Dear Mr. President,

I am a teacher at the Meadow Hill School in Newburgh, New York. My third grade class was discussing the fact that you had been shot. The children were very upset about this but were glad that you were going to recuperate with minimal problems. It was decided that some get well cards might cheer you up. Several of the children remembered that you love jelly beans. We thought that perhaps some of your favorite candy would help to ease your recovery.

I hope that these will bring a smile to your face and will brighten your day. The children and I all hope that you are feeling well soon.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Patricia Ardizzone
