Dear Miss McCaddin and Third Graders:

What beautiful drawings of stars and stripes and jellybeans on the cards you sent to the President! It is a special treat for the President to receive handmade greetings that show your thoughtfulness and care.

The President is feeling better every day. Greetings like yours certainly help to keep him cheerful.

On behalf of the President, thanks to each one of you: Miss McCaddin, Cleo Pappas (and her brother Nicholas), Ken Saluzzi, Frank Hoven, Sung Hee Kim, Eric Schwartz, Mike Nardozza, Valerie Passerino, Marisa Norian, Brian Demay, Jennifer Walsh, Regina Mulee, Anthony Barone, Michael Healy, Alexandra Lisee, Earl Morrison, Jennifer Moir, Bobby Quickel, Dana Merlo, Julianne Borton.

With the President's best wishes always,

Sincerely,

Mary Catherine English

TO PRESIDENT
RONALD REAGAN

The image shows a hand-drawn sign with horizontal stripes, similar to the American flag. The stripes are drawn with thick, dark lines on a light background. In the upper left corner, there is a dark, rectangular canton. The text "TO PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN" is written in a bold, sans-serif font across the stripes. The sign appears to be a photograph of a physical object, possibly a poster or a piece of paper.

GET WELL SOON!
AND I HOPE YOU FEEL BETTER!
