Left the following message for the President:

1. Sends his best regards to the President and his family on this weekend.

2. Left following message for the President:

"I hate to disturb you but as you know, I am a good man and, like you, I love my country and all people. I believe there is trouble brewing in our country and I think I can help. I know it is your business more than mine, but sometime when you get time, maybe again I could talk to you in behalf of all people in this country. I think I can help. Love you and respect you always. I believe it is urgent. Thank you and God bless James Brown"

FYI -

Lee Atwater was in touch with them
a year ago & the V.P.'s office (now Steve Rhodes) has recently been in touch with James Brown regarding a children's music school
he is trying to get help funding. Any suggestions who should return the call?
