the most serious problems facing our children. The stories that kids tell me about their use of these drugs are frightening, and it's genuinely heart-wrenching that our children have to suffer such torments. We can't afford to lose those kids and I am so glad you share that belief. You are genuinely representative of the volunteer spirit that is so close to my husband's heart and so much a part of our American tradition. And let me add, both my husband and Dr. Turner, the head of the White House Office of Drug Abuse Policy, are aware of your commitment to helping our youth.

So again thank you for myself and my husband, and thank you for those children whose lives may be changed by these films.
