Dear President Reagan,
I like you as a President. My mom is Republican that's why we like you. I bet your wife is sad that you got shot. I said a prayer for you and it helped you. I heard on T.V. that your son said that you were going to be President for eight years. Love, Brian Mollenhoff

Dear President Reagan,

I am Heather Hollenbeck. I just want you to know I am very sincerely sorry that you were hurt. I know you're probably busy reading letters right now. And I just wanted to ask you one thing that would mean so much to me. All I want is your autograph. I would keep it forever and ever. I would put it in my very best picture book. And I hope that you could consider just doing this one thing that would mean so much to me is this.

My address is 4043 GENESEE, 83709 Boise, Idaho.

Another thing that I think I must say is, if I was 18, I would have voted for you. I Promise! I hope you get better and have the very best health!

Sincerely yours,

... Dear Mr. Reagan, I sincerely hope your recovery is a speedy one, you're the best President we've had since I've been alive. It's a true shame that this incident took place that three other men that were just doing their jobs would be SHOT. SO I do hope you recover fast as well.
