Dear Friends:

Thanks so much for the copy of Collected Poems of Robert Service which you sent to me through Congressman Gene Taylor during my hospitalization. I do indeed enjoy Mr. Service's work, as he's my favorite poet! Your thoughtful remembrance and the many kind messages which I received helped pass the time and kept my spirits high. Please know that I'm truly grateful for your concern and good wishes.

Nancy joins me in sending you our warm regards.

TAX REFORM ACTION COALITION

January 29, 1988

The Honorable Tom Griscom
The White House
First Floor, West Wing
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Griscom:

Last July 1st, the Tax Reform Action Coalition sent you a half-bottle of champagne to commemorate the implementation of the 34% maximum corporate tax rate. It was, and remains, our view that in terms of tax equity and the dynamic and efficient functioning of the business sector, the significance of the lower tax rates cannot be overstated.

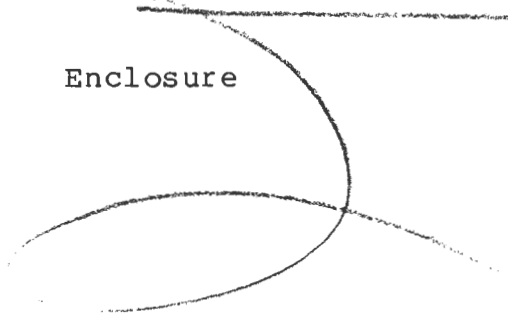

We would now like to present you with another half-bottle of champagne. With the implementation of the other major feature of last year's landmark tax reform, the reduction of the maximum individual tax rate to 28% on January 1, 1988, the job is complete.

Congratulations! It is a truly remarkable and beneficial accomplishment.

Respectfully,

THE TAX REFORM ACTION COALITION

Dear Friends:

This brings my warmest greetings to all of you participating in the Drug Awareness week at Carthage Junior High School. I'm delighted to know that you share my concern for the tragedy of drug and alcohol abuse shaking our country today, and that you are doing something about it.

Over the past several years, I've spent a lot of time talking with young people about drugs and alcohol. Many of them had experiences to share that would make even the strongest heart break. More than anything, they'd wished that they had never even heard of drugs or alcohol.

Please do all you can not only to say NO to drugs and alcohol yourselves, but to help your family and friends as well. By saying NO to drugs and alcohol, you'll be saying YES to a whole lot more. And we need you to be everything you can be!

With my warmest best wishes,

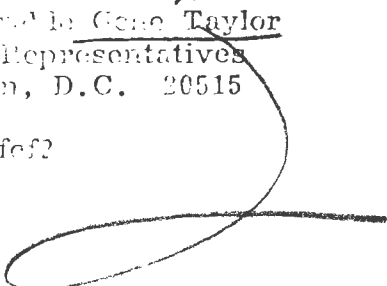

Sincerely,

Dear Dr. Bare:

I'm so glad to learn that you share my concern about the epidemic use of drugs by so many people in our country today.

Drug abuse is threatening to destroy an entire generation of young Americans. I am convinced, however, that through the dedication of people like you, we will one day overcome this terrible tragedy. Please remember that if through your assistance just one life is saved, all of your efforts will have been worthwhile.

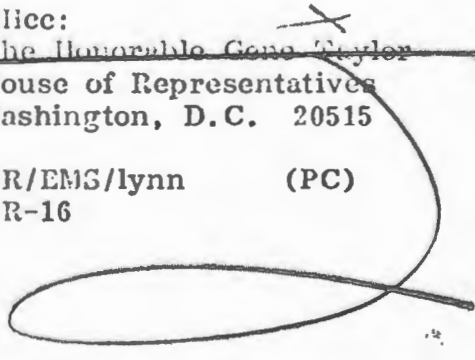

You have my heartfelt thanks and best wishes.
