Get well
Soon!
Mr. Reagan

4 Stafford St.
Hastie, N. Y. 11950
April 3, 1981

Dear Mr. Reagan,

How are you feeling? When I got home from school and heard that you had been shot I was stunned.

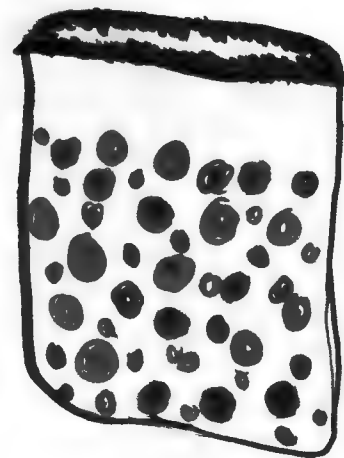

I hope you get well soon and get back into office, because we need you.

I like jokes, don't you? Here I'll tell you a couple of dillies. Dilly, dilly.

I hope Mr. Brady is recovering as well as you.

Your friend,
Daniel Kaplan

Hey Mr. President,

Get Well Soon!

Roses are red

Dear Mr. Reagan,
How do you feel? Good I'm hoping. I heard you are eating and drinking and will be out of the hospital soon. You haven't been our president too long, but we are a bit; Keep up the good work! The sooner you get out of the hospital the better.
Hope you feel better.

Sincerely,

Judy Belanger

Dear Mr. Reagan,

I saw the accident on television. I hope you are feeling better. To cheer you up I have some jokes.

1. How does a German tie his shoe?

2. When was beef the highest?

Here are the answers to the jokes.

1. In little notjies.

2. When the cow jumped over the moon.

I hope they cheer you up or made you laugh.

Sincerely yours,

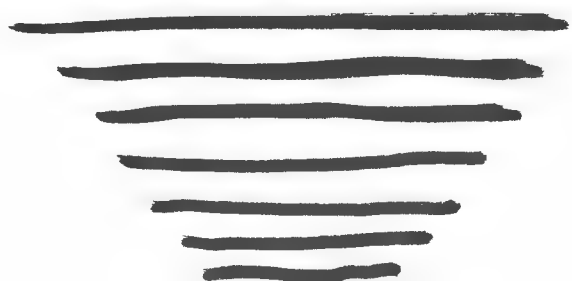

Tom Russell

Dear Mr. Reagan,

How are you? I hope you are feeling well.

Here are some jokes to make you feel better:

What is black and white
and red all over?

answer:

an orange with a red nose

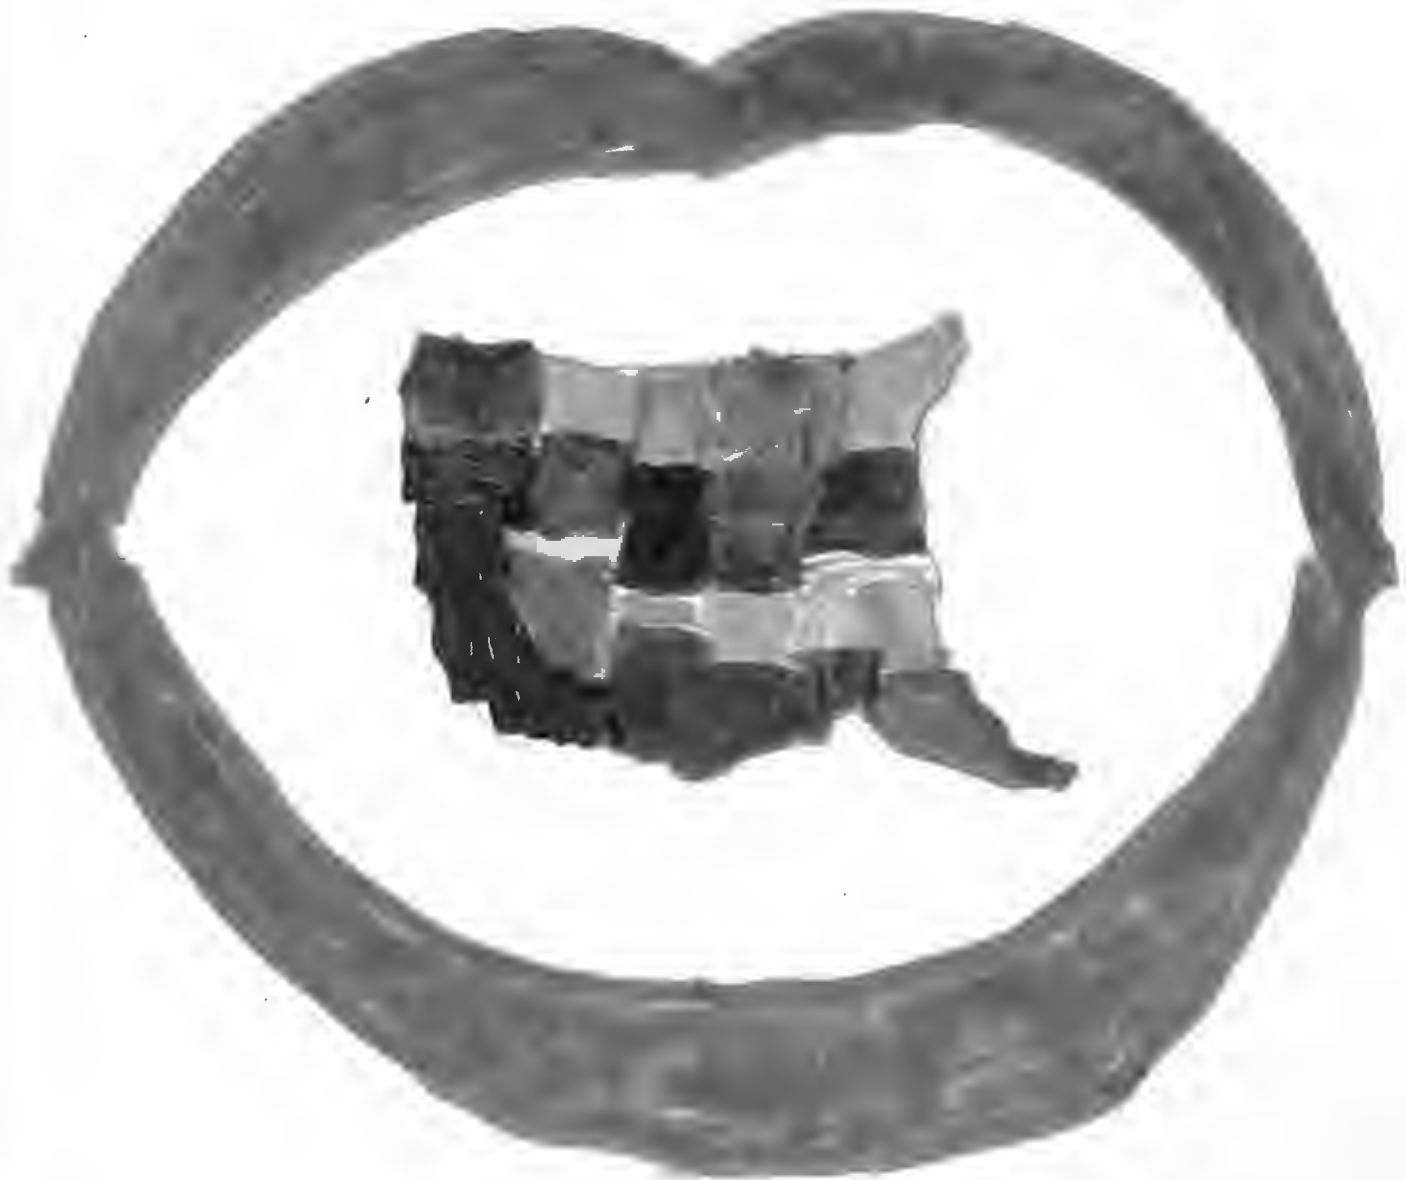

What is black and white,
black and white, black and white?

answer:

a zebra with a red nose

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President,

I'm sure that you have received many letters from people all around the country.

I am hoping that this is a special letter, compared to all the rest.

At the beginning of the year, I made a prayer
to Our Lady of Fatima, asking that you make it through your presidential term.

Even though you got hurt,
it's a wonder you're still alive.

I've seen as many of your movies as I could and

I thought they were great!

I think you are as good a movie star as a president.

But if you don't get well soon, this country could fall to pieces!

Sincerely yours,
Margaret Mary Brown

P.S. - I'm a Republican!

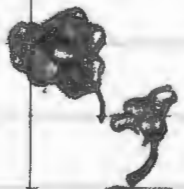

Get well
soon !!!

Dear Mr. Reagan,

I heard on t.v. that you were shot! I can't believe anybody would want to shoot you. I hope you're feeling better now. I am doing o.k.

Get well soon because we need you in the White House. Write back soon.

GET WELL
Soon!

68 Presford Dr.
Shirley, N.Y. 11967
April 7, 1981

Dear President Reagan,

Please get well soon, because we need you in the White House, to run our country.

Hope you are feeling good, because when you get out of the hospital, you have to control the nuts and loonytoons that are running loose hurting and killing many people.

Get well soon!

Love, Your favorite Republican,

Dear Mr. Reagan,

Hi! How are you? Oh, I hope.
I was really surprised when I got home from school, turned on the TV and saw news saying you got shot! My grandma is in the hospital too, I hope you both get out ~~soon~~ <sup>soon</sup>!

Love ya always,

Dear Mr. Reagan,

How are you feeling? I bet you're feeling like because you don't let anything get you down.

For you like being president of the United States I do I know is that you're a great president.

Dear Mr. Reagan,

Hi! How are you?
When I😊 heard what happened I felt really bad.

I know you get a lot of letters from people and they are all very special. I hope this one is.

Anyway I want to say "I hope you get well soon, very soon!"

Yours truly,
Linda Resta
